

Community Learning Service update

Community Learning Services have now transferred over to LiveArgyll. The Community Learning Service will continue to work alongside communities and partners to ensure individuals, families and communities reach their potential through lifelong learning, mutual self-help and strong community organisations. If you would like to get in touch with the Community Learning team, please contact cld@liveargyll.co.uk

Health and Wellbeing Project: Has been able to re-start and move forward as restrictions lift and some schools have already completed their Outdoor Learning days and young people are working through SQA Health and Wellbeing units. Other schools will start after the summer break the programme is around supporting young people struggling to reengage with Education after lockdown. Funded by through Youth work Education Recovery Fund.

ESP (Enhanced Summer Programme)

Local authorities across Scotland have been provided with funding to help improve the wellbeing of children and young people over the summer period. Local authorities will be able to work with local and national partners to coordinate and deliver holiday activities and experiences, integrating food and wider family support where needed, and targeted at low income families, children and young people particularly adversely affected by the impacts of the pandemic.

Community Learning Services are involved throughout July and August in both delivery across Argyll and Bute and the Co-Ordinating of the Programme of Activities in Cowal and Bute alongside their colleagues in Active Schools who are also involved in delivery and Co-Ordinating the Programme of Activities in other areas across the Authority. The programme will run throughout the Summer school holidays and covers P1s – to S6 (Primary and Secondary School ages).

New CLD Plan 21-24

Ongoing/Update: A wide range of statutory and voluntary organisations are involved in delivering Community Learning and Development (CLD) services to young people, adults, families and communities across Argyll and Bute. As previously stated The Community Learning & Development (Scotland) Regulations 2013 place a statutory requirement on local authorities to publish a plan every 3 years' outlining how it will co-ordinate and secure "adequate and efficient" Community Learning & Development (CLD) provision with other sector partners. The current plan can be found here Argyll and Bute CLD Plan 2018-21. Work is underway and continuing on the development of the next CLD Plan for 21-24, which has to be completed by September 2021. A number of local consultation exercises have now already taken place along with the new CLD Plan Partnership having met and also regular meetings being held with the CLD Plan Working Group.
