

First photo shows the existing restaurant and grassed outdoor area together with the hard-standing area for the new distillery via the steel gates. The second photo shows a close up of the entrance to the existing restaurant and entrance to the new distillery (part of the main house converted.)

Photo three shows an overall general view which includes the applicants home. (other half of the new distillery )

