TIGH NA URUISG, UPPER KILCHATTAN, ISLE OF COLONSAY, PA61 7YR

LSO

The premises is extending its offering to incorporate distillery tours and tastings and the inclusion of children and young person access. This variation application is to add the following –

Description of Premises on Premises Licence

The current description reads –

“Wild Thyme Spirits Ltd. is a new business on the Isle of Colonsay. A detached premises set in the area of Upper Kilchattan with no direct neighbouring properties, other than an adjacent cottage in the applicant's ownership. Other nearby properties are holiday homes. The premises are a boutique guest house specializing in gin tasting experiences. The guest house will cater for small groups of gin enthusiasts offering full board accommodation, fine dining, history of gin presentations, cocktail making demonstrations, as well as gin tastings. On sales is only available to these guests. It is also our intention to sell to the off trade via the internet plus to wholesale distributors as well as directly to local on and off trade establishments.”

The amendment reads –

“The premises is a detached boutique guest house and distillery set in the rural area of Upper Kilchattan, Isle of Colonsay, offering full board accommodation for guests and distillery tours and gin tasting experiences for guests and the public.”
