When someone has died....

We can help you tell the people who need to know.

When someone has died, there are lots of things that need to be done, at a time when you probably feel least like doing them. One of these things is contacting the Government Departments and Local Council services that need to be told about the death.

Argyll and Bute Council is providing a service which will make things easier. This service means that you can just tell us and these organisations will be contacted.

How the service can help you?

When someone has died, their death needs to be registered with the Registrar. Once that's done, several other organisations may have to be contacted and given the same information.
