

These are the highlights from the Argyll and Bute Community Planning Partnership (CPP) Full Partnership meeting on the 5th December 2017 at The Three Villages Hall, Arrochar. These are for information purposes for Area Community Planning Groups and partner organisations to distribute freely.

- The Full Partnership complements the meetings of the Management Committee and Area Community Planning Groups to share best practice from the past year and set direction for the year ahead.
- The CPP Terms of Reference specifies that members of the Full Partnership are representatives of organisations and partnerships involved in the delivery of Argyll and Bute's Outcome Improvement Plan (previously SOA/ Community Plan). These predominately come from those organisations named within the membership of the CPP's Management Committee, Chief Officers Group, Area Community Planning Groups and Argyll and Bute Outcome Improvement Plan Delivery Plans.
- The meeting was held in a conference and workshop format rather than a board style to increase number of attendees, allow opportunity for networking and allow people to find out about matters relevant to their area of interest/ work.
- 70 delegates attended from a wide range of partner organisations.
- Councillor Aileen Morton, Council Leader and Chair of the Full Partnership opened the meeting and informed delegates that Community Planning is all about working together in partnership to address our shared goals of growing the population and the economy.
- Jamie Hepburn MSP for Employability and Training gave the key note address highlighting the Scottish Governments commitment to skills development and training.
- Representatives from Helensburgh Youth Forum and Grey Matters gave a joint presentation on the intergenerational work in the Helensburgh and Lomond area and their recent GIVE programme.
- Chief Superintendent Hendren, Chair of the CPP Management Committee, reinforced a key message that Community Planning is about working in partnership with each other, and encouraged people to come forward to take part in helping deliver under 6 key themes, known as outcomes.
- Jennifer Nicoll, Highlands and Islands Enterprise (HIE) and Outcome Lead for The Economy is Diverse and Thriving gave an update on activities within the delivery plan including Oban as a University Town and Argyll Enterprise Week.
- Gail McClymont, Police Scotland and Outcome Lead for Safer and Stronger Communities showed how community justice, mental health and road traffic collisions were the priorities for this year and how all other aspects of safe and stronger communities sat alongside these priorities.

- Fraser Durie, Argyll College UHI and Outcome Lead for Education, Skills and Training Maximises Opportunities for all, showed how partners working to maximise the synergies between organisations and themes had developed the priorities for this year.
- Ruth Cairns and representatives from Helensburgh Youth Forum led a workshop on Youth Volunteering.
