4.2 Gaelic Survey

Part of the role is to deliver on the Gaelic Gathering actions collected in 2019. These are wide and varied and more information was needed from the community to decide which to take forward. A survey ran for a month between 14 January and 14 February. Over 1000 people responded demonstrating the relevance and interest of Gaelic to people in Argyll and Bute. The survey was aimed at everyone in the area whether they were a Gaelic speaker or not. The findings from the survey are almost collated and will be fed back to the Gaelic Policy Lead and will help the council make the best use of its resource and identify which actions from the Argyll Gaelic Gathering are a priority for local communities.

4.3 Diverse value of Gaelic

Gaelic is woven into the fabric of Scotland and has great value in many areas including education, economy, tourism and communities. It has a link to each of the six SOAs. A 2014 study by HIE estimated the potential economic value of Gaelic to be between £82M and £149M.
