- Issues raised at recent Area Community Planning Groups were discussed and actioned. A site visit to Jura on 7 November to further explore important matters there was agreed to be beneficial.
- The Management Committee welcomed the suggestion of Area Community Planning Chairs attending future meetings.
- Argyll and Bute is to be part of the Islands Strategic Group announced by Scottish Government on 25th August.
- The Annual Report 2015-16 for the Alcohol and Drugs Partnership was given final sign off. Highlights of the past year included reviewing the structures of the partnership, strengthening the core team and shared agendas and great buy-in from service users and communities on the Recovery Orientated System of Care (ROSC) model.
- All partners are encouraged to promote the beauty and accessibility of Argyll and Bute to live, visit and work.
- Those present at the meeting took part in a focus group session, part of a wider consultation, on priorities and themes for the review of the Joint Health Improvement Plan.
