

Community Learning Services LiveArgyll Update

After the Festive break Community Learning Services activities have resumed and in addition to existing activities ongoing there are new initiatives underway and up and coming.

There has been a change in remits Maureen Evans is the Lead Worker for youth Work and Scott Douglas is the Lead Worker for Adult Learning.

For further information on what activities are currently running and what is in the pipeline please contact Maureen and Scott directly.

MSYPs are running consultations events across Argyll with young people around their right to vote and how to vote. During this event they will also be supporting the Community Planning Partnership in promoting and encouraging more Young People to complete the recent Improving Lives in Argyll Survey if they haven't already done so.

Adult Learning

Due to the success of the taster sessions in October 2022 further taster sessions were held in December offering some short taster sessions in different craft activities for example Quilling, Collaging and Boccia and was promoted and advertised through local organisations (e.g. Hope Kitchen, Wellbeing Hub) as well as on social media

New Appointment of LiveArgyll Community Learning Services Youth Team Leader: Wendy Reid has been appointed as the Youth Services Team Leader and will start in her new role in February 2023. Wendy will start to introduce herself to Partners, Organisations when she starts and we would like to welcome her on-board.
