4. PARTNERS UPDATE

(a) Mount Stuart Trust - Strategy 2020

The Group gave consideration to a presentation from Colin Boag, Managing Director, Mount Stuart Trust.

Mr Boag introduced a number of commercial projects and initiatives that the Trust were undertaking, all of which were focused on adding social and economic value to Bute. Mr Boag spoke of the many raw materials that were available on Bute and that the Trust had a renewed focus on adding value to these before they were exported as well as diversifying the local economy. This, he felt, would help secure long term employment on the Island.

The Trust hope to have a brewery, distillery and restaurant and open a dairy by Easter weekend 2020. This would help add to the already excellent offer for tourists.

Mr Boag concluded that the future of the Trust was secure, however, the biggest challenge to the Trust was accessing low cost loans and growth funds. It was anticipated that the, soon to be launched, Bute Enterprise Fund may help support and facilitate future economic growth on the Island.

Discussion took place on the opportunities offered by the Trust to young people to gain skills in horticulture and timber management.

Decision

The Bute and Cowal Area Community Planning Group thanked Mr Boag for the informative presentation and noted the information provided in the presentation.

(b) Scottish Fire and Rescue Service - Cowal, Isle of Bute and Dunoon - FQ2: 1 July 2019 to 30 September 2019

A report highlighting the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service's (SFRS) FQ2 review of local performance within Cowal, Isle of Bute and Dunoon for 2019-20 was considered by the Group.

Iain Cameron, Watch Commander, Scottish Fire and Rescue Service, welcomed the downward trend in the number of incidences that required the attendance of the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service which, he felt, had been as a consequence of the number of community safety activities that had been undertaken.

Clarification was sought and received as to the procedure where two appliances would ordinarily be deployed if a fire alarm signal was received. Watch Commander Cameron confirmed that if an unwanted alarm was included in the buildings risk assessment, a responsible person can confirm it as a false alarm, at which point only one appliance would be deployed to undertake a further check.

Watch Commander Cameron reported that he was continually impressed by Youth Champions taking ownership as responsible persons when dealing with Unwanted Fire Alarm Signals (UFAS).

Decision

The Bute and Cowal Area Community Planning Group reviewed and noted the contents of the report.

(c) Opportunity for verbal updates by Community Planning Partners (Pages 7 - 8)

Police Scotland

Douglas Wilson, Chief Inspector, Police Scotland and the Chair introduced the Purple Alert application (app) which can be downloaded onto smart phones. The Chair detailed how the app was made in conjunction with the Herbert Protocol (a multi-agency initiative which compiles useful information to be used in the event of a vulnerable person going missing) and can be used to notify users if a person with dementia has gone missing in their local area. The Chief Inspector confirmed that the Adult Protection Committee would be notified of the app at their next meeting.

Discussion focussed on how it could be beneficial for bus drivers to have the Purple Alert app installed on their phones and how other community groups such as the Scottish Women's Institute and the Rotary Club could be made aware of the app.

In addition the Chief Inspector highlighted that revised opening hours for the front counter at Kaimes and Lochgoilhead Police Stations would be announced soon. It was also reported that 5 new probationary constables (3 in Bute and 2 in Dunoon) had been recruited and Special Constable applications available. Front line Officers would soon be receiving new mobile devices that would reduce the amount of time required to be in the Station and therefore enhance Officers visibility within the community.
