

CHIEF SOCIAL WORK OFFICER REPORT 2019 - 2020

1.0 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 1.1 The report presents the Argyll and Bute Chief Social Work Officer report for the period 1st April 2019 until 31st March 2020. The report provides oversight and accountability within the local authority for all social work and social care services, delegated to the Integrated Joint Board. Following consideration of the report it will be submitted to Scottish Government. Social work and social care services are key to delivering the Strategic Plan.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 The Chief Social Work Officer has a statutory requirement to produce an annual report providing an overview of social work services for Argyll and Bute. The Chief Social Work Officer also has a responsibility to report directly to elected members, Chief Officer and Chief Executive in respect of any significant, serious or immediate risk or concern arising from statutory responsibilities within her professional remit.

The report details arrangements within Argyll and Bute Council to enable the Chief Social Work Officer to fulfil the responsibilities. For the purposes of this report it should be noted that for the reporting period 2019 to 2020 the Chief Social Work Officer was Alex Taylor who has since retired.

Key highlights of service achievements for the reporting year 2020 – 2021 will also be included.

2.0 RECOMMENDATIONS

- I. Note, comment and approve the contents of the Chief Social Work Officer Annual Report for 2019 to 2020.
- II. Acknowledge the efforts of social work and social care staff across all sectors, as well as unpaid carers in continuing to support the people of Argyll and Bute.
- III. Approve the publication of this report
- IV. Note that once approved, the report will be forwarded to the Scottish Government.

3.0 DETAIL

- 4.1 The report highlights the progress of the delivery and performance of social work services during 2019 – 2020. The report highlights performance information and also challenges for the year and provides highlights and areas for development for the forthcoming year.

The report provides acknowledgement to the early stages of the Coronavirus pandemic and this will be feature more prominently in next year's annual report. It should be noted that the Scottish Government agreed to a shorter report for 2019 - 2020 given the ongoing impact of Coronavirus and the changes that this has required to service delivery. Current priorities for recovery in response to Coronavirus are included and remain a prominent feature moving forward in line with the changing directions in relation to policy and legislation as this arises.

5.0 CONCLUSION

- 5.1 Throughout 2019/20, our workforce have continued to deliver and provide high quality, flexible services to children, young people and adults who need additional support. Examples of innovative practice and developments to improve outcomes for people using our services are highlighted in the report. As mentioned earlier this year's report comes at a very difficult time and reflects the challenges faced by the citizens of Argyll and Bute and also our staff as a result of working through the pandemic. Performance data is provided and reflects the close partnership working with our performance team who support the delivery of this report.
- 5.2 The members of the Council are asked to note the content of the report and approve the contents. Once approved the report will be forwarded to the Scottish Government.
