THE CONSTITUTION

PART A

The Council is a unitary authority established as a body corporate by the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1994. Since 1 April 1996, following local government reorganisation, It has been providing the full range of local government services to the people of Argyll and Bute across Scotland's second largest local authority area in urban, rural, remote and island communities. Additional information is provided on the Council's website, <http://www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/asp>.

The Operation of the Council

The Council's Constitution sets out how the council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people. The constitution comprises a number of parts and these parts set out the basic rules governing the manner in which the Council conducts its business. Appendices contain more detailed procedures and codes of practice regulating different aspects of the Council's business.

The Council's political management arrangements comprise –

- (1) The Council and the Strategic Committees of Policy and Resources, Community Services and Environment, Development and Infrastructure to take decisions on matters within their powers as contained in statute or by the provisions of this Constitution;
- (2) four decentralised Area Committees with delegated authority to make decisions affecting local communities, to lead local community engagement, to lead Local Area Community Planning Groups involving Community Planning partners, to bring decision making closer to local people;
- (3) robust governance arrangements in the shape of an Audit and Scrutiny Committee (on which there is an independent non-Councillor Chair person) which scrutinises and advises on audit and risk management aspects of the Council's business.
- (4) a Planning, Protective Services and Licensing Committee which provides a strategic reference point to take decisions relating to regulatory and quasi-judicial matters including development management;
- (5) The Council may also establish Short Life Working Groups to look at policy matters in more detail and to report their findings to the Council.
- (6) A single Harbour Board to oversee the operation of all Council piers and harbours.

Both Councillors and Council employees are servants of the public, they have separate responsibilities: Councillors are responsible to the electorate; the employee is responsible to the Council as a whole. They have separate roles: the Councillors' role is to determine policy and direction, scrutinise performance and achievement of outcomes, and to participate in decisions on matters placed before them. Direct operational management of the Council's services is the responsibility of the Council's Chief Executive and Executive Leadership Team.

ROLE AND DUTIES OF COUNCILLORS

("A Job Description for Councillors")

PART A: ALL COUNCILLORS

1. INTRODUCTION

Being a local Councillor is an honourable job which can be a rewarding and enriching experience. It is no easy task being a Councillor. Society needs to have people, whether at a national or local level who are able, willing and prepared to take decisions on its behalf about matters which affect the lives of citizens and who are prepared to be accountable for these. Democratic election gives local Councillors, like Members of Parliament, a special status in public life which brings with it opportunities to contribute to the well being of society, and in doing so, responsibilities to act fairly and within the law.

2. ROLE OF COUNCILLORS

Local government serves the people

Providing public services is a prime function of local government. Local Councils are not the only providers of services to the public but no other public body provides the range of services which a local Council does. Providing services to meet community needs and aspirations requires the development of policy about the nature of services to be provided and the planning of the delivery and resourcing of those services.

As a Councillor, he or she will, therefore, participate as –

- A policy maker
- An executive decision taker as part of the Council or a Committee of the Council
- A scrutiniser of the effectiveness of the Council in achieving its desired outcomes and delivering services

Local government represents the people

Councillors are elected and then have a democratic legitimacy. They represent the people of their communities (including those who did not vote for them). Whatever service delivery functions a Council has (and even if there were none) this representational function would remain.

As a Councillor, he or she, therefore –

- Is a representative of all of his or her constituents
- Is a community leader providing a focus for the development of his or her community.

Local government makes rules

All societies need principles to which action conforms, if they are to safeguard the freedom, safety and well-being of their citizens. At a national level there is a clear distinction between Parliament, which makes the rules, and Government, which applies them, and the Courts (or other tribunals) which interpret them. A local Council, however, has three roles –

- It must apply certain rules which Parliament has laid down for it
- It may make rules of its own
- It must apply rules of its own which it makes

By participating in making or administering rules which affect the rights and obligations of citizens, and which include the granting or refusal of permissions, a Councillor, therefore –

- Pays attention to relevant considerations and ignores irrelevant ones
- Considers and weighs evidence
- Considers each issue on its merits
- Acts fairly and within the law

Local government works with others

Not only is it for Councils to plan and deliver their own services, there is a statutory duty, under the concept of community planning, that Councils take the lead in drawing together the activities of the whole range of public bodies, and the business and voluntary sectors, in identifying a common agenda and drawing together the plans of the partners to address the needs of communities. Beyond that Councils work in a national framework with Government and Parliaments at UK and Scottish level, and with other agencies.

As a Councillor, he or she fulfils advocacy and ambassadorial role not only on behalf of his or her own community in a local context, but also representing the interests of Argyll and Bute in a wider national arena.

MAIN TASKS

1. Regular attendance at meetings of the Council, and of any Committee, Sub-Committee and Working Groups to which the Councillor is appointed is an essential component of the policy making and executive decision taking life of the Council.

2. Dealing with issues raised by constituents by correspondence, telephone and in person on an ongoing basis, and making arrangements to facilitate access by constituents, including “surgeries” or in other ways, contributes to the representative role of the Councillor.
3. Actively being aware of issues, inside and outside the Council, affecting the Councillor’s electoral ward and the wider Argyll and Bute community fulfils a community leadership and representative function.
4. Working in partnership with other local organisations to identify and pursue local needs and aspirations and encouraging community action is fundamental to the role of community leader.
5. As a local community leader, Councillors will be invited by local organisations to participate in local forums and events which collectively provide a focus for community activity and development.
6. Representing Argyll and Bute on other organisations or agencies to which the Councillor may be appointed or nominated by the Council represents an ambassadorial function articulating the Council’s policies and views and projecting the good image of the Council and Argyll and Bute.

4. Core skills and competencies

A commitment to the ethos of public service lies at the heart of being a local Councillor. Active citizenship is a commitment to contributing to and focusing on what best improves the well-being of communities. Beyond this, succeeding within the role of Councillor requires a range of core skills which support elected members in fulfilling their governance roles effectively, thereby improving local governance and accountability of public services to local communities. The Continuous Professional Development Framework for Elected Members in Scottish Local Government identifies 10 core skills which are underpinned by a further range of detailed behaviours and is as follows:

1. Representation
2. Political Awareness and Understanding
3. Effective Communication
4. Analysis and Problem-Solving
5. Making Good Judgements and Decision-Making
6. Negotiation and Lobbying
7. Effectively Working with Others
8. Providing Leadership, Focus and Direction
9. Personal Integrity and Values
10. Personal Effectiveness

5. TRAINING

Each Councillor requires to have a personal development plan designed to achieve at least the core competencies to support the core skill set out above. The Council will provide a range of training opportunities in support of these competencies. To play his or her full part as a Councillor requires a Member to be diligent in accepting the opportunities for training which are provided.

STANDING ORDERS

1.

FIRST MEETING AFTER AN ELECTION

- 1.1 The first meeting of the Council after an ordinary election of Councillors will be held within 21 days from the date of the election. At that meeting, the Council will –
- 1.1.1 Elect the Provost;
 - 1.1.2 Elect the Depute Provost;
 - 1.1.3 Appoint a Leader and Depute Leader of the Council;
 - 1.1.4 Appoint the Members of Committees of the Council;
 - 1.1.5 Appoint the Chairs and Vice Chairs of these bodies;
 - 1.1.6 Confirm the appointment of Policy Lead Councillors and Depute Policy Lead Councillors;
 - 1.1.7 Appoint the Members to represent the Council on any Joint Committees or Boards which the Council should appoint, if they need to be appointed at this meeting; if they do not they can be made at another Council meeting;
 - 1.1.8 Appoint persons to serve on various outside bodies if these appointments need to be made by the Council at this meeting; if they do not they can be made at another Council meeting or by a Committee.
 - 1.1.9 Deal with any competent business, keeping to the terms of any law and these Standing Orders.

ORDINARY MEETINGS

- 1.2 Ordinary meetings of the Council will be held on the dates and at the times which the Council decide. These meetings will normally be held in Kilmory Castle, Lochgilphead, but the Council or the Provost may decide that alternative arrangements can be made, such that a meeting may be held elsewhere, or an ordinary meeting may be held on a wholly virtual basis by electronic means or in circumstances whereby some Councillors attend in person and others take part on a virtual basis.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

- 1.3 A Special Meeting of the Council may be called at any time –
- 1.3.1 If the Provost takes the view that one is necessary; or
 - 1.3.2 If at least one-fourth of the members of the Council want one to be held; if they do, they must all sign a notice which must be given to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services and the notice must set out the business which these Members wish the Council to consider at that meeting; in this case the meeting will be held within fourteen days of the date when the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services receives the notice. The requirements for written notification shall also be satisfied by an email of the notice being submitted by individual members via their Council email account.

HOW MEETINGS ARE CALLED

Public Notice

- CS 2.1 Three clear days at least before a meeting of the Council, the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services will display a notice at the Council's Headquarters saying when and where the meeting will be held and any associated arrangements. In the event the meeting is being held on a virtual/hybrid basis details on how to access the meeting will be included in the Notice and published on the Council website. If a meeting is called at shorter notice in case of urgency then the notice will be displayed at the time it is called ["Clear days" excludes the day of publication and the day of the meeting and does not include Saturdays, Sundays or public holidays].
- CS 2.2 If the meeting is called by Members of the Council, the notice must be signed by those Members and must set out the business which they wish the Council to consider; and only that business can be considered at the meeting.

A Summons must be sent to each Member

- CS 2.3 Seven days at least before a meeting of the Council, the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services will issue a summons to each Member asking that Member to attend the meeting. Saturdays, Sundays and Public Holidays will not be excluded for the purpose of this Standing Order. The summons will set out the business which the Council will be asked to consider at that meeting. It will be signed by the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services and sent electronically to each Member.
- CS 2.4 If a Member does not receive a summons the meeting will still be valid.

Agenda

- CS 3.1 The summons will include an Agenda of the items of business for the meeting. These will be set out in the order in which the Council will consider them, but this can be changed at the meeting.
- CS 3.2 An item of business may only be considered at a meeting of the Council if:-

- 3.2.1 A copy of the Agenda, including the item, is available for any members of the public who wish to look at it, as provided in paragraph 3.3 below; or
- 3.2.2 The Provost is of the opinion that the item should be considered at the meeting as a matter of urgency because there are special circumstances; in which case the special circumstances will be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

CS The public can see copies of the Agenda and most reports

- 3.3 Copies of the Agenda and, except as set out in paragraph 3.4 below, copies of any report for a meeting will be open and available at the Council's Headquarters and on the Council website for at least 3 clear days before the meeting for any members of the public who may wish to look at these.

Reports can sometimes not be available to the public

- CS 3.4 When the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services believes there is a proper reason she/he may exclude from the copies of reports which are to be available for members of the public who wish to look at them, the whole of a report (or any part of a report) which relates only to items of business which she/he thinks are likely to be considered when the meeting is not to be open to the public. Every copy of any report in that category (or part of that report) will either –
 - 3.4.1 Be marked “Not for Publication” and every copy (or the appropriate part) will say what kind of exempt information the report contains, in keeping with the law. [The relevant law in this case is Schedule 7A to the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973].
 - 3.4.2 Be marked “Confidential” and every copy (or the appropriate part) will say that it contains confidential information, in keeping with the law. [The relevant law in this case is Section 50A(3) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973].
- CS 3.5 It should be borne in mind that reports marked “Not for Publication” or “Confidential” containing information not open to the public at a meeting may require to be disclosed subsequently and made available in compliance with a request for information in terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

- CS 3.6 Reports from Directors for a meeting must be given to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services as early as possible and certainly not later than noon two working days before the day on which the notice of the meeting is to be issued. If the Director does not receive a particular report by that time, he may leave it off the Agenda.
- CS 3.7 Recording - No sound, film, videotape, digital or photographic recording of the proceedings of any meeting shall be made without the prior approval of the Council or the Provost, other than recording of the proceedings of meetings agreed by the Council for webcasting or as a back-up for a live webcast, or as an alternative where live webcasting is not possible.

4 HOW MANY MEMBERS MUST ATTEND A MEETING

Quorum

- CS 4.1 There must be a minimum number of Members present at a meeting of the Council. This is known as the quorum. The quorum of the Council will be 9 Councillors (that is a quarter of all the seats) except in certain special circumstances set out in the relevant law. No business can be considered at a meeting of the Council unless a quorum is present. [The relevant law in this case is Schedule 7 to the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973]. For the avoidance of doubt a member that is attending the meeting virtually in accordance with the arrangements for the meeting will be considered as present.

What happens if there is no quorum?

- CS 4.2 If there are vacancies in more than 12 seats (that is a third) on the Council, the quorum will be a quarter of the number of Members remaining, but the quorum will never be less than 5 Members (that is an eighth of all the seats).
- CS 4.3 If, ten minutes after the time set for the start of a meeting of the Council, a quorum is not present, the meeting will be abandoned and the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services will record that no business was considered because there was no quorum.
- CS 4.4 If at any time during a meeting there is a question about whether or not there is a quorum, the Provost will, after allowing an interval of 5 minutes, ask the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services to count the number of Members present.
- CS 4.5 If a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned to another time the same day, or to another date and time as the Provost may decide then or afterwards.

5 WHO PRESIDES AT MEETINGS?

- CS 5.1 At a meeting of the Council, the Provost, if present, will preside.
- CS 5.2 If the Provost is absent from a meeting the Depute Provost will preside; if they are both absent, another Councillor chosen by the Members will preside.
- CS 5.3 If at any time during the meeting the Provost is present she/he will preside and similarly, in the absence of the Provost, the Depute will preside during any time she/he is present.
- 5.4 The Member who is presiding at the meeting must do so from the specified location for the meeting unless alternative arrangements have been made.

6. WHAT HAPPENS IF A MEMBER FAILS TO ATTEND MEETINGS?

- 6.1 If a Councillor, throughout a period of six consecutive months, does not attend any meeting of the Council or any Committee Sub-Committee or Short Life Working Group of the Council, or any joint Committee to which any function of the Council has been delegated, and unless the Member has been granted leave of absence by the Council, the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services will inform the Council. In that event, the Council will consider whether the failure to attend was due to a reason approved by them. If they are not satisfied as to the cause of the failure, the Councillor will cease to be a Member of the Council.

7 MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC ARE NORMALLY ALLOWED TO ATTEND MEETINGS

- CS 7.1 Every meeting of the Council, its Committees, Sub-Committees and Short Life Working Groups will be open to the public, except in special circumstances which are set out below.

When are the public sometimes not allowed to be present?

- CS 7.2 The public must be excluded from a meeting of the Council or a Committee, Sub-Committee or Short Life Working Group when an item of business is being considered if it is likely, because of the business itself or what might be said, that confidential information as meant by the relevant law would be given to members of the public. [The relevant law in this case is Section 50A(2) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973].

- CS 7.3 The Council may decide, by passing a resolution at any meeting, to exclude the public when they are considering an item of business if it is likely, because of the business itself or what might be said, that exempt information as meant by the relevant law would be given to members of the public. The resolution to exclude the public will make clear the proceedings or which part of the proceedings of the meeting it applies to and state the description of the exempt information. [The relevant law in this case is Section 50A(4) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973].
- CS 7.4 It is always open to the Council in order to stop or prevent disorderly conduct or other misbehaviour at a meeting, to exclude or eject members of the public whose presence or conduct is impeding or is likely to impede good conduct of the meeting. If a member of the public interrupts any meeting, the Provost may warn the person. If they continue the interruption the Provost may order that they are removed from the meeting.

8 THE ORDER IN WHICH BUSINESS IS CONSIDERED AT MEETINGS

- CS 8.1 The items of business at ordinary meetings of the Council will be considered in the following order, but the order may be changed if the Provost decides.
- 8.1.1 The Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services will record the names of the Members present, and apologies will be given on behalf of any Members who have advised the Provost or the Director they will not be present;
- 8.1.2 Any deputations to be heard in terms of Standing Order 18;
- 8.1.3 Motions which it is proposed should be considered without previous notice at the end of the meeting will be read to the meeting by the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services;
- 8.1.4 Other items of business which it is proposed should be considered as a matter of urgency will be announced;
- 8.1.5 Declarations of interest by Members, if any;
- 8.1.6 Minutes of the previous meeting or meetings of the Council will be considered as a correct record.
- 8.1.7 Minutes or reports by Committees or Short Life Working Groups will be considered in respect of any items on which the Committee has not already acted under delegated powers;

- 8.1.8 Other business which is included on the agenda, including those items advised for noting only, which in the case of the latter shall not be subject to debate or discussion nor shall it be competent to move any motion other than that the matter be referred to the next meeting of the committee as a substantive item.
- 8.1.9 Questions submitted by Members in terms of Standing Order 15;
- 8.1.10 Notices of Motion previously submitted in terms of Standing Order 13;
- 8.1.11 Notices of Motion intimated at the start of the meeting in terms of Standing Order 14, provided the Provost is of the opinion that it is a matter of urgency and the Council agree to consider the Motion;
- 8.1.12 Urgent Business, intimated at the start of the meeting, provided the Provost is of the opinion that it is a matter of urgency and the Council agree to consider the business.

9 THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE PROVOST

- CS 9.1 At all times, Members of the Council will respect the authority of the Provost. If the Provost speaks, any Member who is speaking to the Meeting will stop.
- CS 9.2 The Provost's duty is to preserve order and ensure that Members are given a fair hearing by the Council. If two or more Members try to speak at the same time, the Provost will decide who is to speak first.
- CS 9.3 The Provost will decide all matters of order, competency, relevancy and urgency and that ruling will be final.

What might happen if a Member misbehaves

- CS 9.4 If a Member persistently misbehaves by disregarding rulings by the Provost, or behaves improperly or offensively, or wilfully obstructs the business of the Council, the Provost may take any of the following courses of action either separately or in sequence –
 - 9.4.1 Warn the Member about her/his behaviour;
 - 9.4.2 Tell the Member not to speak during the remainder of the debate on the item being discussed.
 - 9.4.3 Move that the Member should not speak again during the meeting. The motion will not require to be seconded, and will be decided without discussion; if the motion is carried the Member will not speak again during that meeting;

9.4.4 Move that the Member should be suspended for the remainder of the meeting. The motion will not require to be seconded, and will be decided without discussion; if the motion is carried the Member will leave the meeting immediately;

9.4.5 Adjourn the meeting for a short time as seems reasonable to the Provost in the circumstances.

CS 9.5 If there is disorder at any meeting of the Council, the Provost will be entitled to adjourn the meeting to another time the same day, or to another date and time as she/he may decide then or afterwards, and leaving the Chair in these circumstances will mean that the meeting is adjourned immediately.

RULES OF DEBATE

How motions and amendments are moved and decided on

CS 10.1 Every motion and amendment must be moved and seconded. The terms of all motions and amendments will be stated immediately when they are proposed and before the Member speaks to the motion or amendment. When a recommendation is on the papers before Members, preliminary discussion of the proposal is allowed. However it is open to the Provost at any time during that discussion to give three minutes warning that he requires any motion and amendments to be placed before him or the discussion will be brought to a close. If the Provost decides, a motion or amendment will be written down, signed by the mover and seconder, and given to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services who will read it to the meeting.

CS 10.2 When a motion and one amendment only are before the meeting a vote will be taken between the motion and the amendment and the proposal receiving a majority of the votes will become the decision of the Council.

CS 10.3 When a motion and two or more amendments are before the meeting, and if one of the proposals implies that no action or no immediate action be taken, a first vote will be taken between for and against “no action” or “no immediate action” as the case may be. If the proposal for “no action” or “no immediate action” is carried it shall become the decision of the meeting. If the proposal for “no action” or “no immediate action” is not carried a further vote will be taken amongst the remaining proposals as set out in 10.4 below.

- CS 10.4 When a motion and two or more amendments (none of which implies that no action or no immediate action be taken) are before the meeting, the vote will be taken on all the proposals, each Member having one vote. If a proposal receives the support of an overall majority of the Members taking part in the vote, that proposal will become the decision of the meeting. In the event that none of the proposals receives the support of an overall majority of the Members voting, the proposal which has received the fewest votes will be dropped and a fresh vote will be taken on the remaining proposals and so on until one proposal has received the support of a majority of the Members voting. That proposal will become the decision of the meeting. In the event of the votes for two or more proposals being equal, the Provost will have a second or casting vote which s/he may use to decide which of them is to be dropped.
- CS 10.5 Motions or amendments which are not seconded will not be discussed or recorded in the minutes. Except when the vote is taken by roll call, any Member who has moved a motion or amendment and who is in a minority of one will, if she/he asks, have her/his dissent from the eventual decision recorded in the minutes.
- CS 10.6 A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover if her/his seconder and the Council agree. Such a motion or amendment will not be inserted in the minutes.
- 10.7 A motion for the approval of a report of or a minute of a Committee or Short Life Working Group will be considered as an original motion and any proposal involving alteration or rejection of the report or minute will be dealt with as an amendment.
- 10.8 The Chairman of a Committee or short Life Working Group, if present, has the right to move approval of the report of or minute of that Committee.
- 10.9 In respect of any item on a committee agenda marked as for noting only, then the only competent motion [other than to note] will be for the matter to be referred to the next meeting of the committee as a substantive item. If such a motion is put to the meeting there shall be no other procedure than a vote for or against the terms of the motion. If the motion is carried then it will stand referred if it is lost then the item is noted.

When a Member can speak and for how long

- CS 10.10 It is open to the Provost at any time to rule that, due to pressure of business and the number of Members wishing to speak to an item, no Member who had already spoken may speak again except on a point of order.

- CS 10.11 A Member moving or seconding a motion or amendment will not speak for more than three minutes unless the Provost allows more time. Other Members will not speak for more than two minutes.
- CS 10.12 The mover of an amendment and the mover of the original motion each have a right of reply, in that order, for not more than three minutes.
- CS 10.13 When the mover of the original motion has replied, the Provost will close the debate, and no other Member will be allowed to speak. The Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services or the Provost will announce the terms of the motion and amendment(s) and take the vote.

HOW VOTES ARE TAKEN

- CS 11.1 Except where the law or the Standing Orders say something different, all questions coming or arising before the Council will be decided by a majority of the Councillors present and voting on that question.
- CS 11.2 Where an ordinary meeting is held on a wholly virtual basis by electronic means or in circumstances whereby some Councillors attend in person and others take part on a virtual basis a vote will be taken by calling the roll.

In meetings where all members are present in the same physical location a vote will be taken by a show of hands except in the following circumstances.

Calling the roll

- CS 11.3 A Member may ask for a vote to be taken by calling the roll. If a quarter of the Councillors present agree then the vote will be taken in that way and the names of those voting for or against the motion or amendment will be taken down and recorded in the minutes.

What happens if votes are equal

- CS 11.4 In the case of an equality of votes, the Provost will have a second or casting vote except where the matter which is the subject of the vote relates to the appointment of a Councillor to any particular office or Committee in which case the decision will be decided by lot [which means a process whereby chance will determine the decision].

Different arrangements apply to appointments

- CS 11.5 When Councillors are to be appointed to any positions to be filled by the Council, and where the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, the Councillors to be appointed will be determined by a vote or votes in each of which Members will be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies; but they may not cast more than one vote for any candidate. The name of the candidate having fewest votes will be deleted from the list and a fresh vote, or votes, will be taken. This process of elimination will be continued until the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies.
- CS 11.6 Where only one vacancy requires to be filled, and any candidate has an absolute majority of the votes, the candidate will be declared appointed. Otherwise, the name of the candidate having fewest votes will be deleted from the list. This process of elimination will be continued until one candidate has a majority of the votes.
- CS 11.7 If in any vote among more than two candidates there is equality of votes among the candidates having the least votes, the candidates whose names will be eliminated will be determined by an additional vote. The candidate having fewest votes will be deleted from the list. Where in any additional vote there is equality in votes, the candidate to be eliminated will be determined by lot.
- CS 11.8 The provisions of the preceding paragraphs will apply in the case of the appointment of any other person (other than a Councillor) except that where there is an equality of votes the Provost will have a second or casting vote.

Whipping

- CS 11.9 Paragraphs 11.10 and 11.11 will apply on any occasion when an item of business is the subject of consideration at any meeting and that business –
- (1) has been the subject of prior discussion at a meeting of a political group; and
 - (2) at the meeting of the political group there has been an agreement that the group whip is applied to that business.
- CS 11.10 At the commencement of the consideration of the item of business the Leader, or another member of the group present, will disclose to the meeting that the group whip has been applied to members of the group who are present, and will specify the particular matter or matters in respect of that business to which the whip applies.

- CS 11.11 The Leader, or the other member, will give notice in writing to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services, at the time the disclosure is made in terms of paragraph 11.10, setting out the information disclosed, and the Director will –
- record in the minutes of the meeting the information disclosed; and
 - Keep a register of notices given to him, which register will be open to inspection by any person.

12 PROCEDURAL MOTIONS

- CS 12.1 The Provost may adjourn a meeting for a reasonable interval if s/he decides there is a good reason to do so.
- CS 12.2 The Council may adjourn any meeting for a reasonable interval or to another date as the Council may agree then, or that failing, the Provost may decide then or afterwards. The vote on such a motion, on being seconded, will be taken without amendment or discussion and by roll call vote. A similar motion to adjourn to another day will not be competent within a period of one hour after the decision on the earlier motion.

Closing debate

- CS 12.3 The following closure motions will be permitted during discussion of another motion provided the Member moving the closure motion has not spoken during the debate. They will be moved, seconded and voted on without discussion. The Provost will proceed as follows –

12.3.1 “That the question be now put”

If the Provost considers the matter has not been sufficiently discussed, she/he may refuse to accept the motion; if the motion is accepted it will be put to the vote. If the motion is carried, the movers of any amendment and of the original motion will be entitled to a right of reply and the Provost will then put the original motion and amendment to the vote. If the closure motion is not carried, a similar motion may be made after every three additional Members have spoken.

12.3.2 “That the meeting do now adjourn”

If the Provost is satisfied that the matter before the meeting has been well enough discussed, s/he may refuse to accept this closure motion and instead put the motion “that the question be now put”. If the Provost is of the opinion that the matter has not been sufficiently discussed and cannot reasonably be discussed any longer on that occasion, the adjournment motion will be put to the vote without giving the mover of the original motion or amendment a right of reply; if the adjournment motion is carried, the original motion and remaining business will stand over until a resumed meeting of the Council. If this closure motion is not carried, a similar motion will not be competent within a period of one hour after the decision on the previous closure motion.

13 HOW A MEMBER SUBMITS A MOTION FOR THE NEXT MEETING

The requirements for written notification at 13.1 and 13.2 shall also be satisfied by an email of the motion being submitted by individual members via their Council email account.

- CS 13.1 If a Member wishes a motion to be considered at a meeting (other than one on a matter of urgency under Standing Order 14) it must be written down, signed by the Member and countersigned by another Member, and given or sent to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services to be received by her/him at least 10 clear days [clear days excludes the day of submission of the Motion and the day of the Meeting but includes Saturdays, Sundays or Public Holidays] before the next ordinary meeting of the Council. This is called giving notice of a motion.

- CS 13.2 These notices of motion will be included on the agenda for the next meeting in the order in which the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services receives them. If the Provost considers that more than one of these motions deals with the same subject, only the motion received first will be considered.

The requirements for written notification shall also be satisfied by an email of the motion being submitted by individual members via their Council email account.

14 HOW A MEMBER SUBMITS AN URGENT MOTION

- CS 14.1 A motion which does not relate to the business which is included on the agenda for a meeting may be considered at the end of a meeting even if a Member has not given notice of it under Standing Order 13. It will only be considered if the Provost is of the opinion that it is a matter of urgency because of special reasons, which will be recorded in the minutes, and the Council agree to consider the motion. However, if a Member wishes a motion considered as a matter of urgency, it must be given to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services not later than two hours before the start of the meeting. It will be read to the meeting by the Director at the point stated at Standing Order 8.1.3. If the Provost considers that the motion is not urgent then it will be included as an item of business for the next ordinary meeting, unless it is disposed of in some other way before then.

The requirements for written notification shall also be satisfied by an email of the motion being submitted by individual members via their Council email account.

15 A MEMBER MAY ALSO SUBMIT QUESTIONS FOR A MEETING

- 15.1 A Member may put a question to the Leader or to a Policy Lead Councillor at any ordinary meeting of the Council. The question, which may comprise a series of component parts about the same subject, must be about any relevant and competent business which is not included on the agenda for the meeting. The Member must give the question in writing to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services not later than 48 hours before the start of the meeting.
- 15.2 The person who is being asked to answer a question will decide whether to answer it in writing or orally at the meeting. Questions and any written answers, numbered in the order in which they have been received, will be tabled at the start of the meeting.
- 15.3 Arising from each answer given, the Member who asked the question may ask one supplementary question to clarify the answer given.
- 15.4 No discussion will be allowed, and it will not be competent to move any motion arising from a question or the answer given.
- 15.5 A Member may not submit more than two written questions for any one meeting. If the Provost is of the opinion that a question is out of order for any reason, it will not be answered.
- 15.6 Written questions and any written answers will be recorded in the minutes.

16 CAN A DECISION OF THE COUNCIL BE CHANGED

- CS 16.1 No motion which seeks to alter or revoke a decision of the Council or has that effect will be considered within a period of 6 months of the original decision.
- CS 16.2 However, it will be competent to review a decision before the end of the 6 month period, provided –
- 16.2.1 That notice has been given on the agenda that the previous decision may be altered or revoked, unless it is inherent in the terms of a report of or minute of a Committee submitted to the Council; and
- 16.2.2 The Provost is satisfied that a material change of circumstances has occurred. This means that the Provost must decide first whether there has been a new development which has a bearing on the original decision or that some important piece of information was not available when the original decision was made. Secondly, the Provost must decide whether this change is material, which means that if the change had taken place before the Council took their decision, or they had known all the facts on which the decision was based, the change of circumstances would have influenced their judgement and they might reasonably have taken a different decision.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

- CS 17.1 Minutes of meetings of the Council and its Committees, Sub Committees and Short Life Working Groups will be prepared by the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services and will be included on the agenda for the next ordinary meeting of the Council, its Committees, Sub Committees or Short Life Working Groups as appropriate. - CS 18.2 Where a matter is the subject of consideration by more than one Committee, Sub-Committee or Short Life Working Group, or by one or more of those and the Council, or at more than one meeting of the same body, a request by a deputation to be heard will be considered only at the meeting where it is anticipated that matter will be finally determined (as distinct from being the subject of preliminary consideration or the subject of a recommendation). It will not be competent to consider a request to be heard on the same matter within a period of six months of the original decision, unless the Provost is satisfied that a material change of circumstances has occurred: always provided that where a matter may be the subject of consideration on more than one occasion the Provost will, in her/his sole discretion, determine whether on each occasion the issue to be discussed is so closely related as to be regarded as the same matter.

- CS 18.5 A deputation will have 10 minutes to present its case. If the meeting decides to hear more than one deputation on the same subject, the deputations will be heard together, and the Provost will decide how much time to allow, up to a maximum of 10 minutes each.

- 2.6.3 In addition to any report or paper submitted by an Officer of the Council, any Member of a SLWG may, in relation to any research which she/he may have undertaken, submit a report or paper for consideration by the Group, provided that report or paper is made available in time for inclusion with the agenda of business for the meeting, and any other Member of the Council may similarly submit such report or paper and may speak to the SLWG in relation to that report or paper.

- 2.6.5 While the minimum quorum for an effective meeting of a SLWG to take place will be three Members of the Group, the report or reports of the Group which contain the advice and recommendations of the Group will require to be considered at a meeting of the Group at which at least half of the Members of the Group are present.
- 2.6.6 The content of the advice or recommendations which any Group provides will be reached if possible by consensus amongst the Members of the Group, and in the event of any difference of view which will be determined in accordance with these Standing Orders as they would apply to a meeting of a Committee of the Council, the report or reports of the Group will in addition to the advice and recommendations of the Group include a note setting out the views of those Members who may not concur with that advice or those recommendations. APPENDIX 1 - TO THE FINANCIAL AND SECURITY REGULATIONS

INTERNAL AUDIT -TERMS OF REFERENCE

OBJECTIVE

Internal Audit is responsible for advising all levels of management and the Council (through its Audit and Scrutiny Committee), on the Council's systems of internal control. It is a review activity which continuously reinforces line management's responsibility for effective internal controls. The existence of internal audit is not a substitute for management's responsibility to ensure the existence of a sound framework of internal control. Internal audit supports:

- Management's organisational objectives
- The Audit and Scrutiny Committee's need for overall assurance on the quality and cost effectiveness of risk management and internal controls.

Internal Audit areas of focus include:

- Risk Management and Internal control effectiveness
- Statutory, procedures and control compliance
- Implementation of recommendations
- Corporate governance
- Systems development
- Process improvement
- Performance reporting
- Value for Money and Best Value

Over time it is envisaged that the function will increase the proportion of reviews of operational systems, value for money and contribute to Best Value.

SCOPE

Internal Audit's work provides assurance on the extent to which management controls ensure that:

- The Council's assets are safeguarded from significant losses, including those caused by fraud, waste, inefficiency and commercially unsound practices;
- Relevant laws, rules and regulations are complied with;
- Operations are conducted effectively, efficiently and economically;
- Operations are conducted in accordance with Council policies and procedures;
- Management information systems are reliable and secure;
- Systems under development are monitored, that appropriate internal controls are built in and are consistent with the organisations' needs;
- Significant Council risks are identified and effectively managed;
- Major Council projects achieve their objectives.

In addition, Internal Audit may perform special reviews requested by the senior management or the Audit and Scrutiny Committee. When plans are changed for such reviews, this is reported to the Audit and Scrutiny Committee so that it clearly understands the implications on resources and for the assurance it requires about internal controls, and any impact on the delivery of agreed plans.

INDEPENDENCE

Internal Audit is independent of the systems and activities it reviews and will objectively report its findings to the appropriate level of management in order to ensure corrective action is taken on a timely basis. To this end, Internal Audit has the authority to require a timely written response to any findings and recommendations contained in assignment reports.

Wherever internal audit provides proactive consultancy advice it must be careful to maintain its independence from the operational activity concerned to preserve its ability to undertake an objective review at a future date.

Consultancy advice includes guidance regarding the controls designed for developing systems or the implications for controls of amendments to systems; guidance regarding risk management and internal control strategies; and guidance regarding the development of best practice corporate governance structures and processes.

AUTHORITY AND ACCESS

Internal Audit has no responsibility for operational functions within the Council and no direct responsibility for, nor authority over any of the activities subject to internal audit review. Internal Audit derives its authority from the Council who enable them to have unrestricted access to all records, systems, documents, property and staff as required in the performance of its work.

Internal Audit has unrestricted access to the officer designated as responsible under Section 95 of the Local Government Act 1973, the Chief Executive and the Chair of the Audit and Scrutiny Committee.

INTERNAL AUDIT MANAGEMENT

The Council's Chief Internal Auditor has responsibility for:

- Assisting directors and management with risk management;
- Developing a plan that is based on assessed Council risks and Internal Audit's objectives;
- Developing a programme based on the plan and which is flexible enough to meet changing organisational needs;
- Ensuring that resourcing arrangements are in place to deliver the plan and are flexible enough to cope with special requests;
- Providing regular progress reports to senior management and the Audit and Scrutiny Committee;

- Ensuring Internal Audit remains effective, credible, productive and focused on areas of most significance to the Council;
- Working with line management constructively to challenge and improve established and proposed practices and to put forward ideas for improving processes;
- Developing an appropriately skilled team, supported where necessary by external expertise, to meet best practice;
- Maintaining an open relationship with the external auditors; and
- Fostering a culture of joint-working with management leading to agreed solutions.

Internal Audit is not relieved of its responsibilities when areas of the Council are subject to review by others. It always needs to assess the extent to which it can rely upon that work, co-ordinate its audit planning with those other review agencies, e.g. external auditors, and decide what further investigations need to be carried out.

QUALITY AND SKILLS

The Council's Chief Internal Auditor has responsibility for ensuring the skills of Internal Audit staff are developed and maintained through:

Annex 3 - Guidance on Responding to an Anti Fraud, Corruption or Bribery situation

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Argyll and Bute Council is a large organisation and the size and nature of our services puts us at risk of loss due to fraud, corruption and bribery both from within the Council and outside it.
- 1.2 We are committed to making sure that the opportunity for fraud and corruption is reduced to the lowest possible risk. Where there is the possibility of fraud, corruption and other problems, we will deal with it in a firm and controlled manner.
- 1.3 An important part of this approach is an anti-fraud, anti-corruption and Anti-bribery strategy, which we will use to advise and guide members and staff on our approach to the serious issues of fraud and corruption. This document provides an overview of our policy in this matter and includes a 'fraud response plan' which provides more detailed guidance on how to deal with fraud, corruption and bribery.
- 1.4 The main message is that we expect all members, employees, suppliers, consultants, contractors, and service users, to be fair and honest, and to give us any help, information and support we need to deal with fraud, corruption and bribery.
- 1.5 The strategy set out in this document covers the following areas:
 - ❖ Our written rules
 - ❖ How we expect our members and employees to behave
 - ❖ Preventing fraud and corruption
 - ❖ Detecting and investigating fraud, corruption and bribery
 - ❖ Training
 - ❖ Publicising our activities to prevent fraud

- 1.6 The Anti Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Strategy is compliant with The Equality Act 2010.

2. OUR WRITTEN RULES

2.1 We have a number of procedures and rules to make sure that our financial, working and organisational procedures are properly controlled. These are an important part of our internal control process, and it is important that all members and staff know about them.

2.2 The most important of these are as follows:

- ❖ Council Standing Orders
- ❖ Contract Standing Orders/Procurement manual
- ❖ Financial and Security Regulations
- ❖ Scheme of Delegation
- ❖ Guidance-Code of Conduct for Employees
- ❖ Protocol for Member / Officer Relations
- ❖ Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy
- ❖ Employees' Conditions of Service

There is also the Councillors National Code of Conduct.

2.3 Individual departments have also introduced their own measures, which are designed to control their activities. Examples include accounting control procedures, working manuals and operating procedures.

2.4 Executive Directors must make sure that all staff have access to these rules and regulations and that staff receive suitable training. To facilitate this, Council wide training is available through the online training portal LEON.

2.5 Members and employees must make sure that they read and understand the rules and regulations that apply to them, and act in line with them.

2.6 If anyone breaks these rules and regulations we may take formal action against them. This may include ending their employment with the Council in respect of employees and, in respect of members, it will be the responsibility of the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support as Monitoring Officer to report matters to the appropriate authority.

3. HOW WE EXPECT COUNCIL MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES TO BEHAVE

3.1 We expect all people and organisations who are in any way associated with us to be honest and fair in their dealings with us and our clients and customers. We expect our members and employees to lead by example in these matters.

3.2 Our Ethical Framework, or internal rules, for members and employees set out an approach to work that is both honest and fair. Members and employees must act in line with the Ethical Framework at all times. The Council has also developed a Code of Corporate Governance which will assist in protecting the Council from fraud, corruption or bribery.

- 3.3 Our members and employees have an essential and integral part to play in dealing with fraud, corruption or bribery and we will encourage our staff and members to inform us if they suspect any such cases.
- 3.4 We will deal with all information fairly and confidentially. We will endeavour not to reveal the names of the people who gave us the information. Our Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Response Plan (Annex 1) and our Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy (Section F) give more advice on this issue.
- 3.5 The Nolan Committee sets out the seven guiding principles that apply to people who serve the public. We will develop our working behaviour around these principles.
- 3.6 We expect our Chief Officers to deal firmly and quickly with anyone who is responsible for fraud or corruption. The Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in consultation with the Chief Executive, the Head of Service within whose Department the fraud is alleged to have occurred and the Executive Director with Section 95 Officer responsibilities and the Chief Internal Auditor may refer matters to the police where they suspect any criminal activity has occurred.
- 3.7 We must ensure that any investigative process is not misused and, therefore, any abuse, such as raising unfounded malicious allegations against a colleague, will be dealt with as a disciplinary matter.
- 3.8 When awarding contracts the Council will undertake due diligence to ensure that they are not awarded to suppliers who have known involvement in serious organised crime or have been convicted of fraud.

4. PREVENTING FRAUD, CORRUPTION AND BRIBERY

- 4.1 We believe that if we are to beat fraud, corruption and bribery, we must prevent it from happening in the first place. It is essential that we have clear rules and procedures, within which members and employees can work. These include the main corporate rules, which are set out in section 2.
- 4.2 We must regularly review and update our written rules and to such end our review of these procedures will be no later than every three years.
- 4.3 Managing the risk of fraud is the responsibility of the Council's Executive Leadership Team. Executive Directors and their Head of Service must make sure that suitable levels of internal check are included in working procedures, particularly financial procedures. It is important that duties are organised so that no one person can carry out a complete transaction without some form of checking process being built into the system.

- 4.4 We must follow our procedures when employing new staff. If possible, we must check the previous employment records of anyone we are considering employing. This applies to both temporary and permanent staff.
- 4.5 We are committed to working and co-operating with other organisations to prevent organised fraud, corruption and bribery. Wherever possible, we will be prepared to help and exchange information, subject to the requirements of Data Protection, with other Councils and organisations to deal with fraud. We will participate in any national anti fraud initiatives.
- 4.6 This kind of work needs to be tightly controlled particularly in relation to data protection issues.
- 4.7 The Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy provides a process for people to give us information which may be given in confidence that may prevent fraud and corruption.
- 4.8 We will make sure that full details of reporting facilities are widely published to the public, members and employees, and that all information we receive in this way is investigated and dealt with. This will include an online form for any person to report suspected fraud. Such referrals will be carefully handled to ensure that the process is not subject to abuse.

5. DETECTING AND INVESTIGATING FRAUD AND CORRUPTION

- 5.1 You should read this section with our fraud, corruption and bribery response plan (Annex 1).
- 5.2 Employees must report any suspected cases of fraud, corruption and bribery to the appropriate line manager, or, may do so in terms of the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy to the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support. Reporting cases in this way is essential to the anti-fraud, corruption and bribery strategy and makes sure that:
 - ❖ suspected cases of fraud, corruption and bribery are investigated properly,
 - ❖ the Fraud Response Plan is carried out properly,
 - ❖ there is a standard process for dealing with all suspected cases of fraud, corruption and bribery,
 - ❖ people and our interests are protected.
- 5.3 The Council's Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy is intended to encourage and enable anyone to raise serious concerns. Employees reporting concerns in this way are afforded certain rights through legislation (Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998).

- 5.4 The Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in consultation with the Chief Executive, and the Head of Service within whose Department the fraud is alleged to have occurred will decide on the type and course of the investigation. This will include referring cases to the police where necessary. The alleged fraud will also be reported to the Executive Director with Section 95 responsibilities and the Chief Internal Auditor. We will prosecute offenders and we will carry out our disciplinary procedures where appropriate. We will ensure that any internal proceedings do not prejudice any criminal case.
- 5.5 The Chief Internal Auditor, whilst not participating in the investigation of the alleged fraud, will liaise with the Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in their investigation of the alleged fraud and in particular;
 - 1 Examine current Council policies, procedures and financial controls, their current working and effectiveness in relation to the alleged fraud;
 - 2 Report to the Executive Leadership Team in relation to the adequacy of current Council policies, procedures and financial controls in relation to the alleged fraud and make recommendations for their revisal;
 - 3 Provide advice and assistance to the Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in relation to Council policies, procedures and financial controls and control issues relevant to the investigation of the alleged fraud.
- 5.6 In respect of any case of alleged fraud or corruption discovered by or referred to the Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities they shall;
 - 1 Deal promptly and confidentially with the matter;
 - 2 Maintain full documentation of all evidence received and comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 in relation to the release of information in relation to the alleged fraud;
 - 3 Ensure that the investigation is carried out having regard to the Councils policy under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 and it's obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998;
 - 4 Ensure that the evidence is sound and adequately reported;
 - 5 Report findings to the Executive Leadership Team;
 - 6 Liaise with the Chief Internal Auditor in accordance with paragraph 5.5 hereof.
- 5.7 The Accounts Commission has powers to request or carry out an investigation into fraud, corruption and bribery.

6. TRAINING

- 6.1 We understand that the key to introducing a successful anti-fraud, anti-corruption and anti-bribery strategy and making sure it continues to apply will depend on programmed training and the way all our employees respond.

- 6.2 We support the idea of providing training for our employees who are involved in or managing internal control systems to make sure that their responsibilities and duties are regularly reviewed and reinforced.
- 6.3 We are also committed to training and developing our employees who are involved in investigating fraud and corruption and we will provide suitable training.

7. CONCLUSION

- 7.1 We are committed to tackling fraud, corruption and bribery whenever it happens. Our response will be effective and organised and will rely on the principles included in this document.
- 7.2 We will continue to review our rules and procedures and will make sure that this strategy document is regularly reviewed to make sure it stays effective.

Annex 1 to Anti Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Strategy

Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Response Plan

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Argyll and Bute Council is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, probity and accountability in all its affairs. It is determined to develop a culture of honesty and opposition to fraud, corruption and bribery.
- 1.2 In line with that commitment, the Council's Anti-Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Strategy outlines the principles we are committed to in relation to preventing, reporting and managing the investigation and prosecution of fraud, corruption and bribery.
- 1.3 This Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Response Plan reinforces the Council's robust approach by setting out the ways in which employees or members of the public can voice their concerns about suspected fraud, corruption or bribery. It also outlines how the Council will deal with such complaints.

2. What Do We Want To Know About?

- 2.1 This Plan is intended to be implemented where suspicions of fraud, corruption or bribery have been raised.

Fraud is defined as:

"The intentional distortion of financial statements or other records by persons internal or external to the authority which is carried out to conceal the misappropriation of assets or otherwise for gain".

Corruption is defined as:

"The offering, giving, soliciting or acceptance of an inducement or reward, which may influence the action of any person".

Bribery is defined as:

"The offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of something of value for the purpose of influencing the action of an official in the discharge of his or her public or legal duties".

- 2.2 Concerns or allegations which fall within the scope of other, existing, procedures (eg child protection or discrimination issues) will normally be referred for consideration under those procedures.
- 2.3 Fraudulent, corrupt or bribery acts may include:

Systems Issues - i.e. where a process/system exists which is prone to abuse by either employees or public (eg Planning Applications).

Financial Issues - i.e. where individuals or companies have fraudulently obtained money from the Council (eg invalid invoices/work not done, Council Tax Reduction Scheme fraud).

Equipment Issues - i.e. where Council equipment is used for personal use, (eg personal use of Council vehicles).

Resource Issues - i.e. where there is a misuse of resources (eg theft of building materials).

Other Issues - i.e. activities undertaken by officers of the Council which may be:

- ❖ unlawful,
- ❖ against the Council's Standing Orders or policies,
- ❖ below established standards or practices,
- ❖ improper conduct (e.g. receiving hospitality).

This is not an exhaustive list.

3. Safeguards

Harassment or Victimisation – The Council recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make, not least because of the fear of reprisal from those responsible for the malpractice. The Council will not tolerate harassment or victimisation and will take action to protect those who raise a concern in good faith.

Confidentiality – The Council will do its best to protect an individual's identity when he or she raises a concern and does not want their name to be disclosed. It must be appreciated, however, that the investigation process may reveal the source of the information and a statement by the individual may be required as part of the evidence.

Anonymous Allegations – This policy encourages individuals to put their names to allegations. Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful, but they will be considered at the discretion of the Council. In exercising this discretion, the factors to be taken into account would include:

- ❖ the seriousness of the issues raised
- ❖ the credibility of the concern
- ❖ the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources

Untrue Allegations – If an allegation is made in good faith, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against the originator. If, however, individuals make malicious or vexatious allegations, action may be considered against the individual making the allegation.

4. What Should An Employee Do If They Suspect Fraud, Corruption or Bribery?

4.1 Employees are often the first to realise that there is something seriously wrong within the Council. If they have serious concerns in relation to fraud, corruption or bribery within the council they should report this to their line Manager. However, they may not express their concerns in this way because they feel that speaking up would be disloyal to their colleagues or to the Council. They may also fear harassment or victimisation. In these circumstances, it may be easier to ignore the concern rather than report what may just be a suspicion of malpractice.

- 4.2 The Council's Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy is intended to encourage and enable staff to raise serious concerns within the Council rather than overlooking a problem or blowing the whistle to the media or other external bodies.
 - 4.3 A copy of the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy is attached at Section F.
5. What Should A Member Of The Public Do If They Suspect Fraud, Corruption or Bribery?
- 5.1 The Council encourages members of the public who suspect fraud, corruption or bribery to contact the Chief Executive or Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in the first instance. Members of the public may report matters to the Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities in terms of the Public Interest Disclosure Policy. Both the Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities and the Executive Director with Section 95 responsibilities have obligations to maintain and review the Council's Financial and Security Regulations and any suspected breach of these may be reported to either of them.
 - 5.2 Argyll and Bute Council wishes to maintain procedures with the following aims:
 - ❖ To develop an anti-fraud culture
 - ❖ To deter, prevent, detect and investigate fraud and corruption
 - ❖ To see appropriate action against those who commit or seek to commit some sort of fraud, corruption or bribery
 - ❖ To obtain compensation in respect of any losses to the Council
 - 5.3 The possible courses of action taken by the Council are outlined below.
 - 5.4 The Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities can be contacted by phone on 01546 605522 or by writing to; The Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities, Kilmory, Lochgilphead, Argyll. In addition the Council has an online enquiry form to allow information to be submitted in this way also.
6. How Will Allegations Of Fraud Or Corruption Be Dealt With By The Council?
- 6.1 For issues raised by employees or members of the public, the action taken by the Council will depend on the nature of the concern. The matters raised may:

- ❖ be investigated internally, and/or
 - ❖ be referred to the Police
- 6.2 Within 10 working days of a concern being received, the Chief Executive, Executive Director with Monitoring Officer responsibilities or designated officer will write to the complainant:
- ❖ acknowledging that the concern has been received indicating how it proposes to deal with the matter
 - ❖ giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response
 - ❖ telling them whether any initial enquiries have been made telling them whether any further investigations will take place, and if not, why not
- 6.3 The Council accepts that those people who reported the alleged fraud, corruption or bribery need to be assured that the matter has been properly addressed. Thus, subject to any legal constraints, they will receive information about the outcomes of any investigation.
7. Alternative Methods for Taking A Complaint Forward
- 7.1 If either a member of the public or an employee feel it is right to take the matter outside these processes, the following are possible ways forward:
- ❖ your local Councillor – If you are unsure how to contact them, call the Council on 01546 605522 for advice.
 - ❖ the Accounts Commission – who are the organisation appointed to scrutinise the Council’s finances and performance. By law, they must be completely independent from the Council.
 - ❖ your Trade Union – employees may invite their Trade Union to raise a matter on their behalf.
 - ❖ the Police – suspicions of fraud or corruption may be reported directly to the Police.
 - ❖ the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman– this is an independent body set up by the Government to deal with complaints against public bodies such as Councils in Scotland
 - ❖ Public Concern at Work – this is a charity which provides free and strictly confidential legal help to anyone concerned about a malpractice which threatens the public interest. They operate a helpline on 0171 404 6609 or can be e-mailed at whistle@pcaw.demon.co.uk.
 - ❖ The Department of Work and Pensions to report benefit fraud. To contact the National Benefit Fraud Hotline (NBFH) available on telephone 0800 854 4400 or report it online at; <https://www.gov.uk/report-benefit-fraud>

Annex 2 - Anti Money Laundering Procedure

We will do all it can to prevent the Council and its staff being exposed to money laundering, identify the potential areas where it may occur, and comply with all legal and regulatory requirements in regard to the reporting of actual or suspected cases.

Key Issues

- ❖ The Council is committed to the prevention, detection and reporting of money laundering
- ❖ All employees must be vigilant for the signs of money laundering
- ❖ Any employee who suspects money laundering activity must report this promptly to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO)
- ❖ Where the Council is carrying out relevant business then the Client Identification Procedure must be followed.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 ('the Act') consolidated, updated and reformed the criminal law with regard to Money Laundering.
- 1.2 The Money Laundering Regulations 2007 came into force in December 2007 and required local authorities to put in place suitable anti-money laundering controls.
- 1.3 This policy has been designed to introduce safeguards to help identify and report on instances where money laundering is suspected and sets out procedures which must be followed to enable the Council to comply with its legal obligations.

2. Scope of the Procedure

- 2.1 This procedure applies to all employees of the Council and aims to prevent criminal activity through money laundering.

The key requirement on employees is to promptly report any suspected money laundering activity to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO) using the reporting to money laundering reporting officer form.

3. What is Money Laundering?

- 3.1 Money laundering means exchanging money or assets that were obtained criminally for money or assets that appear to be from a legitimate source.

Money laundering offences include:

- ❖ concealing, disguising, converting, transferring criminal property or removing it from the UK (Section 327 of the Act)
- ❖ entering into or becoming concerned in an arrangement which you know or suspect facilitates the acquisition, retention, use or control of criminal property by or on behalf of another person (Section 328 of the Act)
- ❖ acquiring, using or possessing criminal property (Section 329 of the Act)

There are also two secondary offences:

- ❖ failure to disclose any of the three primary offences above; and
 - ❖ 'tipping off' whereby somebody informs a person or persons who are, or who are suspected of being involved in money laundering, in such a way as to reduce the likelihood of their being investigated or prejudicing an investigation.
- 3.2 Any member of staff could be caught by the money laundering provisions, if they suspect money laundering and either become involved with it in some way and/or do nothing about it.
- 3.3 While the risk to the Council of contravening the legislation is low, it is important that all employees are familiar with their responsibilities as criminal sanctions may be imposed for breaches of the legislation.
- 3.4 Details of any cash payments of over £1000 must be reported to the MLRO.

4. The Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO)

- 4.1 The officer nominated to receive disclosures about money laundering activity within the Council is the Governance, Risk and Safety Manager – Iain Jackson.

5. Reporting Procedures

- 5.1 Any employee who suspects money laundering activity must report their suspicion promptly to the MLRO, firstly by discussing their suspicion with the MLRO and then by submitting the report to the MLRO using the disclosure form – part 1, attached at Appendix A.
- 5.2 The employee must follow any directions given by the MLRO, and must not make any further enquiries into the matter or take any further steps in any related transaction without authorisation from the MLRO.

- 5.3 The employee must not disclose or otherwise indicate their suspicions to the person suspected of the money laundering. They must not discuss the matter with others or note on the file that a report has been made to the MLRO in case this results in the suspect becoming aware of the situation.
- 5.4 The MLRO must promptly evaluate any disclosure report, to determine whether it should be reported to the National Crime Agency (NCA).
- 5.5 The MLRO must promptly report the matter to NCA, on their standard report form and in the prescribed manner.
- 5.6 The MLRO will commit a criminal offence if they know or suspect, or have reasonable grounds to do so, through a disclosure being made, that another person is engaged in money laundering and they do not disclose this as soon as practicable to the NCA.

6. Client Identification Procedure

- 6.1 Where the Council is carrying out 'relevant business' and as part of this
 - ❖ forms an ongoing business relationship with a client;
 - ❖ undertakes a one-off transaction involving payment by or to the client of £10000 or more;
 - undertakes a series of linked one-off transactions involving total payment by or to the client(s) of £10000 or more;
 - ❖ it is known or suspected that a one-off transaction (or a series of them) involves money laundering;
 - ❖ then the Client Identification Procedure (as set out below) must be followed before any business is undertaken for that client.

Unlike the reporting procedure, the client identification procedure is restricted to those operating relevant business i.e. Financial Services and Legal Services. This requirement does not apply if a business relationship with the client existed before 1st March 2004.

- 6.2 Where the 'relevant business' is being provided to another public sector body then you must ensure that you have signed, written instructions on the body's headed paper before any business is undertaken.
- 6.3 Where the 'relevant business' is not for a public sector body, then you should seek additional evidence of identity, for example: checking with the organisation's website to confirm their business address; conducting an on-line search via Companies House; seeking evidence from the key contact of their personal identity and position within the organisation.
- 6.4 With instructions from new clients, or further instructions from a client not well known to you, you may wish to seek additional evidence of the identity of key individuals in the organisation and of the organisation itself - please see the Guidance Note for more information.

6.5 If satisfactory evidence of identity is not obtained at the outset then the business relationship or one off transaction(s) cannot proceed any further.

7. Record Keeping Procedures

7.1 Where the 'relevant business' is carried out then the client identification evidence and details of the relevant transaction(s) for that client must be retained for at least five years.

8. Guidance & Training

8.1 In support of this procedure, the Council will make all staff aware of the requirements and obligations placed on the Council and on themselves as individuals by the Anti Money Laundering legislation.

ANNEX 3 – GUIDANCE ON RESPONDING TO A FRAUD SITUATION

PART	TITLE
B	INITIAL RESPONSE CHECKLIST
C	HOW IS AN INVESTIGATION MANAGED?
D	HOW SHOULD EVIDENCE BE OBTAINED AND KEPT?
E	WHAT YOU SHOULDN'T DO

ANNEX 3A

Guidance on responding to a fraud, corruption or bribery situation - what you should do

The golden rules for responding correctly

The ultimate golden rule is that evidence should be collected and handled without compromising it or a future criminal investigation and prosecution.

RESPOND APPROPRIATELY TO INITIAL SUSPICION	If it is safe to do so, an initial investigation should be carried out to identify what further action is necessary. If there is an indication of fraud or anything requiring further investigation, this should be recorded and passed promptly to Internal Audit Services. All staff should be made aware of and follow the guidance in Appendix 2.
CONFIDENTIALITY	All information received as part of the fraud investigation should be treated as confidential and should only be shared with those who have a need to know.
GET ADVICE	Services should consult with HR before taking any action. Feel free at any point to contact Internal Audit for guidance or help. The Revenues and Benefits Counter Fraud Investigation Team may be able to provide further advice and / or assist the Internal Audit Team in investigating any corporate frauds that may arise.
PLAN CAREFULLY	Carefully evaluate evidence, assess risk and plan actions. Take the time to do this well. Again assistance can be provided by Internal Audit.
REFER EFFECTIVELY	If necessary agree with Internal Audit who will be responsible for the investigation. Internal Audit will be happy to act in an advisory capacity in a number of circumstances rather than lead the work.
STAY IN CONTROL	Investigation work should be well monitored and controlled with regular meetings with all parties involved to review progress and decide future actions. Controlling time and cost is also important.
KEEP GOOD RECORDS	Keep first class records, particularly where evidence of criminality is obtained. Evidence and documentation must be stored securely in its original condition.
BE CAREFUL ABOUT INTERVIEWING	Interviews, which should only be used for fact finding, should be carefully planned, undertaken and recorded. Interviews should always be carried out by two people. The interviewee should be allowed to be accompanied. A formal record should be kept of the interview. Never interview a criminal suspect before consulting the Police and giving them the opportunity to investigate. The Head of Legal and Regulatory Support Services will be happy to advise.
STOP AT THE RIGHT TIME	Referring the matter at the right time is essential to achieving a successful outcome. Guidance will be provided by Internal Audit.

FOLLOW UP ACTION TAKEN	Make sure that the Council learns from the experience and strengthens internal control.

Initial response checklist

Being told about a fraud, corruption or bribery matter

All information received must be treated as confidential and should only be shared with those who have a need to know

1. Note details of the informant.

- Name
- Address and telephone number
- Position
- Accept information that is provided anonymously, but encourage the person to give their details by suggesting this would help a future investigation if they can be contacted for further information.

2. Be responsive to concerns raised.

- Encourage an informant to voice concerns
- Assure them that their concerns will be taken seriously and properly looked into
- Make sure that the conversation is conducted privately and cannot be overheard inappropriately
- Listen carefully and attentively.

3. Refer to an appropriate Manager.

- If you are not the appropriate person it would be best to stop a conversation at a suitable opportunity so that they can be involved.
- If the informant has given contact details tell them that a senior member of staff will contact them.

4. Ask questions to try to get as much information as possible.

- Probe and clarify where necessary
- Find out if the informant has any evidence – e.g. documents
- Ask open questions – who, what, where, when, why, how.

5. Check if the informant wants to make a Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 (PIDA).

- An informant may qualify to make a protected disclosure if they give their name and are an employee
- Tell them briefly about PIDA
- Ask them if they are making a disclosure or would like to do so
- Reassure the informant all information will be treated in confidence

Think you just found a fraud, corruption or bribery matter?

Consider personal safety and leave immediately if at risk from a suspect.

1. As soon as possible make a note of your concerns ensuring this is kept secure and cannot be overseen.

- Who
- What
- Where
- When
- Why
- How.

2. Make copies of any documentation on site that may be relevant and is readily accessible.

- Computer records and outputs – Seek support from Head of Legal and Regulatory Support Services to ensure evidence is protected from contamination and destruction and is collected correctly
- Financial documents such as invoices
- Procedure documentation
- Reports

3. Convey your suspicions as soon as possible to the appropriate Manager.

- Initial information and evidence obtained should be evaluated
- Further investigation work should be carefully considered and planned
- Involve Audit Services if necessary

Don't do these!

1. Don't unduly challenge and never ridicule an informant about the reliability of their information.

- We want to know everything they know, even if it is wrong
- There will be time afterwards to evaluate what has been said and to determine what action should be taken
- Be open and approachable.

2. Don't confront anyone suspected or accused.

- A fraudster should not be alerted before the investigating parties are ready to take action
- Inappropriately interviewing a suspect can compromise a criminal investigation
- Wrongly accusing someone can do serious damage to careers, relationships and professional credibility.

3. Don't tell anyone who does not need to know.

ANNEX 3C

How is an investigation managed?

Objectives

The objectives of an investigation are to:

- identify if fraud has taken place
- identify the dishonest persons
- estimate the financial loss and make recovery
- act fairly by collecting balanced evidence to support or disprove allegations and suspicions of fraud
- recommend and agree action to improve internal control
- consider taking formal action where needed.

How to investigate

The approach to investigation work is summarised below:

When fraud is suspected:-

- Evaluate the information, evidence and sources
- Assess risk
- Plan and prioritise the work required
- Gather evidence from records, documents and enquiries
- Decide on further courses of action

At all stages consideration should be given to the cost and benefits of doing the work.

The first and second steps of evaluation and assessing risk should always be undertaken. These are essential to gain an adequate understanding of the circumstances, risks and possible courses of action.

Meetings should be held regularly to re-evaluate evidence gathered and to re-assess risk as the investigation progresses. In making the assessment of risk, try to anticipate the whole potential extent for fraud. Think of the worse case scenario. For example, if an employee is able to commit a fraud in one area, how many other areas might also be at similar risk and should be checked? This will help to identify the gaps in knowledge towards which further investigative enquiries need to be made.

The investigation cycle continues until the objectives of the investigation have been achieved or further useful evidence is unlikely to be available. The evidence that has been obtained can then be evaluated in its entirety and appropriate action considered.

ANNEX 3D

How should evidence be obtained and kept?

Evidence handling and record keeping must be excellent.

Golden rules for evidence gathering and record keeping

The ultimate golden rule, here again, is that evidence should be collected and handled without compromising it or a future criminal investigation and prosecution. The guidance covers investigations which involve a team of staff. Most investigations in Services will be done by a single manager and not all the steps will be required.

ESTABLISH A FILING SYSTEM STRAIGHT AWAY	Chronicle in an investigation logbook every action taken during the investigation. Also keep an exhibits record for evidence gathered.
GET ENOUGH ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT	Keep right up to date with filing and record keeping.
OBTAIN ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE	Obtain original documentary evidence (e.g. invoices) where possible. Give a receipt and a copy of what is taken.
RECORD INTERVIEWS AND CONVERSATIONS	Conversations, information received and actions taken should be recorded contemporaneously.
MAINTAIN EVIDENCE SECURELY IN ORIGINAL CONDITION	Make sure original documents or items are not marked or damaged in any way. Store securely and work on copies.
GET ADVICE ABOUT OBTAINING AND USING IT AND FORENSIC EVIDENCE	IT and forensic evidence requires specialist skills to meet criminal standards. Get advice from the Head of Legal and Regulatory Support Services.
DON'T THROW ANYTHING AWAY	File everything including rough notes and working papers to avoid potential allegations of destroying evidence.

ANNEX 3E

What you shouldn't do

This section looks at the main risks and how they can be avoided.

The cardinal sins

The ultimate cardinal sin is to compromise a future criminal investigation by the Police or other agency and therefore the chances of a successful prosecution.

RUSH AN ILL PLANNED INVESTIGATION	Poorly managed investigations may jeopardise criminal prosecution and other action. Investigations should be well planned and involve staff with appropriate skills and experience. If in doubt call Internal Audit.
CONDUCT A CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION	This is the responsibility of the Police. When reasonable suspicion of a criminal offence is established, report the matter to Internal Audit and discuss the way forward.
INTERVIEW CRIMINAL SUSPECTS	This is the responsibility of the Police. Stop any ongoing interviews once reasonable suspicion arises or a confession is made. Don't start any new interviews of suspects. Never try to interview under caution. Report the matter to Internal Audit and discuss the way forward.
COMPROMISE EVIDENCE	The courts expect the original evidence to be produced in its original condition. Make a copy to work on and keep the original in a secure and safe file.
COMPROMISE COMPUTER EVIDENCE	If you switch a computer on or off you immediately compromise the evidence it may contain. Taking evidence from a computer involves specialist skills to copy hard drives and access networks appropriately. Specialist advice must be obtained. Report this to Head of Legal and Regulatory Support Services and discuss the way forward.
THROW EVIDENCE AWAY	Keep everything. The law generally requires the prosecution to disclose all material evidence to the defence. This may include the audit files.
MOUNT COVERT SURVEILLANCE	Whilst the Council is a body to which the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 (RIPSA) applies, we do not normally use covert surveillance. Don't follow people around or take pictures of them without their knowledge. This would be committing an offence.
USE INFORMANTS	Whilst the Council is a body to which the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 (RIPSA) applies, we do not normally use covert surveillance. You cannot direct someone to find out information outside the normal course of the audit / investigation. So, for example, you cannot direct a member of the public "to keep an eye on things and let me know when it happens again". You can encourage them to contact you with further information which you are willing to take into account as part of the audit / investigation if they wish.

INTERCEPT COMMUNICATIONS	Accessing personal e-mail and post without the permission of the individual concerned can be illegal under RIPSA and / or the Data Protection Act 2018 . Get legal advice about your proposed enquiries in advance of taking any actions of this nature.
BREACH DATA PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS	Under Schedule 2, Part 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 , data can be shared between organisations for purposes of preventing and detecting crime. However, obtain legal advice about the specific acquisition, use and sharing of computer data.
BECOME AN EXPERT WITNESS	The evidence should speak for itself and the expression of opinion should be unnecessary or properly limited. Always take legal advice if you are asked to make a statement to the Police or you have been called as a witness at trial. An ordinary witness states what they found, heard or saw. An expert witness offers professional opinion on the evidence and this should be avoided.

It is important to keep in mind that evidence gathered during an audit investigation may subsequently be called upon in a criminal prosecution, civil law action or disciplinary / dismissal case. The action that can be taken against a fraudster will be compromised if it is possible to highlight procedural weaknesses in the investigation or evidence gathering process which may lead to evidence being ruled inadmissible or otherwise discredited.

1.0 THE FIRST SECTION: AN OVERVIEW

1.1 Overview

Public procurement is the process by which public bodies acquire goods, services and works from third parties to meet customer and service user needs. Procurement covers all activities from identification of a requirement through to the end of the useful life or disposal of an asset.

The impact of procurement is far greater than this definition of a 'process'. As detailed in the Council's Procurement Strategy for 2020/21, strategic procurement arrangements can increase commercial excellence throughout the organisation, ensuring that our services deliver best value. Effective procurement arrangements can make significant contributions to a wide range of Council objectives including a successful local economy, a thriving voluntary sector, community involvement and environmental issues as well as delivering value for money. Strategic procurement recognises that it is essential that procurement decisions are taken with a focus on the outcomes that the Council is seeking to achieve.

1.2 Best Value

All purchasing must take place in accordance with the Council's statutory duty to secure best value under the Local Government in (Scotland) Act 2003. This requires the Council to:

Secure continuous improvement in performance whilst maintaining an appropriate balance between quality and cost; and in making those arrangements and securing that balance, have regard to economy, efficiency, effectiveness, and equal opportunities requirements and to contribute to the achievement of sustainable development.

1.3 Savings

Savings from Procurement should be recorded in line with the Scottish Government's Procurement Benefits Reporting Guidance.

1.4 Legal Context

Underpinning the duty to achieve Best Value, there are several layers of procurement regulation that dictate how public procurement must be conducted by the Council:-

Much of Scotland's public procurement legislation comes from European Directives. Following the UK exit from the EU on 31st December 2020 – some technical changes are being made to the procurement regulations (addressed at point 1.5 below);

Scottish legislation and guidance (addressed at point 1.6 below);

Council Contract Standing Orders (addressed at point 1.8 below)

1.5 The European context and transition

The UK left the EU on 31 December 2020. It is important to note that most procurement processes and procedures have not changed. References to the EU and EU procurement legislation are being updated or removed nationally and throughout this Manual; any associated Guidance; templates and links to external websites. The powers to make the changes are included in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 – it should be noted that there are no powers to undertake a wider review of procurement legislation. The changes are largely technical in nature - our procurement procedures remain largely unchanged.

What has not changed - The basic requirements to advertise contracts, observe minimum timescales, and follow rules on technical specifications and award criteria, for example, will remain in place. The requirement to afford equal treatment to bidders from countries which are signatories to the World Trade Organisation's Government Procurement Agreement (the GPA) will also remain. PCS remains the main advertising portal for Scottish Public Bodies.

What has changed – changes are largely technical in nature - for example:

- Notices for procurements started after the end of the Transition Period will be routed to Find a Tender (FTS) rather than Official Journal of the European Union (OJEU)
- The ESPD has been renamed the Single Procurement Document (SPD) for new procurements and includes minor revisions to exclusion grounds to remove, for example, offences relating to fraud affecting the European communities financial interests.
- Scottish Ministers will be responsible for reviewing and revaluing the financial thresholds every two years – next review due 2022 which will be consistent across the UK and there is no scope to introduce threshold values that vary from the GPA or OJEU.

1.6 Scottish Legislation and Guidance

EU Directives were given effect by:

- The Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015 (the Regulations)
- The Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 (The Reform Act)
- Procurement (Scotland) Regulations 2016
- Concessions Contract (Scotland) Regulations 2016 and
- Utilities Contract (Scotland) Regulations 2016

1.7 Thresholds: Regulatory

Procurement Threshold and Contract Value Estimation Changes

Post the UK exit from the EU, the UK is an independent member of the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Government Procurement (WTO GPA).

A new Scottish Policy Note SPPN 8/2021 has been released to communicate threshold changes.

The WTO GPA procurement thresholds changed on 1 January 2022.

From this date when you calculate the estimated value of your contract you must include VAT (if applicable) at the appropriate rate for your contract (or apply the standard UK VAT rate of 20%). More information is detailed below.

The Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 threshold values for regulated procurements are not changing i.e. they remain at £50,000 (ex VAT) for Goods and Services and £2million (ex VAT) for Works.

The Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015 (the Regulations) have been increased commensurate with the addition for VAT. Unless you can show that your contract has no VAT or a lower rate of VAT, it is recommended best practice to add 20% to the net estimated value of your contract. 20% is the current standard rate of VAT. Adding this standard rate will:

- remove the risk of underestimating the contract value and therefore
- ensure you follow the correct procurement route and advertising requirements in line with the new procurement thresholds

If VAT is applicable you must include an allowance in your calculation of the estimated value of the contract to determine whether the contract equals or exceeds the new threshold values.

For contracts over £50,000, an award notice must be published on PCS and certain other rules apply (See Supplementary Guidance Note 18: Health and Social Care Contracts)	Non-regulated procurement

Public Contracts Scotland (PCS) remains the main advertising portal for Scottish public bodies. This means that at the practical level there should be no changes in the way that we submit contract opportunity notices – they should still be submitted to PCS in the first instance.

In addition to publication of these notices on PCS, for procurements that have started but not concluded before the end of the Transition Period, notices will also require to be published on Tenders Electronic Daily (OJEU/TED) and will be routed there via PCS. Notices for procurements started after the end of the Transition Period will be routed to the Find a Tender (FTS).

The tables above reflect legal obligations and ensure that we demonstrate value for money and that public money is spent properly. It is important for those carrying out procurement activity to realise the agreed process are about legal compliance and to underpin the commercial approach for achieving value for money and efficiency.

Where compliance with the requirements of the tables referred in the preceding paragraph may not be possible or appropriate due to exceptional circumstances, decision making must be recorded via the following process: the completion of the agreed pro forma known as the justification for non-competitive action (JNCA); advice and involvement of the PCCMT is essential to ensure a clear audit trail and record the reasons for the justification and authorisation at senior level. The JNCA process is outlined in Supplementary Guidance Note 18 – JNCA Process & FAQs.

1.9 Timeframes

Where contract values exceed the threshold, there are also sets a minimum timescale for tender returns. Timeframes in relation to the different routes of procurement are in Supplementary Guidance Note 1 – Time Limits.

1.10 Sustainability as Part of the Procurement Activity

Sustainable procurement means taking into account those social, economic and environmental considerations as part of the procurement process. As a matter of good practice sustainability needs to be built in to the earliest stages of the Journey, when requirements are being identified and specified. With the Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 the Sustainable Procurement Duty applies to all regulated procurements which commence on or after 1st June 2016. See Supplementary Guidance Note 2 – Sustainable Procurement and Types of Community Benefits for full details.

The aim of Argyll and Bute Council's Sustainable Procurement Policy is to ensure that the Council embeds the principles of sustainability within its procurement activities to ensure that only products and services which can be described as 'best value' are selected and that in all cases a balanced consideration of social, ethical, environmental and economic impacts are undertaken throughout the procurement process.

Argyll and Bute Council is one of the region's major purchasers and as such the PCCMT recognises that its purchasing decisions have social, economic and environmental implications, both locally and nationally, now and in generations to come.

1.11 External Bodies

The Council can procure on behalf of external bodies and partner organisations, it is essential that procurement advice is sought prior to proceeding to ensure that: proper governance arrangements are applied; contracting parties are established and where appropriate an arrangement is in place for the recovery of the cost of procurement services.

Reference should be made to the process for External Bodies in Template 1 – Procurement Procedures Template, and Template 15 – On Behalf of External Bodies Templates.

2.0 THE SECOND SECTION: PROCUREMENT JOURNEY

2.1 An overview of The Procurement Journey for Argyll and Bute

The Procurement Journey for Argyll and Bute Council (“the Journey”) closely follows the Scottish Government’s Procurement Journey, a tool developed and promoted since 2011 as part of the Public Procurement Reform Programme. This tool has been adapted to provide detailed guidance which supports the policies and objectives of this Council.

The Journey is intended to support all levels of procurement activity where there is not already a contract in place. Following the Journey will help achieve best practice and expected contract outcomes. It will also facilitate procedural consistency throughout the Council making the procurement process easier for tenderers, commissioners, procurement staff and contract managers.

By providing guidance, templates and standardised processes, the Manual should provide the user with an end to end guide for the procurement process from planning to delivery.

2.2 Planning Your Procurement

Planning is a critical success factor in any procurement. The earlier in the process that PCCMT are involved, the better to help avoid limiting options at too early a stage and achieve the outcomes that will best meet service needs and expectations.

2.3 Make or Buy Decisions

For many purchases there is essentially no real “make or buy” decision to be made. The purchase will be for a good, service or work that is completely outside the scope of what the Council as an organisation, produces.

There will in other cases however, be a decision to be made over whether a purchase has to be made or whether there is internal capacity to deliver the goods, services or works required. In such cases it is extremely important that the “make or buy” decision is reached before a formal tendering process is undertaken.

Where a “make or buy” choice results in the decision to “make” then no purchase has been made and none of the procurement rules apply. Therefore in order to keep work “in house” the Council are not required under any procurement rules to make any value justification.

In terms of achieving overall Best Value for the organisation however, officers considering a “make or buy” decision will want to consider the following questions:

- Does the Council have available capacity to meet the requirements of the proposed purchase in house, to the required quality and within the required timescale?
- If so, does the Council's in-house resource deliver this at a competitive cost that is comparable with the cost of purchase?
- Can the Council deploy additional resources to meet the requirements at a cost that is comparable to the cost of purchase?

Other considerations can be taken into account when justifying a decision to deliver a requirement in-house, even if costs are above cost of purchase while still within a competitive market range, such as safeguarding staff resources within the Council, and any other strategic considerations of senior management.

For the above comparisons the cost of purchase should be estimated from previous purchases or should be arrived at through other research. No formal tendering exercise will have been carried out at this point.

If a fully costed "make" option is prepared and there is a wish to compare this to a later tender price then this should form a control bid, which should be communicated within the tender documents. In these situations it should be noted that the Council's "in-house" price is not prepared in competition with external prices and it is in the Council's overall interest if suppliers can submit successful bids in this situation.

From time to time, as part of an overall service review, the Council may wish to explore an option to have services delivered by another method. This may involve services that have previously been delivered by the Council itself, being opened up to competition from other sectors.

If a make or buy decision is anticipated the basis for the decision should be noted using the process and template for decision making within Template 2 – Make or Buy Approval Template to ensure proper procedure is followed and an audit trail of decision making is available.

2.4 How to Plan

The planning process is captured in an overarching Category Strategy and Commodity Sourcing Strategy covers the planning of separate tenders and frameworks.

Please see Supplementary Guidance Note 5 – Strategy Development for full information on the Category and Commodity Sourcing Strategy process, and the contents of the templates. Template 4 – Strategy Templates provides the documents to be used in the strategy stage dependant on value. Each template provides full guidance notes for their completion.

Early engagement with the PCCMT at the planning stage should avoid any delay to the process and allow a proper consideration of all the options available. It is essential that time is allowed for relevant market testing and lead times in contracts should be assessed to ensure that there is sufficient time for handovers to be completed and contract requirements to be fulfilled.

This should be taken into account in producing the Commodity Sourcing Strategy. As an example of timescales a low value low risk procurement would use the Quick Quote process which can be carried out within a few weeks (depending upon the complexity and state of readiness of the specification) whereas a more complex tendering process takes around 9–12 months.

2.5 Is There An Existing Contract/Framework Provider?

Consider whether your requirement could be met through an existing Scottish, UK wide, sector led or local framework or contract which would provide best value. A framework contract is one where the main elements of the contract have been agreed and which set out the terms under which specific purchases (call-offs) can be made.

If not, and the contract value, including any recurring needs over a four year period, does not exceed £50,000 (for supplies and services)/ £2,000,000 (for works) then generally the 'Quick Quote' facility will be the appropriate advertising route.

All contract opportunities over £1,000 will be advertised on Public Contract Scotland (PCS) portal. Using PCS is a way of ensuring a degree of transparency and a consistent approach amongst public authorities and provides an essential audit trail.

2.6 Which Route?

The Procurement Journey guidance should be used to ensure you select the most appropriate Procurement Journey Route:

2.6.1 Route 1 – Pricing Agreements

For step by step guide please see Supplementary Guidance Note 7 – Route 1 – Procurement Processes Explained.

2.6.2 Route 1 – Quick Quotes

For supplies and services the Quick Quote procedure should be used where possible for purchases between £1,000 and £50,000 using the Invitation to Quote (ITQ) Template within Template 5 – Route 1 – Pricing Agreement, ITQ, ITT & NCA Templates. For works the threshold is higher and the Quick Quote procedure is applicable for purchases between £1,000 and £2,000,000 (for detailed requirement, see Supplementary Guidance Note 7 – Route 1 – Procurement Processes Explained).

For Route 1 procurements, at least 3 formal quotes are required for all purchases or contracts over £1,000 unless an in-house provider or existing framework or contract is available.

This route provides guidance for procurements of relatively low risk, low value, and of a non-repetitive nature i.e. you should not placing contracts for the same works, goods or services on a number of occasions over 4 years unless you already have a framework in place.

2.6.3 Route 1 – Single Stage Tender Process

This process should be used for supplies and services contracts up to the value of £50k and for works contracts up to the value of £2,000,000 where it has been decided that the Quick Quote process is not appropriate as there is a requirement to advertise the procurement (for example where there are insufficient suppliers identified to be included within a Quick Quote distribution list). For the detailed requirements of this process, see Supplementary Guidance Note 7 – Route 1 – Procurement Processes Explained.

2.6.4 Routes 2 & 3

For use of Route 2 & 3, it is assumed that individuals will have been trained in all relevant regulations, the Procurement Journey and our applicable local procurement policies, guidelines and governance arrangements.

The same planning stages at 2.4 above should be followed. Services should not proceed without PCCMT involvement. The Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 introduces thresholds for regulated procurements above £50,000 for goods and services and £2 million for works procedures set out here.

Routes 2 & 3 follow the stages below:

Stage	Title	Supplementary Guidance Note/Template
1	Develop Commodity Sourcing Strategy	SGN 5 – Strategy Development; Template 4 – Strategy Templates
2	Development of the procurement documents and issue	SGN 8 – Routes 2 & 3 – Tender Development; Template 6 – Routes 2 & 3 – ITT Templates
3	Open Tender Returns and Evaluate	SGN 9 – Routes 2 & 3 – Opening and Evaluating Returns; Template 7 – Police Check Template; Template 8 – Evaluation Matrix Templates;
4	Post Tender Clarification and tender review	SGN 13 – Post Tender Clarification and Post Tender Negotiation (PTN); Template 10 – PTN Templates
5	Contract Award	SGN 15 – Routes 2 & 3 – Contract Awards; Template 11 – CARR Templates; Template 12 – Outcome Notice Templates
6	Contract and Supplier Management	SGN 16 – Contract and Supplier Management Toolkit; Template 14 – Contract and Supplier Management Templates

The procurement function must operate within appropriate governance and risk management arrangements for the Council. The appropriate governance will help ensure probity, transparency and consistency of key procurement-related decisions. For large or politically sensitive projects following Routes 2 & 3 this will almost certainly mean setting up a UIG and having senior officer involvement. Consideration should be given to reporting mechanism and governance arrangements in the planning of the project.

2.7 Roles and Responsibilities

There are many stakeholders involved in procurement. The main roles of each are shown in Supplementary Guidance Note 4 – UIG Guide Roles and Responsibilities. Where there is cross-service spend then the instructing customer will normally be the Service with the biggest spend (unless otherwise agreed) for the purposes of approvals, CARRs and contract management responsibilities.

2.8 Engaging the Market

2.8.1 Annual Procurement Report:

An Annual Procurement Report must be published by the Council on regulated procurement activities as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the financial year. The report must include a look back at the procurement activity over the year and a forward look which should include a summary of the regulated procurements the Council expects to commence in the next two financial years.

2.8.2 Prior Information Notice (PIN):

Buyers may issue a Prior Information Notice (PIN) for early market engagement, to reduce procedural time limits and as a call for competition in restricted procedures or competitive procedures with negotiation, for regulated level procurements.

A PIN can also be used as a call for competition in regulated contracts:

- PINs will follow a standard form and will outline: who the buyer(s) is/are, what is required, the anticipated contract value, the type of contract, and when the requirement should be fulfilled

The following are some key notes about PINs:

- The PIN reduces the minimum timescales for the return of tenders
- The PIN is valid for a period of twelve months from issue.
- The PIN does not create any commitment from the Council to proceed with a tendering exercise.

2.8.3 Request for Information (RFI) – Market Tests:

RFIs are primarily used to gather market information to help make a decision on what steps to take next. In addition to gathering basic information, an RFI is often sent to a broad base of potential suppliers for the purpose of conditioning suppliers' minds, developing strategy, building a database, and preparing for a future tender.

2.9 Advertising the Contract

The Commodity Sourcing Strategy will identify the tender procedure to be used commensurate with the tables at section 1.8. The most commonly used procedures are listed at (a) to (f) below. The Regulations provide for the following procedures

- (a) Open Procedure
- (b) Restricted Procedure
- (c) Single Stage Procedure
- (d) Dual Stage Procedure
- (e) Closed/Quick Quote Procedure
- (f) Frameworks which includes reference to Mini competitions
- (g) Competitive procedure with negotiation- use when justifiable
- (h) Competitive Dialogue – use when justifiable
- (i) Innovation Partnership - use when justifiable
- (j) Negotiated Procedure without prior publication – only in permitted instances

The key differences between the commonly used award procedures adopted by Argyll and Bute Council are summarised below.

2.9.1 Open Procedure:

Relevant to regulated level procurements.

Under the open procedure all interested parties are entitled to request tender documents. In general the use of the open procedure is not recommended as best practice except in cases where the market is extremely restricted in the number of likely bidders.

Where the open procedure is used the capability is firstly assessed using the Single Procurement Document and if a pass achieved contract award criteria is thereafter evaluated on a Technical/Commercial basis, with the award going to the Most Economically Advantageous Tender (MEAT). This award criteria is the only way that procurements within the scope of Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015 may be carried out.

2.9.2 Restricted Procedure:

Relevant to regulated level procurements.

Under the restricted procedure, the Single Procurement Document (SPD) is used to allow suppliers to demonstrate their qualifications and how they are selected to bid. The SPD is mandated for use for all procurements with an estimated value of regulated threshold and above commenced on or after 18th April 2016. It is important to note that while a Technical/Commercial mix is used in tenders issued under the restricted procedure, no further judgements should be made on the bidder's ability or capacity to perform the contract. Having gone through a selection procedure the short listed bidders are deemed to be capable of carrying out the contract. Their approach to the contract may still be subject to scoring as part of a quality assessment.

2.9.3 Single Stage Procedure:

Relevant to Regulated procurements.

This is the national equivalent of the open procedure – all interested parties are entitled to request tender documents. In general the use of the single stage procedure is not recommended as best practice except in cases where the market is extremely restricted in the number of likely bidders.

Where the single stage procedure is used the capability is firstly assessed using the Single Procurement Document and if a pass achieved contract award criteria is thereafter evaluated on a Quality/Price basis, with the award going to the Most Economically Advantageous Tender (MEAT).

2.9.4 Dual Stage Procedure:

Relevant to Regulated procurements.

This is the national equivalent of the restricted procedure, the Single Procurement Document (SPD) is used to allow suppliers to demonstrate their qualifications and how they are selected to bid. It is best practice to use the SPD for regulated procurements below regulated thresholds.

It is important to note that while a Quality/Price mix is used in tenders issued under the dual stage procedure, no further judgements should be made on the bidder's ability or capacity to perform the contract. Having gone through a selection procedure the short listed bidders are deemed to be capable of carrying out the contract. Their approach to the contract may still be subject to scoring as part of a quality assessment.

2.9.5 Quick Quote Procedure:

Under the quick quote procedure the tender documentation is to be issued to a restricted list of at least 3 suppliers with every effort normally being made to identify a minimum of 5 companies who may be interested in tendering. Whenever possible where the closed procedure is used the contract award criteria should be based on a quality / price mix, with the award going to the Most Economically Advantageous Tender (MEAT). In other cases, where quality is an absolute (mandatory or legislative), award can be made on the basis of lowest price, provided it meets the legislated threshold.

The Quick Quote should normally be issued via the 'Quick-Quote facility' on Public Contracts Scotland.

2.9.6 Framework Contracts:

The Council is only allowed to participate in contracts that they have been named as part of from the offset, i.e. named on the contract notice during the advertising stage. If the service wishes to use a particular framework then they should contact their relevant purchasing officer in the first instance and they will check if the framework can be used.

A framework contract is often used where the extent of the purchase is not known or where it is anticipated that several suppliers will be engaged on the contract over a specific period of time. A framework contract may be let to either a single bidder or three or more bidders, but not two. It is possible that a framework can be tightly specified in terms of unit price and deliverables but this is not always the case. Where it is not possible to arrive at specific prices it is possible to apply only pricing to core items or indeed have quality only criteria for inclusion in the framework. In such case, selection to specific supply under the framework would be undertaken by mini-bid, which may itself be price only or quality of submission for a specific supply.

2.9.7 Mini competitions:

Where frameworks are awarded to several economic operators there are two options for awarding call-off under the framework;

- (a) Apply the terms of the framework agreement (Direct Awards)
- (b) Hold a mini competition

Under option (a) – where it is possible to determine the Best Value supplier as the tender assessed as having submitted the most economically advantageous tender from the pricing and quality submitted to get onto the framework agreement then direct award is the only option available, i.e. there must not be further competition unless that first ranking supplier does not have capacity. If that supplier does not have capacity then the second ranking supplier may be approached.

Where the terms laid down in a framework agreement are not precise enough or complete for the particular call-off, a further or mini competition – option (b) - may be held with all those suppliers within the framework capable of meeting the particular need. It is important that all suppliers on a framework are invited to take part in the mini competition in the first instance; assumptions should not be made regarding their capability.

2.10 Other Considerations

2.10.1 Benchmarking:

The primary concern of benchmarking is measuring and assessing performance against identified best practice, with the aim of developing ways of matching or bettering that performance.

Competition is not always a perfect measure and the lack of a ready market for some services combined with barriers to entry in some industries, means that competition does not always ensure value for money. Key indicators that competition is not perfect may include;

- Few available bidders
- One or two dominant suppliers
- Lack of new entrants to bidding lists
- Demarcation between suppliers

Public Contracts Scotland portal can be used as a tool to aid benchmarking recent contract awards can be identified which might suggest a similar way of working. The Scottish Procurement Information Hub holds the procurement spend by supplier for every Scottish public sector body and those spends, either collectively or individually for named organisations, by commodity category can be compared to our own.

2.10.2 Demand Management:

While procurement activity and strategic sourcing in particular focus on the price and quality of purchases that are made, demand management concentrates largely on the quantity that is purchased. The focus of demand management is on consumption.

Managing Consumption:

The greatest single cost saving that can be made from any procurement exercise is the single, simple decision made at the beginning of the process, not to make the purchase. This obviously is not a decision that is available on many purchases; otherwise saving money through procurement would be an extremely simple business.

While the Council will be initiating individual demand management programmes for areas of indirect expenditure the following principles should be applied generally to purchasing decisions. Some examples are provided below:

Paper and Stationery:

1. The Council purchases paper and stationery from national contracts. Ensure that you are using the contracted supplier for all purchases.
2. Ensure that the purchase is necessary and that no better alternatives are available from the large catalogue of stock that the contracted supplier has made available through the national contract.

Office Equipment:

1. Printing, scanning and photocopying devices (Multi-functional devices) are the largest items of office equipment used by the Council. The Council leases this equipment through a national contract. Please ensure that all purchases are made from the contracted supplier.
2. The national contract is designed so that the supplier benefits from the number of prints, scans or copies produced rather than the number of multi-functional devices deployed across the Council. Reducing the number of devices benefits the Council through reduced leasing charges and benefits the supplier through reduced capital and maintenance costs. Ask for assistance from the contracted supplier in deploying the machines as effectively as possible within individual offices.
3. Direct as much print as possible away from desktop printers to the contracted multi-functional devices and save money on print costs.

ICT Hardware and Software:

1. Ensure that purchases of IT hardware and software are only made to meet a defined business demand and that specifications are tailored to the most cost effective means of meeting that demand.
2. Always use the IT Service desk when purchasing IT hardware, software or peripherals to ensure that the specified equipment will be compatible with present and planned applications.

Consultants:

1. Can the project be delivered in- house. Never employ a consultant in order to deliver more bodies on the ground, whatever the task. The Council has a large workforce with diverse skills and has access to temporary recruitment agencies who can supply staff to work under Council management at competitive rates - access Guide to recruiting agency workers on the Hub.
2. Always have a clear specification of the work to be carried out and be aware of the clear advantages that the specialist skills of a consultant will bring to the task. Ensure the consultant is provided with a copy of the guide on engaging external consultants
3. Ensure that the contract has clear and specified deliverables and that it is clear that those have to be met in order for payment to be released.
4. Use Supplementary Guidance Note 19 – Guide for Consultants Engaged with Argyll and Bute Council.

2.11 Lessons Learned

Planning is a continual process and PCCMT should use lessons learned to inform current and future plans. Lessons learned reports should be prepared for all route 3 contracts, for route 2 contracts if there is a substantial issue in relation to quality, time or cost and a sample of route 1 contracts where considered appropriate by the Procurement Officer. The Lessons Learned Template within Template 14 – Contract and Supplier Management Templates can be utilised throughout the procurement process or at contract award stage

2.12 Contract and Supplier Management (CSM)

We are all experiencing increasing demands on our services as budgets are reducing and the Council needs to deliver significant savings as well as improving the quality and sustainability of what we provide. Procurement, and improved purchasing outcomes, are key in assisting the Council in delivering these objectives. Contract and supplier management (CSM) is a key component in ensuring that procured services provide best value for all stakeholders. The PCCMT has been rolling out a Project aimed at embedding CSM across all commercial contracts used by Services to ensure that this key component is met and best value achieved. To ensure effective contract management and compliance with Part E of the Council's Contract Standing Orders a Contract Manager /Owner should be identified for every contract tendered or awarded.

Supplementary Guidance Note SGN 17 sets out how PCCMT can support the implementation of a consistent contract management process across the Council and achieve objectives

- To build good working relationships between parties;
- Proactively anticipating future risks and appropriately dealing with them;
- Aiming for continuous improvement in performance over the life of the contract
- Identifying and driving best value over the life of the contract
- Delivering community benefits for our local community

Following agreed processes and using the related templates where appropriate and working with the PCCMT will enhance officers' ability to manage Suppliers and deliver contract objectives on time and within budget.

All contract implementation and management should be undertaken in line with Supplementary Guidance Note 17 – Contract and Supplier Management Toolkit.

Employee Code of Conduct

Protocol for the office of the Monitoring Officer

OVERVIEW

The individual Codes of Conduct that regulate the activities and behaviour of both Councillors and Officers has been brought together in this document to ensure that Councillors and Officers each clearly understand their own roles and rules but also have ready access to the full set of regulations and guidance around conduct and behaviour.

This should provide a clear and accessible resource to inform everyone of the behaviours and conduct standards expected of everyone within Argyll and Bute Council.

If there is a need to seek advice on the terms of these codes then in the first instance contact should be made with the Head of Legal and Regulatory Services.

Standards Commission for Scotland – Code of Conduct for Councillors

Argyll and Bute Council, along with all other Scottish Local Authorities, subscribe to and support the Code of Conduct for Councillors, as enforced by the Standards Commission for Scotland. This model Code has been supplemented by the following principles which provide a local perspective on what is expected of Councillors within Argyll and Bute and which sets out standards for undertaking their role. In some cases elements of the local guidance may be enforceable under the terms of the national code where this is not the case the Monitoring Officer will be required to report departures from the Local Code to the Council for its information.

The following paragraphs set out the supplementary standards and /or guidance that Argyll and Bute Council expects of its elected members. The information contained herein should be read in conjunction with the national code of conduct which is attached hereto and the recent guidance on the code issued by the standards commission which is also attached.

Argyll and Bute Council wish to adhere to the highest standards of behaviour and to always seek to present the Council in a positive light. This aspiration will be achieved if officers and members seek to maintain the highest standards of behaviour and to operate in a business like manner appropriate to public service.

The regulation of officer behaviour is dealt with under separate rules, in respect of elected members the national code of conduct and the following local standards set out the framework for elected members to comply with.

LOCAL SUPPLEMENTARY STANDARDS FOR COUNCILLORS

LOCAL SUPPLEMENTARY STANDARDS AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Relationship with Council Employees (Including those employed by contractors providing services to the Council)

- 1.0 Elected Members should not seek to influence or coerce employees to act in a manner outwith established Council Policy and Procedures.
- 2.0 Argyll and Bute Council expects the highest standards of personal conduct from Councillors, as well as employees. The Council adopts a zero tolerance approach in regard to inappropriate conduct or behaviour from Councillors towards employees or other Councillors, including abusive language and defamatory comments. Any behaviour of this nature will be deemed as a breach of the Code of Conduct, and appropriate action will be taken.

Gifts and Hospitality

- 3.0 You must record with the appropriate officer the details of any gifts or hospitality received. This record will be available for public inspection.

Conduct in the Chamber or in Committee

- 3.1 You must respect the chair, your colleagues, Council employees and any members of the public present within the Chamber during Council or Committee meetings or other formal proceedings of the Council. You must comply with rulings from the chair in the conduct of the business of the Council.
- 3.2 High Standards in the Chamber or Committee are of fundamental importance to the integrity of Council business and to public perception of local democracy.
- 3.3 These requirements are underpinned by the key principles at section 2, of the National Code of conduct, which includes respecting all other Councillors and all Council employees and the role they play, treating them with courtesy at all times. The principles outlined in the National code apply here. The Council will not tolerate any form of unacceptable conduct by Councillors in the Chamber or in Committee, or indeed in any situation when they are acting in an official capacity as Councillors, whether the business is formal or informal. Abusive or offensive language and disruptive behaviour in the Chamber or Committee will not be tolerated and in accordance with the Council's Standing Orders it is a matter for the chair to rule on the acceptability of behaviour during the course of a meeting and to take appropriate action as necessary

Dress Code and Appearance

- 3.4 Argyll and Bute Council requires employees and Members to adopt certain dress requirements which are appropriate for the role they fulfil. Councillors are public servants and are therefore in regular contact with service users, other agencies and the public. In effect, Councillors represent the "public image" of Argyll and Bute Council. On this basis there is an expectation that Councillors are dressed appropriately in all situations where they are acting in the role as Councillor, including representing the Council on official business.

Annex C Protocol for Relations between Councillors and Employees in Scottish Councils

SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

1.1 The Scottish public has a high expectation of councillors and the way in which they should conduct themselves in undertaking their duties in the Council. You must meet those expectations by ensuring that your conduct is above reproach.

1.2 The Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000 provides for the introduction of new codes of conduct for local authority councillors and members of relevant public bodies; imposes on Councils and relevant public bodies a duty to help their members to comply with the relevant code; and establishes a Standards Commission for Scotland to oversee the new framework and deal with alleged breaches of the codes. The Act requires the issue of a Code of Conduct for councillors - this Code - which was originally prepared by COSLA at the invitation of Scottish Ministers and approved by the Scottish Parliament. The Code has since been reviewed and re-issued in 2010 by the Scottish Government, following consultation and the approval of the Scottish Parliament.

1.3 This Code applies to every member of a local authority in Scotland. As a councillor, it is your responsibility to make sure that you are familiar with, and that your actions comply with, its provisions.

1.4 This Code reflects the legal framework of Scottish Councils at the date of the Code's publication. Councillors and employees should interpret it in the context of their individual Council's decision making structure.

Guidance on the Code of Conduct

1.5 Councillors hold public office under the law and must observe the rules of conduct stemming from the law, this Code and any guidance from the Standards Commission and the rules, standing orders and regulations of the Council. It is your personal responsibility to comply with these and review regularly, and at least annually, your personal circumstances with this in mind, particularly when your circumstances change. You must not, at any time, advocate or encourage any action contrary to the Code of Conduct.

1.6 The sections of the Code which follow have been developed in line with the key principles listed in Section 2 and provide additional information on how the principles should be interpreted and applied in practice. No written information can provide for all circumstances and if you are uncertain about how the rules apply, you should seek advice from senior Council employees. You may also choose to consult your own legal advisers, and on detailed financial and commercial matters, to seek advice from other relevant professionals.

Enforcement

1.7 Part 2 of the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act sets out the provisions for dealing with alleged breaches of the Code and for the sanctions that will be applied if the Standards Commission for Scotland finds that there has been a breach of the Code. In respect of councillors, those sanctions are set out in Annex A.

SECTION 2: KEY PRINCIPLES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

2.1 The general principles upon which this Code of Conduct is based should be used for guidance and interpretation only. These general principles are:

Duty

You have a duty to uphold the law and act in accordance with the law and the public trust placed in you. You have a duty to act in the interests of the Council as a whole and all the communities served by it and a duty to be accessible to all the people of the area for which you have been elected to serve, and to represent their interests conscientiously.

Selflessness

You have a duty to take decisions solely in terms of the public interest. You must not act in order to gain financial or other material benefit for yourself, family or friends.

Integrity

You must not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to any individual or organisation that might reasonably be thought to influence you in the performance of your duties.

Objectivity

You must make decisions solely on merit when carrying out public business including making appointments, awarding contracts or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits.

Accountability and Stewardship

You are accountable for your decisions and actions to the public. You have a duty to consider issues on their merits, taking account of the views of others, and you must ensure that the Council uses its resources prudently and in accordance with the law.

Openness

You have a duty to be as open as possible about your decisions and actions, giving reasons for your decisions and restricting information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

Honesty

You have a duty to act honestly. You must declare any private interests relating to your public duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

Leadership

You have a duty to promote and support these principles by leadership and example, and to maintain and strengthen the public's trust and confidence in the integrity of the Council and its councillors in conducting public business.

Part F (2)
Respect

You must respect all other councillors and all Council employees and the role they play, treating them with courtesy at all times. Similarly you must respect members of the public when performing duties as a Councillor.

2.2 You should apply the principles of this Code to your informal dealings with the Council's employees, party political groups and others no less scrupulously than at formal meetings of the Council and its committees and sub-committees.

SECTION 3: GENERAL CONDUCT

3.1 The rules of good conduct in this section must be observed in all situations where you act as a councillor, including representing the Council on official business.

Conduct at Meetings

3.2 You must respect the chair, your colleagues, Council employees and any members of the public present during meetings of the Council, its Committees or Sub-Committees or of any Public Bodies where you have been appointed by, and represent the Council. You must comply with rulings from the chair in the conduct of the business of these meetings.

Relationship with Council Employees (including those employed by contractors providing services to the Council)

3.3 You must respect all Council employees and the role they play, and treat them with courtesy at all times. It is expected that employees will show the same consideration in return.

3.4 Whilst both you and Council employees are servants of the public, you have separate responsibilities: you are responsible to the electorate but the employee is responsible to the Council as his or her employer. You must also respect the different roles that you and an employee play. Your role is to determine policy and to participate in decisions on matters placed before you, not to engage in direct operational management of the Council's services; that is the responsibility of the Council's employees. It is also the responsibility of the Chief Executive and senior employees to help ensure that the policies of the Council are implemented.

3.5 You must follow the Protocol for Relations between Councillors and Employees attached at Annex C. A breach of the Protocol will be considered as a breach of this Code.

Remuneration, Allowances and Expenses

3.6 You must comply with the rules for the payment to councillors of remuneration, allowances and expenses.

Gifts and Hospitality

3.7 You must not accept any offer by way of gift or hospitality which could give rise to real or substantive personal gain or a reasonable suspicion of influence on your part to show favour or disadvantage to any individual or organisation. You should also consider whether there may be any reasonable perception that any gift received by your spouse or cohabitee or by any company in which you have a controlling interest, or by a partnership of which you are a partner, can or would influence your judgement. The term "gift" includes benefits such as relief from indebtedness, loan concessions, or provision of services at a cost below that generally charged to members of the public.

Part F (2)

3.8. You must never ask for gifts or hospitality.

3.9 You are personally responsible for all decisions connected with the acceptance of gifts or hospitality offered to you and for avoiding the risk of damage to public confidence in your Council and in local government. As a general guide, it is usually appropriate to refuse offers except:-

- (i) isolated gifts of a trivial character, the value of which must not exceed £50;
- (ii) normal hospitality associated with your duties and which would reasonably be regarded as appropriate; or
- (iii) civic gifts received on behalf of the Council.

3.10 You must not accept any offer of a gift or hospitality from any individual or organisation who is an applicant awaiting a decision from the Council or who is seeking to do business or to continue to do business with the Council. If you are making a visit to inspect equipment, vehicles, land or property, then as a general rule you should ensure that the Council pays for the cost of these visits.

3.11 You must only accept offers to attend social or sporting events where these are clearly part of the life of the community or where the Council would be expected to be represented.

3.12 You must not accept repeated hospitality or repeated gifts from the same source.

3.13 If it is the practice of the Council to seek sponsorship for some of its activities or events, you must ensure that your involvement with the sponsors is limited to the event in question and does not damage public confidence in the relationship between the Council and the sponsors.

Confidentiality Requirements

3.14 Council proceedings and printed material are generally open to the public. This should be the basis on which you normally work, but there may be times when you will be required to treat discussions, documents or other information relating to the Council in a confidential manner, in which case you must observe such requirements for confidentiality.

3.15 You will often receive information of a private nature which is not yet public or which perhaps would not be intended to be public. There are provisions in legislation on the categories of confidential and exempt information and you must always respect and comply with the requirement to keep such information private. Legislation gives you certain rights to obtain information not otherwise available to the public and you are entitled to exercise these rights where the information is necessary to carry out Council duties. Such information is, however, for your individual use as a councillor and must not be disclosed or in anyway used for personal or party political advantage or in such a way as to discredit the Council.

Part F (2)

This will also apply in instances where you hold the personal view that such information should be publicly available.

Use of Council Facilities

3.16 The Council will normally provide facilities to assist councillors in carrying out their duties as councillors or as holders of a particular office within the Council. This may involve access to secretarial assistance, stationery and equipment such as telephones, fax machines and computers. Such facilities must only be used in carrying out Council duties in accordance with your relevant Council's information technology, communications and member support policies or for incidental personal use as authorised by your Council and not related in any way to party political or campaigning activities. Where the Council recognises party political groups, assistance to such groups is appropriate in relation to Council matters but must not extend to political parties more generally and you should be aware of and ensure the Council complies with the statutory rules governing local authority publicity.

Appointments to Partner Organisations

3.17 You may be appointed or nominated by the Council as a member of another body or organisation. If so, you will be bound by the rules of conduct of these organisations and your responsibility for any actions taken by you as a member of such an organisation will be to the organisation in question. You must also continue to observe the rules of this Code in carrying out the duties of that body.

3.18 If you become a director of a company as a nominee of the Council you will assume personal responsibilities under the Companies Acts. It is possible that a conflict of interest may arise for you between the company and the Council. In such cases it is your responsibility to take advice on your responsibilities to the Council and to the company. This will include questions of declarations of interest.

Dealings with the Council

3.19 You will inevitably have dealings on a personal level with the Council of which you are a member - for example as a Council taxpayer, ratepayer, tenant, recipient of a Council service or applicant for a licence or consent granted by the Council. You must not seek preferential treatment for yourself, your family, friends, colleagues or employees because of your position as a councillor or as a member of a body to which you are appointed by the Council and you must avoid any action which could lead members of the public to believe that preferential treatment is being sought.

Responsibilities to the Council as a Member of the Public

3.20 The law makes specific provision that if a councillor is in two months' arrears with payment of Council tax that councillor may not participate in certain decisions concerning Council tax issues, in order to preserve public confidence that councillors are taking decisions in the general public interest. Similar considerations should apply in other forms of dealings between you and the Council where indebtedness may arise. Whilst you are a member of the community, you are also a representative of that community and of the Council to which you are elected. As there is potential for public perception of abuse of position and poor leadership, you must seek to avoid being in debt to the Council.

3.21 If you owe a debt to the Council, for example, in relation to rent due for a council house or commercial premises where the Council is the landlord, you must put in place at the earliest opportunity arrangements for repayment. You must avoid being in a situation which might lead the public to believe that preferential treatment is being sought. You must not participate in any decision which may create suspicion of a conflict of interest. For example, where you are in arrears of rent for a council house, you must not participate in decisions affecting the levels of rent to be paid by council house tenants.

SECTION 4: REGISTRATION OF INTERESTS

4.1 The following paragraphs set out the categories of interests, financial and otherwise, which you have to register. These are "Registrable Interests", and you must ensure that they are registered, when you are elected and whenever your circumstances change. The register should cover the period commencing from 12 months prior to and including your current term of office.

4.2 Regulations made by Scottish Ministers describe the detail and timescale for registering interests. It is your personal responsibility to comply with these regulations and you should review regularly and at least once a year your personal circumstances. Annex B contains key definitions and explanatory notes to help you decide what is required when registering your interests under any particular category. The interests which require to be registered are those set out in the following paragraphs and relate to you. It is not necessary to register the interests of your spouse, or cohabitee.

Category One: Remuneration

4.3 You have a registrable interest where you receive remuneration by virtue of being:-

- (i) employed;
- (ii) self-employed;
- (iii) the holder of an office;
- (iv) a director of an undertaking;
- (v) a partner in a firm; or
- (vi) undertaking a trade, profession or vocation, or any other work.

4.4 You do not have a registrable interest simply because you are a councillor or a member of a joint board, a joint committee or of COSLA.

4.5 If a position is not remunerated it does not need to be registered under this category. However, unremunerated directorships may need to be registered under category two "Related Undertakings".

4.6 If you receive any allowances in relation to membership of any organisation the fact that you receive such an allowance must be registered.

4.7 When registering employment, you must give the name of the employer, the nature of its business and the nature of the post held in the organisation.

4.8 When registering self-employment, you must provide the name and give details of the nature of the business. When registering an interest in a partnership, you must give the name of the partnership and the nature of its business.

Part F (2)

4.9 Where you otherwise undertake a trade, profession or vocation, or any other work, the detail to be given is the nature of the work and its regularity. For example, if you write for a newspaper, you must give the name of the publication and the frequency of articles for which you are paid.

4.10 When registering a directorship, it is necessary to provide the registered name of the undertaking in which the directorship is held and detail the nature of its business.

4.11 Registration of a pension is not required as this falls outside the scope of the category.

Category Two: Related Undertakings

4.12 You must register any directorships held which are themselves not remunerated but where the company (or other undertaking) in question is a subsidiary of, or a parent of, a company (or other undertaking) in which you hold a remunerated directorship.

4.13 You must register the name of the subsidiary or parent company or other undertaking and the nature of its business, and its relationship to the company or other undertaking in which you are a director and from which you receive remuneration.

4.14 The situations to which the above paragraphs apply are as follows:-

(i) you are a director of a board of an undertaking and receive remuneration - declared under Category one; and

(ii) you are a director of a parent or subsidiary undertaking but do not receive remuneration in that capacity.

Category Three: Contracts

4.15 You have a registrable interest where you (or a firm in which you are a partner, or an undertaking in which you are a director or in which you have shares of a value as described in paragraph 4.20) have made a contract with the Council of which you are a member:

(i) under which goods or services are to be provided, or works are to be executed; and

(ii) which has not been fully discharged.

4.16 You must register a description of the contract, including its duration, but excluding the consideration.

Category Four: Election Expenses

4.17 You must register a statement of any assistance towards elections expenses received where the value of any single donation exceeds £50.

Category Five: Houses, Land and Buildings

4.18 You have a registrable interest where you own or have any other right or interest in houses, land and buildings, such as being an owner or a tenant, including Council tenant.

4.19 You are required to give the address of the property, or otherwise give a description sufficient to identify it.

Category Six: Interest in Shares and Securities

4.20 You have a registrable interest where you have an interest in shares comprised in the share capital of a company or other body and the nominal value of the shares is:-

(i) greater than 1% of the issued share capital of the company or other body; or

(ii) greater than £25,000.

Category Seven: Gifts and Hospitality

4.21 You must register the details of any gifts or hospitality received, however it is not necessary to record any gifts or hospitality as described in paragraph 3.9 (i) to (iii) of this Code. This record will be available for public inspection.

Category Eight: Non-Financial Interests

4.22 Councillors may also have significant non-financial interests and it is equally important that relevant interests such as membership or holding office in public bodies, companies, clubs, societies and organisations such as trades unions and voluntary organisations, are registered and described. In this context, non-financial interests are those which members of the public might reasonably think could influence your actions, speeches or votes in the Council which could include appointments to Committees or memberships of other organisations.

SECTION 5: DECLARATION OF INTERESTS

5.1 The key principles of the Code, especially those which specify integrity, honesty and openness are given further practical effect by the requirement for you to declare interests at meetings which you attend. The rules on declaration of interest, along with the rules which require registration of interests, are intended to produce transparency in regard to interests which might influence, or be thought to influence, your actions as a councillor.

5.2 It is your responsibility to make decisions about whether you have to declare an interest or make a judgement as to whether a declared interest prevents you from taking part in any discussions or voting. You are in the best position to assess your personal circumstances and to judge how these circumstances affect your role as a councillor in regard to a particular matter. You can, of course, seek advice from appropriate Council officers or from other sources which may be available to you. In making decisions for which you are personally responsible you are advised to err on the side of caution.

5.3 You may feel able to state truthfully that an interest would not influence your role as a councillor in discussion or decision-making. You must, however, always comply with the objective test ("the objective test") which is whether a member of the public, with knowledge of the relevant facts, would reasonably regard the interest as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your discussion or decision making in your role as a councillor.

5.4 Much of the content of the rules set out in this section of the Code refers to Council or Committee meetings. The principles relating to declaration of interests are not confined to such meetings. You must apply these principles no less scrupulously in your dealings with Council officers, at meetings with other councillors, including party group meetings, meetings of Joint Boards and Joint Committees and any other meeting, formal or informal, where you are representing your Council.

Interests which Require Declaration

5.5 Interests which require to be declared (if known to you) may be financial or non-financial. They may or may not cover interests which are registrable in terms of this Code. Most of the interests to be declared will be your personal interests but, on occasion, you will have to consider whether the interests of other persons require you to make a declaration. The paragraphs which follow deal with; your financial interests; your non-financial interests and the interests, financial and non-financial, of other persons.

Your Financial Interests

5.6 You must declare, if it is known to you, ANY FINANCIAL INTEREST (including any financial interest which is registrable under any of the categories prescribed in Section 4 of this Code and any interest as defined in a specific exclusion defined in paragraph 5.18).

Part F (2)

There is no need to declare:-

(i) an interest where a general exclusion, as defined in paragraph 5.18, applies but an interest where a specific exclusion applies must be declared; or

(ii) an interest which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

You must withdraw from the meeting room until discussion of and voting on the relevant item where you have a declarable interest is concluded other than in the following circumstances. There is no need to withdraw in the case of:-

(i) an interest covered by a general exclusion or a specific exclusion; or

(ii) an interest which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

Your Non-Financial Interests

5.7 You must declare, if it is known to you, any NON-FINANCIAL INTEREST if:-

(i) that interest has been registered under category eight (Non-Financial Interests) of Section 4 of the Code; or

(ii) that interest would fall within the terms of the objective test.

There is no need to declare:-

(i) an interest where a general exclusion applies, but an interest where a specific exclusion applies must be declared; or

(ii) an interest which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

You must withdraw from the meeting room until discussion of and voting on the relevant item where you have a declarable interest is concluded other than in the following circumstances. There is no need to withdraw in the case of:-

(i) an interest covered by a general exclusion or a specific exclusion; or

(ii) an interest which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

5.8 As a councillor you will serve on other bodies as a result of express nomination or appointment by your Council or otherwise by virtue of being a councillor. Your membership of statutory Joint Boards or Joint Committees which are composed exclusively of councillors does not raise any issue of declaration of interest in regard to Council business. In relation to service on the boards and management committees of limited liability companies, public bodies, societies and other organisations, you must decide, in the particular circumstances surrounding any matter, whether to declare a non-financial interest. Only if you believe that, in the particular circumstances, the nature of the interest is so remote or without significance, should it not be declared. You must always remember the public interest points towards transparency and, in particular, a possible divergence of interest between the Council and another body. Keep particularly in mind the advice in paragraph 3.18 of this Code about your legal responsibilities to any limited liability company of which you are a director.

5.9 You will also have other private and personal interests and may serve, or be associated with, bodies, societies and organisations as a result of your private and personal interests and not because of your role as a councillor. In the context of any particular matter you will have to decide whether to declare a non-financial interest. You should declare an interest unless you believe that, in the particular circumstances, the interest is too remote or without significance. In reaching a view on whether the objective test applies to the interest, you should consider whether your interest (whether taking the form of association or the holding of office) would be seen by a member of the public acting reasonably in a different light because it is the interest of a person who is a councillor as opposed to the interest of an ordinary member of the public.

The Financial Interests of Other Persons

5.10 The Code requires only your financial interests to be registered. You also, however, have to consider whether you should declare any financial interest of certain other persons. You must declare if it is known to you ANY FINANCIAL INTEREST of:-

- (i) a spouse, a civil partner or a co-habitee;
- (ii) a close relative, close friend or close associate;
- (iii) an employer or a partner in a firm;
- (iv) a body (or subsidiary or parent of a body) of which you are a remunerated member or director;
- (v) a person from whom you have received a registrable gift or registrable hospitality;
- (vi) a person from whom you have received registrable election expenses.

There is no need to declare an interest if it is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

Part F (2)

You must withdraw from the meeting room until discussion of and voting on the relevant item where you have a declarable interest is concluded other than in the following circumstances. There is no need to withdraw in the case of:-

- (i) an interest covered by a specific exclusion; or
- (ii) an interest which is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be taken to fall within the objective test.

5.11 This Code does not attempt the task of defining "relative" or "friend" or "associate". Not only is such a task fraught with difficulty but is also unlikely that such definitions would reflect the intention of this part of the Code. The key principle is the need for transparency in regard to any interest which might (regardless of the precise description of relationship) be objectively regarded by a member of the public, acting reasonably, as potentially affecting your responsibilities as a councillor and, as such, would be covered by the objective test.

The Non-Financial Interests of other persons

5.12 You must declare if it is known to you

ANY NON-FINANCIAL INTEREST of:-

- (i) a spouse, a civil partner or a co-habitee;
- (ii) a close relative, close friend or close associate;
- (iii) an employer or a partner in a firm;
- (iv) a body (or subsidiary or parent of a body) of which you are a remunerated member or director;
- (v) a person from whom you have received a registrable gift or registrable hospitality; or
- (vi) a person from whom you have received registrable election expenses.

There is no need to declare the interest unless it is clear and substantial.

There is only a need to withdraw from the meeting if the interest is clear and substantial.

Making a Declaration

5.13 You must consider at the earliest stage possible whether you have an interest to declare in relation to any matter which is to be considered. You should consider whether agendas for meetings raise any issue of declaration of interest. Your declaration of interest must be made as soon as practicable at a meeting where that interest arises. If you do identify the need for a declaration of interest only when a particular matter is being discussed you must declare the interest as soon as you realise it is necessary.

Part F (2)

5.14 The oral statement of declaration of interest should identify the item or items of business to which it relates. The statement should begin with the words "I declare an interest". The statement must be sufficiently informative to enable those at the meeting to understand the nature of your interest but need not give a detailed description of the interest.

Frequent Declarations of Interest

5.15 Public confidence in a local authority is damaged by perception that a Council's decisions are substantially influenced by factors other than the public interest. If you would have to declare interests frequently at meetings of a particular committee or in respect of any role which you are asked to discharge as a councillor, you should not accept a role or appointment with that attendant consequence. Similarly, if any Council appointment or nomination to another body would give rise to objective concern because of your existing personal involvements or affiliations, you should not accept the appointment or nomination.

Dispensations

5.16 In some very limited circumstances dispensations may be granted by the Standards Commission in relation to the existence of financial and non-financial interests which in terms of this Code would otherwise prohibit participation in discussion and voting.

5.17 Applications for dispensations will be considered by the Standards Commission which will be able to consider requests for dispensations which will apply generally to a class or description of councillors who are all affected by a particular category of interest. In situations where general or category dispensations are not granted by the Standards Commission, applications for particular dispensations should be made as soon as possible in advance of any meetings where dispensation is sought. You should take no part in consideration of the matter in question unless, and until, the application for dispensation is granted.

Definition of Exclusions

5.18 The following paragraphs refer to General Exclusions and Specific Exclusions

(1) The General Exclusions

The general exclusions referred to in this section of the Code are in relation to interests which a councillor may have:-

- (i) as a Council tax payer or rate payer or in relation to the Council's public services;
- (ii) in relation to setting the Council tax;
- (iii) in relation to matters affecting councillors' remuneration, allowances, expenses, support services and pension; or
- (iv) as a Council house tenant.

Part F (2)

In relation to (i), a councillor does not have an interest which has to be declared as a Council tax payer or ratepayer or, in respect of any issue relating to the terms of services which are offered to the public generally, as a recipient or non-recipient of those services.

In relation to (ii), a councillor does not have a financial interest which has to be declared in connection with:-

(a) the setting of Council tax (including the approval of the total estimated expenses of the authority to be incurred during the year in question); and

(b) the setting of any substitute Council tax (including the approval of any revised total estimated expenses).

notwithstanding that the councillor may have an interest in any item of expenditure.

In relation to (iii), a councillor does not have an interest which has to be declared in connection with any matter relating to councillors' remuneration, allowances, expenses or support services or in relation to councillors' pension arrangements, including the investment of superannuation funds.

In relation to (iv), a councillor does not have an interest which has to be declared in connection with any matter relating to council house matters, notwithstanding that the councillor has an interest in the tenancy of council housing accommodation (including any garage), always provided:-

(a) this exclusion does not apply in respect of any matter which is concerned solely or mainly with the particular tenancy from which an individual councillor's interest derives; and

(b) this exclusion does not apply to any councillor who is in arrears of rent in respect of his or her council house (or garage as appropriate).

(2) The Specific Exclusions

The specific exclusions referred to in this section of the Code are in relation to interests which a councillor may have:-

(i) as a member, or director of, an outside body; or

(ii) as a member of the Cairngorms National Park Authority ("CNPA").

In relation to (i), the exclusion applies to any councillor who has been nominated or appointed or whose appointment has been approved by the councillor's local authority and who has registered an interest under Section 4 of the Code as a member or director of:-

(a) devolved public body as defined in Schedule 3 to the Act;

Part F (2)

(b) a public body established by enactment or in pursuance of statutory powers or by the authority of statute or a statutory scheme;

(c) a body with whom there is in force an agreement which has been made in pursuance of Section 19 of the Enterprise and New Towns (Scotland) Act 1990 by Scottish Enterprise or Highlands and Islands Enterprise for the discharge by that body of any of the functions of Scottish Enterprise or, as the case may be, Highlands and Islands Enterprise;

(d) a body being a company:-

established wholly or mainly for the purpose of providing services to the councillor's local authority; and which has entered into a contractual arrangement with that local authority for the supply of goods and/or services to that local authority.

So as to enable the councillor to take part in the consideration and discussion of, and to vote upon, any matter relating to the body in question the councillor is required to declare his or her interest at all meetings where matters relating to the body in question are to be discussed. This is always provided the exclusion does not apply in respect of any matter of a quasi-judicial or regulatory nature where the body in question is applying to the local authority for a licence, a consent or an approval, is making an objection or representation or has a material interest concerning such a licence, consent or approval or is the subject of a statutory order of a regulatory nature, made, or proposed to be made, by the local authority.

In relation to (ii), the exclusion applies to (a) Decisions on Planning Applications where the CNPA have submitted comments to the Council and (b) Decisions on Planning Applications where the CNPA have decided not to call-in the Applications, as follows:-

(a) the exclusion applies to any councillor who is also a member of the CNPA where the CNPA have submitted comments, representations or objections to the Council in relation to a planning application so as to enable the councillor to take part in the consideration and discussion of, and to vote upon, the determination of the planning application by the Council, subject to the following:-

i. this exclusion only applies where the councillor has not participated in the decision to make comments, representations or objections and has not attended during the item of the relevant CNPA meeting to decide on the comments, representations or objections to be submitted.

ii. this exclusion applies to meetings of the Council and of any committee or sub-committee of the Council and to other meetings as referred to in paragraph 5.4 of the Code to deal with the planning application.

(b) the exclusion applies to any councillor who is also a member of the CNPA where the CNPA have decided not to call-in a planning application so as to enable the councillor to take part in the consideration and discussion of, and to vote upon, the determination of the planning application by the Council, subject to the following:-

i. this exclusion only applies provided the CNPA have, in reaching their decision not to call-in, confined themselves to the question whether the application should be called-in and not discussed the merits of the application in so deciding.

Part F (2)

ii. this exclusion applies to meetings of the Council and of any committee or sub-committee of the Council and to other meetings as referred to in paragraph 5.4 of the Code to deal with the planning application.

SECTION 6: LOBBYING AND ACCESS TO COUNCILLORS

6.1 In order for the Council to fulfil its commitment to being open, accessible, and responsive to the needs of the public, it needs to encourage appropriate participation by organisations and individuals in the decision-making process. Clearly however, the desire to involve the public and other interest groups in the decision-making process must take account of the need to ensure transparency and probity in the way in which the Council conducts its business.

6.2 You will need to be able to consider evidence and arguments advanced by a wide range of organisations and individuals in order to perform your duties effectively. Some of these organisations and individuals will make their views known directly to individual councillors or Council committees. The rules and standards in this Code set out how you should conduct yourself in your contacts with those who seek to influence you.

6.3 You may be lobbied by a wide range of people including individuals, organisations, companies and developers. As a general rule, it is an essential element of the democratic system that any individual should be able to lobby the Council or a councillor. However, particular considerations apply when you are dealing with applications under regulatory powers such as planning and with matters of a quasi-judicial nature such as the determination of certain licence applications. If you are lobbied on such matters you should make it clear that you are not in a position to lend support for or against any such application that you will have a responsibility for making a decision on in due course. Representations to councillors on such applications should be directed, by the councillor, to the appropriate department of the Council. This does not prevent you from seeking factual information about the progress of the case.

6.4 Political group meetings should not be used to decide how councillors should vote on such applications, or on individual staffing matters such as the appointment or discipline of employees. It is a breach of this Code to comply with political group decisions on such matters where these differ from your own views.

SECTION 7: TAKING DECISIONS ON QUASI-JUDICIAL OR REGULATORY APPLICATIONS

Introduction

7.1 The Code's provisions relate to the need to ensure a proper and fair hearing and to avoid any impression of bias in relation to statutory decision making processes. These provisions apply not only to those made under planning legislation but to a number of others of a quasi-judicial or regulatory nature which the local authority may also have to consider. These will include applications for taxi, betting and gaming, liquor, theatres, cinemas and street trader licences and a range of other similar applications where the issuing of a statutory approval or consent is involved. This also includes where the local authority is acting in an enforcement, disciplinary or adjudicatory role.

Fairness and Impartiality

7.2 On questions relating to such matters on which councillors have to make individual decisions, you may have to take account of different points of view or make decisions based on specified statutory criteria.

7.3 In such cases, it is your duty to ensure that decisions are properly taken and that parties involved in the process are dealt with fairly. Where you have a responsibility for making a formal decision, you must not only act fairly but also be seen as acting fairly. Furthermore, you must not prejudge, or demonstrate bias in respect of, or be seen to be prejudging or demonstrating bias in respect of, any such decision before the appropriate Council meeting. In making any decision, you should only take into account relevant and material considerations and you should discount any irrelevant or immaterial considerations.

7.4 To reduce the risk of your, or your Council's, decisions being legally challenged, you must not only avoid impropriety, but must at all times avoid any occasion for suspicion and any appearance of improper conduct.

7.5 Councillors who have been appointed to outside bodies may - in certain circumstances - be entitled to participate in discussion and voting on matters relating to these bodies through the benefit of the specific exclusion relating to certain outside bodies as provided for in paragraph 5.18 (2) of Section 5 of this Code. It should be emphasised, however, that the exclusion does not apply in respect of any matter of a quasi-judicial or regulatory nature where the outside body is applying to the local authority for a licence, a consent or an approval, is making an objection or representation or has a material interest concerning such a licence, consent or approval or is subject of a statutory order of regulatory nature, made, or proposed to be made, by the local authority.

Decisions on Planning Matters

Policy and Strategic Issues

7.6 The requirements of this part of the Code should not limit you from discussing or debating matters of policy or strategy, even though these may provide the framework within which individual applications will in due course be decided.

7.7 Therefore in your key role in establishing planning policies for the area, you are fully entitled to express your views or advocate proposals for the making, approval or amendment of the development plan, including supplementary planning guidance published by the planning authority both relating to general policies for the authority's area and to briefs and masterplans prepared for specific sites in anticipation of planning applications.

7.8 You may also be asked to comment on requests to the planning authority for a provisional view as to whether - in respect of a proposal for a major development the authority might be minded, in principle, to consider granting planning permission. This may occur in cases where developers are seeking the planning authority's view in advance of committing to expensive and lengthy technical appraisals. As a part of any such request and only as part of the planning authority considering and forming such a provisional view, you are entitled to express an opinion in advance of the statutory application for planning permission being submitted to the planning authority formally for determination.

General

7.9 As a councillor you may have to deal with planning decisions in a number of ways. You may:-

- (i) become involved in local cases as a ward representative; or
- (ii) you may be more actively involved in decision making:-
 - (a) as a member of a committee dealing generally with decisions on planning applications;
 - (b) in certain cases, you may be a member of the committee where applications are subject to a pre-determination hearing;
 - (c) as a member dealing with applications referred to the full Council for determination; and
 - (d) as a member of the Council's Local Review Body dealing with reviews where officers acting under delegated authority have refused planning permission or granted it subject to conditions which the applicant does not agree with or of non-determination of the application by the officer; or have not dealt with the application within the prescribed timescale.

Part F (2)

7.10 You must never seek to pressure planning officers to provide a particular recommendation on any planning decision and you should not seek privately to lobby other councillors who have a responsibility for dealing with the application in question.

7.11 If you propose to take part in the decision making process you must not give grounds to doubt your impartiality. You must not make public statements about a pending decision, to ensure that you are not seen to be prejudging a decision which will be made at the meeting where it can be anticipated that the information required to take a decision will be available. You must not indicate or imply your support or opposition to a proposal, or declare your voting intention, before the meeting. Anyone who may be seeking to influence you must be advised that you will not formulate an opinion on a particular matter until all available information is to hand and has been duly considered at the relevant meeting.

7.12 If you have an interest, whether financial or non financial, in the outcome of a decision on a planning application, or a planning agreement, or on taking enforcement action, or in a Local Review Body, you must declare that interest and refrain from taking part in making the decision.

Representations

7.13 Where you will be participating in making the appropriate decision, you should not organise support for, or opposition to, or lobby other councillors or act as an advocate to promote a particular recommendation on a planning application, on a planning agreement, on taking enforcement action, or on a review by the Local Review Body.

7.14 You are not precluded from raising issues or concerns on any of the matters associated with the application with the planning officers concerned. Indeed, a councillor may well have an important contribution to make in respect of an individual planning application or on what the Council should include in a planning agreement. It is entirely appropriate for councillors, including those who will have a decision making responsibility, to make known to planning officers what representations from constituents and prospective developers they have received on a planning application, to attend public meetings/events (including those relating to statutory pre-application consultation) and to assist constituents in making their views known to the relevant planning officer. This applies to those councillors with a decision making responsibility, provided that at no time does the councillor express a "for" or "against" view by advocating a position in advance of the decision making meeting (other than in respect of the circumstances set out in paragraphs 7.8 and 7.18).

7.15 If as part of the decision making process you wish to make representations on behalf of constituents or other parties you may do so providing:-

(i) you do so in terms of procedures agreed by the Council which afford equal opportunity to any parties wishing to make representations to do so,

(ii) you declare your interest in the matter; and

(iii) after making those representations you then retire from the meeting room.

Full Council Decisions

7.16 There are certain planning applications where the final decision has to be made by the full Council. These applications will be those where there has been the opportunity for a pre-determination hearing. These procedures apply to major developments which are significantly contrary to the development plan and for national developments. It will be apparent before the application is formally submitted to the Council which developments are national or major. Where the application is for a national development you will be involved in the decision making process as a member of the full Council.

7.17 Where the application is for a major development, it may not be clear at the outset whether the development is significantly contrary to the development plan and therefore one where the full Council will be making the final decision. It will be for the planning authority to come to such a view as part of considering the application.

7.18 You are entitled to take part in the decisions to be made by the full Council even though you may have expressed an opinion on the application at a pre-determination hearing or at the planning committee.

Local or Area Planning Committees

7.19 All local authorities will have their own procedures for dealing with planning applications. Councils may adopt a system in which most applications are dealt with by local or area planning committees with the remaining being dealt with by a central planning committee. Some also have procedures where decisions can be referred from a planning committee to the full Council for final determination.

7.20 Individual members may make their provisional views known as part of the discussions at earlier meetings. Councillors who have responsibility for the decision should only make a final judgement when all the relevant material considerations are before the meeting that will, in fact, determine the application. These considerations can quite appropriately include the views of a local or area committee for a central planning committee, or the views of a planning committee or a pre-determination hearing in advance of the full Council.

Other Interests

7.21 If you have substantial property or other interests which would prevent you from voting on a regular basis you should not sit on a decision-making committee that deals with planning applications.

7.22 You must not act on behalf of, or as an agent for, an applicant for planning permission with the Council other than in the course of your professional role which you have registered.

Site visits

7.23 As a councillor, you may be asked to attend site visits in connection with a pending planning application or review. If you do so, you should follow the procedures for such visits set out by your authority - for local reviews there are details about site visits in the relevant regulations. These procedures should be consistent with the provisions of this Code.

Unauthorised developments

7.24 As a councillor you may also be the person who is first made aware of an unauthorised development and you might - quite properly - wish to refer the matter to the Council for possible enforcement action. Once the initial referral has been made to the appropriate department for investigation and any formal action, you should advise all subsequent inquirers to deal directly with the relevant officer, as you should not lobby for a particular outcome. This does not prevent you from seeking factual information about the progress of the case.

ANNEX A

SANCTIONS APPLIED BY STANDARDS COMMISSION FOR BREACH OF THE CODE

- (i) censuring the councillor;
- (ii) suspending, for a period not exceeding one year, the councillor's entitlement to attend one or more but not all of the following:-
 - (a) all meetings of the Council;
 - (b) all meetings of one or more committees or sub-committees of the Council;
 - (c) all meetings of any other body on which that councillor is a representative or nominee of the Council.
- (iii) suspension, for a period not exceeding one year, of the councillor's entitlement to attend all meetings of the Council, and of any committee or sub-committee of the Council; and of any other body on which the councillor is a representative or nominee of the Council;
- (iv) disqualifying the councillor, for a period not exceeding five years, from being or being nominated for election as, or from being elected as, a councillor.

A period of suspension under (ii) or (iii) above which would continue until or beyond an ordinary election will come to an end at the beginning of the day on which that election is held.

Disqualification of a councillor has the effect of vacating that councillor's office and extends to the councillor's membership of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, any joint committee, joint board or other body on which the councillor is a representative or nominee of the Council.

Where a councillor is also a member of a devolved public body (as defined in the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000), other than as a representative or nominee of the Council, the Commission may also remove or disqualify that person in respect of that membership. Full details of the sanctions are set out in Section 19 of the Act.

PROTOCOL FOR RELATIONS BETWEEN COUNCILLORS AND EMPLOYEES IN SCOTTISH COUNCILS

Principles

1. This protocol sets out the way in which Councils and employees of Councils should behave towards one another. It does not cover all the variety of circumstances which can arise, but the approach which it adopts will serve as a guide to dealing with other issues as they come up.
2. Councillors and employees should work in an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect, with neither party seeking to take unfair advantage of their position.

Scope

3. The most common contacts are between councillors and senior employees at Chief Executive, Director or Head of Service level, and this protocol is largely about those contacts. There are also many contacts between councillors and other employees in their daily business, and the principles of this protocol also apply to them. The particular position of employees who provide direct support services for councillors is dealt with separately at paragraph 21.

Members' and employees' roles

4. Within a Council, councillors have a number of different roles, all of which call for separate consideration. Some councillors are chairs of committees, most belong to political groups, and all have a local ward to represent.
5. Legally, employees are employed by the Council and are accountable to it. Ultimately they serve the Council as a whole and not any particular political group, combination of groups or any individual member. Nonetheless, political groups exist in most Councils and employees may properly be called upon to assist the deliberations of political groups and also to help individual members in their different roles. Chief Executives and Senior Officers have ultimate responsibility to ensure that the Council's responsibilities are implemented.

Office bearers

6. It is clearly important that there should be a close professional working relationship between the Chair of a committee and the director and other senior employees of any service which reports to that committee. However, such relationships should never be allowed to become so close, or appear to be so close, as to bring into question employees' ability to deal impartially with other councillors, and the ability of Chairs to deal impartially with other employees.
7. The Chair of a committee will often be consulted on the preparation of agendas and reports. Employees will always be fully responsible for the contents of any report submitted in their name and have the right to submit reports to members on their areas of professional competence. While employees will wish to listen to the views of conveners, they must retain final responsibility for the content of reports.

8. Committee Chairs are recognised as the legitimate elected spokesperson on their committees' areas of responsibility. Where authority is delegated to employees they will often wish to consult Chairs of committees about the action which they propose to take but the responsibility for the final decision remains with the employee who is accountable for it. Chairs should bear this in mind when discussing proposed action with employees.

9. Committee Chairs will have many dealings with employees. Those employees should always seek to assist a committee Chair but it must be remembered that they are ultimately responsible to the Head of the Service.

Political groups

10. Most Councils operate through a system of groups of councillors, many of them based on political affiliation. All employees must, in their dealings with political groups and individual members, treat them in a fair and even-handed manner. Employees must at all times, maintain political neutrality.

11. The support provided by employees can take many forms, ranging from the meeting with the Chair and vice-Chair before a committee meeting to a presentation to a full party group meeting. Whilst in practice such support is likely to be in most demand from whichever party group is for the time being in control of the Council, it should be available to all party groups. The advice given by employees to different party groups should be consistent.

12. Certain matters must, however, be clearly understood by all those participating in this type of process, councillors and employees alike. In particular:-

(i) Council rules about groups' access to employees, e.g. all requests being approved by the Chief Executive, must be followed;

(ii) employee support in these circumstances must not extend beyond providing information and advice in relation to matters of Council business. The observance of this distinction will be assisted if employees are not expected to be present at meetings or parts of meetings, when matters of party business are to be discussed;

(iii) party group meetings, whilst they form part of the preliminaries to Council decision-making, are not empowered to make decisions on behalf of the Council. Conclusions reached at such meetings do not therefore rank as Council decisions and it is essential that they are not interpreted or acted upon as such;

(iv) where employees provide information and advice to a party group meeting in relation to a matter of Council business, this cannot act as a substitute for providing all necessary information and advice to the relevant committee or sub-committee when the matter in question is considered;

(v) political groups need to recognise that information and advice given by employees should be used to enhance discussion and debate at Council and committee meetings. If such information is used for political advantage, for example media briefings beforehand, then the process could become devalued and place employees in a difficult position in giving information and advice; and

(vi) the chair of a political group meeting attended by employees has a responsibility for ensuring that those attending are clear on the status of the meeting and the basis on which employees are attending.

13. Special care needs to be exercised whenever employees are involved in providing information and advice to a meeting of a political group which includes persons who are not members of the Council. Such persons will not be bound by the Codes of Conduct for councillors and employees (in particular, the provisions concerning the declaration of interests and confidentiality) and for this and other reasons employees may not be able to provide the same level of information and advice as they would to a members only meeting.

14. Any discussion with a political group or councillor must be treated with strict confidentiality by the employees concerned and should not be accessible to any other political group. It is acknowledged, however, that factual information upon which any advice is based will, if requested, be available to all political groups.

15. Should any difficulty or uncertainty arise in the area of employee advice to party groups, this shall be raised with the Chief Executive who should discuss the matter with the group leader.

Local representative

16. All councillors represent part of the area of the Council. Within each Council's rules about consultation and councillor involvement, employees must treat all councillors fairly and openly in their role as local representatives. When performing their local representative role, councillors will be seen by the public as representing the Council and should act in accordance with the principles of the Code of Conduct for Councillors and this protocol.

Communications

17. Communications between an individual councillor and an employee should normally not be copied by the officer to any other councillor. Where it is necessary to copy the communications to another member, this should be made clear to the original councillor at the time.

Appointments

18. Where councillors are involved in the appointments of employees they must act fairly and openly and judge candidates solely on merit.

Social relationships

19. The relationship between councillors and employees depends upon trust and this will be enhanced by the development of positive, friendly relationships. Councillors and employees will often be thrown together in social situations within the community and they have a responsibility to project a positive image of the Council. Nonetheless, close personal familiarity between individual employees and councillors can damage the relationship of mutual respect and the belief that employees give objective and professional advice and commitment to the Council. Councillors and employees should, therefore, be cautious in developing close personal friendships while they have an official relationship.

Public comment

20. Councillors should not raise matters relating to the conduct or capability of employees in public. Employees must accord to councillors the respect and courtesy due to them in their various roles. There are provisions in the Code of Conduct for Employees about speaking in public and employees should observe them.

Employees supporting councillors

21. Where Councils arrange for employees to support members directly in carrying out their duties, particular considerations apply. Such employees are normally involved in administrative and practical support of councillors. While such staff may operate to the requirements of individual councillors in their daily business, it must be remembered that the employees are accountable to their line managers and any issues about conflicting priorities, conduct or performance must be referred to those managers.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Council's Employee Code of Conduct was developed following the adoption by COSLA of the National Code of Conduct for Local Government Employees. The Code was initially introduced in 1998 and is subject to regular review and update.
- 1.2 The public expects a high standard of conduct from all local government employees in Scotland. The Council's Code of Conduct is one of the ways we put the Council's values into practice. It is built around the recognition that everything we do in connection with our work at the Council will be measured against these standards of conduct. Our commitment to these high standards helps us to recruit and retain great people and provide great public services.
- 1.3 This Code's purpose is to provide clear and helpful advice to employees on the standards of behaviour expected of them to avoid any breach of the Code of Conduct.
- 1.4 The Code of Conduct describes the standard of behaviour expected of all employees of the Council in their day-to-day duties, and communications with colleagues, managers, Councillors, service users, other organisations and members of the public. It also provides guidance where your conduct outside of work may impact on the employment relationship. These standards are the benchmark against which your behaviour will be assessed in the event of a complaint being made.
- 1.5 The Code does not affect your rights and your responsibilities under the law. Its purpose is to provide clear and helpful advice to you. Any employee who has difficulty in meeting any of the standards noted in the Code should contact their Line Manager, Employee Relations Advisors (link to Hub contact details) or Trade Union Officials (link to Hub contact details) can also be asked for advice. It is important to use good judgement in everything you do and to ask for help if you are ever unsure about the right course of action.
- 1.6 There are a number of Council wide and service level policies and procedures which provide more detail on expected practice and conduct. Council Wide policies are referred to at the end of this document. In addition to this, a number of professions engaged by the Council also require their members to adhere to professional codes of practice; e.g. the Scottish Social Services Codes of Practice (SSSC), GTCS the Code of Professionalism and Conduct (CoPAC), the GTCS Student Teacher Code and Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA). The Council expects the required standards to be upheld by employees falling under these provisions, However, it is for these actual bodies to determine whether employees/former employees meet the standards set by them. This code is intended to complement all of these requirements and does not replace them.

- 1.7 As far as possible, you should also comply with the Code where you are appointed as a representative of the Council to any external board/organisation.
- 1.8 Importantly, the Code also provides you with guidance about your rights and duties at work. It is important for you to note that any breach of the Employee Code of Conduct and/or relevant professional codes may lead to disciplinary action.
- 1.9 The Local Government Ombudsman will use the National Code as a benchmark of good practice where a complaint of maladministration has been made.
- 1.10 The Council also has a Scheme of Delegation to Officials and Scheme of Proper Officer Appointments to ensure that the business of the Council is conducted within the law and proper standards, that money is safeguarded and properly accounted for and is used in such a way as to secure and demonstrate Best Value.

2 Seven Principles of Public Life

- 2.1 The Code incorporates “The Seven Principles of Public Life”. These were identified by the Nolan Committee on Standards in Public Life for all public sector employees. These are listed below, altered slightly to place them in a local government context.

Selflessness:

You should not take decisions which will result in any financial or other benefit to yourself, your family, or your friends. Decisions should be based solely on the Council’s best interests.

Integrity

You should not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to an individual or an organisation which might influence you in your work with the Council. This means that you must never take any money or gift that could be thought of as a bribe for you to give a better level of service to that person or organisation.

Objectivity

Any decisions which you make in the course of your work with the Council, including making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits, must be based solely on merit.

Accountability

You are accountable to the Council as your employer. The Council, in turn, is accountable to the public.

Openness

You should be as open as possible in all the decisions and actions that you take. You should give reasons for your decisions and should not restrict information unless this is clearly required by Council policy or by the law.

Honesty

You have a duty to declare any private interests which might affect your work with the Council.

Leadership

If you are a manager, you should promote and support these principles by your leadership and example.

3 Personal Conduct

- 3.1 The Council expects the highest standards of personal conduct from its employees, both within and outwith the workplace. The public image of the Council is enhanced or diminished by the conduct of its employees. Employees should be aware that they are responsible for the actions they take and the decisions they make as part of their employment. They should work within the law and within Council policy and be aware that their actions may be scrutinised.
- 3.2 The Council's Disciplinary Procedures and Code of Practice provide guidance on what may be considered conduct and gross misconduct. Misconduct is generally conduct (behaviours, actions, attitudes) which breaks one or more rules. This could relate to Council policy or external standards (e.g. Health and Safety, professional codes of practice) for example:

- Timekeeping
- Absence
- Health and safety
- Use of organisation facilities
- Discrimination, bullying and harassment

Gross misconduct is generally misconduct which is so serious that disciplinary action could result in summary dismissal (dismissal without notice and without pay in lieu of notice). This usually relates to:

- Theft or fraud
- Physical violence or bullying
- Deliberate and serious damage to property
- Serious misuse of an organisation's property or name
- Deliberately accessing internet sites containing pornographic, offensive or obscene material
- Serious insubordination
- Unlawful discrimination or harassment
- Bringing the organisation into serious disrepute
- Serious incapability at work brought on by alcohol or drugs
- Causing loss, damage or injury through serious negligence
- A serious breach of health and safety rules
- A serious breach of confidence

3.3 In pursuing interests outside your Council employment, you must conduct yourself in a manner that will not bring your employment or the Council into disrepute as this may have a bearing on your employment with the Council.

3.4 If you are charged or convicted of a criminal offence you must inform your Executive Director immediately. Please see the section on Criminal Offences elsewhere in this document for further information.

4 Conflicts of Interest

4.1 As a Council employee you must not allow any private interest to influence your decisions at work and you must not use your position to further your own interests or the interests of others who do not have a right to benefit under the Council's policies.

- 4.2 You may have a private interest which relates to the work of the Council. That interest may be a financial one or one which a member of the public might reasonably think could influence your judgement. In addition, close family members or people living in your household may have financial interests in the work of the Council. All such interests must be declared to your line manager.
- 4.3 You must ensure that where a direct or indirect interest and/or conflict arises, you declare your interest to your line manager and consider with your manager whether you will withdraw from any subsequent discussion on the issue in question.
- 4.4 During the hours of service required by your employment, you must devote your whole time and energies to your Council duties. With regard to your Council employment you are not permitted to receive any financial payment or benefit not specified in your contractual terms.
- 4.5 If you are a member of an organisation or a club, and membership might result in a conflict of interest in relation to any aspect of your work with the Council, you must declare this membership to your line manager. This applies equally to membership of organisations or clubs which are not open to the public.

5 Criminal Offences

- 5.1 If you are charged or convicted of any criminal offence you must inform your Executive Director immediately.
- 5.2 Any employee charged with or convicted of a criminal offence or whose name is placed on the lists held by the Scottish Government of those disqualified from working with children or adults at risk must advise their Executive Director immediately. This requirement applies whether the listing is provisional or not and there should be no unreasonable delay in notification by the employee to the Council.
- 5.3 The Council will consider whether any action is necessary under the Council's Code of Disciplinary Procedures dependent on the nature of the charge, conviction or listing and the nature of the employment within the Council. The Council may take disciplinary action prior to the outcome of a court case.
- 5.4 See also section - Recruitment & Other Employment matters for information on Criminal Convictions and their impact on recruitment decisions.

6 Dress Code and Appearance

- 6.1 Many Council employees provide valuable front line services and are therefore in regular contact with service users, other agencies and the public. In effect, they represent the public image of Argyll and Bute Council.
- 6.2 The Council requires employees to adopt certain dress requirements which are appropriate for the type of work they do. The Council recognises and embraces the diversity of cultures and beliefs of its employees and that this may require them to adopt certain dress codes. The Council further accepts that reasonable adjustments must be made for disabled employees, and this may relate to dress codes as well.
- 6.3 Council Services will advise employees of any specific requirements regarding personal appearance and dress standards and requirements to wear Personal Protective Equipment. Generally however, you are expected to keep to the following standards:
- Employees must show their identification when conducting duties out with the office areas e.g. on home visits. Unless agreed with their line manager for specific situations, name badges, where supplied, will be worn at all times.
 - Corporate wear, where provided, will be worn as required.
 - Personal protective equipment and clothing provided for an employee's safety should be worn as appropriate to the type of work being undertaken.
 - Employees working in a professional capacity representing the Council should be dressed as appropriate to the professional service that they are delivering.
 - Political symbols, offensive images or messages/slogans must not be worn or displayed.

7. Gifts, Hospitality and Services

- 7.1 Generally no employee should accept the offer of gifts, hospitality or services from any service user, supplier/contractor or member of the public other than where it is of token value e.g. pens, diaries or small tokens of gratitude
- 7.2 If you are given a gift or offer of hospitality or service which you are unable to accept then you must politely explain your requirement to adhere to this Code
- 7.3 You must not accept personal gifts, loans, reward or advantage for doing or not doing anything or showing favour or disfavour in the course of your employment. It is important to note that it is a criminal offence to do so.

- 7.4 You should not accept repeated hospitality or frequent personal gifts from the same person or organisation.
- 7.5 All cash or monetary gifts must be respectfully refused, explaining your requirement to adhere to this Code. If the individual insists then alternatives may be suggested such as charitable donations.
- 7.6 If you know or suspect that you may be a beneficiary of a service user's will, you must notify your line manager and advice must be sought from Legal and Regulatory Support. The same applies if you are approached to be a witness or executor of a service user's will.
- 7.7 You should only accept offers to attend social or sporting events where these are clearly part of the life of the community, or where the Council would be expected to be represented and with approval from your Executive Director.
- 7.8 If through the course of your work you require to arrange or host a hospitality event you must follow these same principles and the event must be proportionate to the circumstances and be mindful of value for money principles.
- 7.9 When attending hospitality events you must remember that you are there as an ambassador of the Council and conduct yourself appropriately.
- 7.10 If you are making a visit to inspect equipment, vehicles, land or property you must ensure that the Council pays for the costs of these visits to avoid compromising subsequent purchasing decisions.

8 Relationships

8.1 Employees, Workers and Others

- 8.1.1 During the course of your work you must always communicate in an appropriate, open, accurate, constructive and straightforward way. You must show respect for others and you must not use offensive language.
- 8.1.2 The Council is committed to equality and diversity and therefore you must be inclusive and respectful to others.

8.2 The Public

- 8.2.1 You may have contact with members of the public as users of services, clients or citizens. You must always be courteous, efficient, impartial and helpful. You must deal fairly, equitably and consistently with each member of the public.

8.3 Pupils, Students and Service Users

- 8.3.1 Many Council employees have contact with service users, pupils and/or students on a regular basis as part of their employment. Staff engaged in these roles must ensure that they always communicate in an appropriate, open, accurate and straightforward way.
- 8.3.2 These staff are reminded of their Professional Codes of Practice e.g. the Scottish Social Services Codes of Practice (SSSC) and GTCS the Code of Professionalism and Conduct (CoPAC).
- 8.3.3 You must build and foster positive relationships with service users acting and behaving in a way that develops a culture of trust and respect for self and others. It is important that you recognise and use responsibly the power and authority you have when working with pupils/students/service users.
- 8.3.4 Close personal familiarity between employees and service users can affect impartiality and must be avoided. Any existing relationship, or one that develops, which may impact on the work you do or may possibly be perceived by others negatively as such must be discussed with your line manager. You must not form inappropriate relationships with service users/pupils/students. You must maintain appropriate professional boundaries and avoid improper contact.
- 8.3.5 You must be mindful that the internet and social media can quickly blur the professional boundary between yourself and pupils/students/service users. You must be alert to the risk that actions which might, on the face of it, seem quite innocent, but can be misunderstood and misconstrued by others. You must avoid inappropriate communication (including via social media) with service users/pupils/students and about them. Particularly you should not use personal social media accounts for communications relating to your employment.
- 8.3.6 Generally you must be mindful of your actions and not behave while in or outside work, in a way which would bring your suitability to work in the role into question.
- 8.3.7 You have a duty to raise any concern which you may have about the behaviour of any colleague or other person in connection with a child or vulnerable adult, using the appropriate procedures in place.

8.4 Elected Members

- 8.4.1 Both Councillors and employees are public servants and therefore they are indispensable to one another. Employees are responsible to the Council and they provide support and advice to the elected members and carry out the Council's work under the direction and control of the Council, their Committees and Subcommittees.
- 8.4.2 Mutual respect between Councillors and employees is essential to good local government. Close personal familiarity between individual Councillors and employees can damage the relationship and compromise the governance of the Council and should be avoided.
- 8.4.3 You must not approach Councillors on employment matters and Councillors via their own code should decline to discuss such issues. Employment matters should be raised either with your manager, Human Resources or your Trade Union representative.

8.5 Contractors/ Suppliers:

- 8.5.1 Current or previous business or private relationships with external contractors must be disclosed to your line manager and the Procurement, Commercial and Contract Management Team as per the Council Contract Standing Orders and Procurement Manual where you engage or supervise contractors.
- 8.5.2 Employees who engage or supervise contractors or have any other official relationship with contractors must familiarise themselves with the Council's Contract standing orders and financial regulations and must ensure that they are fully complied with. Advice must be sought regarding the Contract Standing Orders, Procurement Manual and/or the Financial Regulations where required at the earliest opportunity.
- 8.5.3 You must be open fair and transparent in your dealings with contractors, sub-contractors and suppliers. If you are involved in the tendering process you must follow the Council's procedures and rules about tenders and contracts.
- 8.5.4 You must notify the Council's Procurement, Commercial and Contract Management Team if you have any personal financial interest, whether direct or indirect, in a contract that has been, or is proposed to be, entered into by the Council of which you are / have become aware as per the Council Contract Standing Orders and Procurement Manual. This will require you to complete a declaration to confirm that you do not have a conflict of interest using an evaluator declaration form.

- 8.5.5 If you have access to confidential information on tenders or costs for either internal or external contractors you must not disclose that information to any unauthorised individual or organisation.
- 8.5.6 Orders and contracts must be awarded in a manner consistent with the Council's Standing Orders and Procurement Manual which will assess suppliers' competency in an open, fair and transparent manner consistent with procurement regulations.

9. Rights as a Citizen

- 9.1 As a citizen, you are entitled to express your views about the Council, provided you do not make use of any confidential information gained through your work with the Council.
- 9.2 Employees in a politically restricted post should be careful not to speak in public in support of a particular political party.
- 9.3 You must not, in your work capacity criticise the Council or any of its members or officers or service users either through the media, social media or at a public meeting, or in any written communication with members of the public.
- 9.4 As a citizen, you are entitled to raise with your Councillor any complaint which you have about the services of the Council. If your complaint concerns any aspect of your work with the Council, however, you must make use of the Council's Grievance Procedures or raise the matter through your Trade Union.

10 Fair and Reasonable Treatment at Work

- 10.1 You are entitled to expect fair and reasonable treatment from your colleagues, managers and from Councillors. You are also expected to treat others fairly and reasonably.
- 10.2 You are expected to forge and maintain professional relationships with colleagues, managers, Councillors and service users based on mutual respect.
- 10.3 If you feel that you have been unfairly treated or have been discriminated against, you are entitled to make use of the appropriate Council procedures.
- 10.4 Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998
 - 10.4.1 There may be rare occasions when you feel that you have been required, by a colleague, a Councillor or a member of the public, or by an organisation, to act in a way which might be illegal, improper or unethical, or which is otherwise in conflict with the principles of this Code of Conduct.

- 10.4.2 In other instances you may have information leading you to believe that an employee, Councillor or other person associated with the Council is behaving unlawfully or in some other improper manner.
- 10.4.3 The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 provides a process for employees to raise these concerns. Employees may report the matter to their line manager, a more senior manager in their Service or their Executive Director. If you feel you cannot raise the matter within your Service, it may be raised with the Executive Director (Monitoring Officer) who acts as the Council's monitoring officer for this process.
- 10.4.4 Once the matter is reported and following consultations, as appropriate, with the Chief Executive or other Senior Officers of the Council, you will be advised what action will be taken.
- 10.4.5 The Council recognises that it will sometimes be very difficult for employees to disclose their concerns, especially if they relate to fellow employees. Employees are assured, however, that they will not be penalised in any way for bringing forward genuine concerns even if they relate to events which occurred some time ago. Only if allegations proved to be malicious would any action under the Council's Code of Disciplinary Procedures be taken against the employee raising them.
- 10.4.6 The Council also recognises that employees will wish to feel that their concerns can be raised in a confidential manner. Your initial contact will always be dealt with in the strictest confidence and discussed only with other relevant persons for the purposes of seeking advice.
- 10.4.7 Employees must understand, however that the information or concerns you express may lead to you becoming involved in a number of processes, including a criminal investigation and/or the Council's Code of Disciplinary Procedures. In these circumstances, it may not be possible to guarantee anonymity to employees. You will, however be given as much support as possible throughout such processes.
- 10.4.8 Any employee considering making a disclosure out with the Council, e.g. to the press, should be aware that they may not automatically be protected by the Act. Before doing this, in their own interest, they should seek advice from their Trade Union or a legal adviser.

11 Fraud and Corruption

- 11.1 We expect all people and organisations who are in any way associated with us to be honest and fair in their dealings with us and our clients and customers. We expect our members and employees to lead by example in these matters.
- 11.2 Our Ethical Framework, or internal rules, for members and employees set out an approach to work that is both honest and fair are based on the 7 Nolan Principles outlined at the beginning of this document. Members and employees must act in line with the Ethical Framework at all times.
- 11.3 Our employees have an essential and integral part to play in dealing with fraud and corruption and we will encourage our staff and members to inform us if they suspect a case of fraud.
- 11.4 Any employee discovered to have perpetrated a benefits fraud with the Council or any other public agency may also face action under the Disciplinary Procedures and Code of Practice which may lead to dismissal.
- 11.5 It is a serious criminal offence for you to corruptly receive or give any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage for doing or not doing anything, or for showing favour or disfavour to any person, in the course of your work with the Council.

12 Openness and Disclosure of Information

- 12.1 The Council endeavours to ensure that its decision-making process is as transparent and open as possible and that the public is provided with clear and accessible information about how it operates. It also has a complaints procedure in place for the public to use when things go wrong.
- 12.2 There are, however, exceptions to the principle of openness where confidentiality is involved, and information may be withheld if, for example, it would compromise a right of personal or commercial confidentiality. You must be aware of which information is open and that which is not, and act accordingly. If in doubt about any aspect of this provision you must seek advice from your manager or immediate supervisor. You must also ensure you adhere to requirements detailed in the Council's Data Protection Policy and Data Protection and Information Security Handbook.

- 12.3 During the course of your work, you are likely to have access to information that is sensitive, private and confidential. You must recognise the importance of confidentiality. Unless required by law; you must not disclose information concerning any member of staff, councillor, service user or customer's private affairs to any person not employed by the Council and/or to any person not reasonably entitled to know. You must first obtain express consent from the individual and/or their guardian and/or the relevant line manager explaining your reasons for the disclosure. It is a breach of trust to use confidential information for personal advantage or the advantage of anyone known to you.
- 12.4 You must not pass on any confidential knowledge or information you may have gained during your work with the Council
- 12.5 It is accepted that under the Public Interest Disclosure Act, employees can raise certain matters publicly, after they have exhausted internal procedures. See section – Public Interest Disclosure Act 1993.
- 12.6 You may wish to attend public meetings and want to express views and opinions on a wide range of topics. It is important to make it clear in your communication that these views are personal and not given as a council employee. Please think about whether your actions at those meetings may impact on you as an employee, on your colleagues within and out with your service area, our councillors and/or our customers.
- 12.7 It should be noted that trade unions are not third parties and have the right of access to certain types of information subject to agreed data sharing agreements.
- 12.8 The above principles do not apply where there is a legal duty to provide information.
- 12.9 All confidential information and equipment you hold due to your employment must be returned to the Council before the end of your employment, or if that employment ends without notice, immediately after its end.
- 12.10 The Council is subject to certain legislation that governs its use and disclosure of information. These include:
- Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulations 2016/679 (GDPR)

The right of access to personal information held by the Council whether an employee or a service user/ member of the public is governed by the DPA. The DPA places strict requirements on the Council in respect of the security of information held, how it is used and when it may be disclosed. Again advice on the DPA may be accessed on the Council's intranet and employees should seek the advice of their Line Manager to ensure DPA requests are recorded and processed according to the legal requirements.

- The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA)

FOISA introduces a general right of access to information held by the Council unless it falls within the provisions of a series of exemptions. Additionally the Council maintains a Publications Scheme which sets out all the information it publishes, how it can be accessed and whether any charge applies. Details of FOISA and what actions to take when you receive a FOISA information request are held on the Council's intranet. Employees should seek the advice of their Line Manager in respect of FOISA to ensure it is recorded and processed according to the legal requirements.

- Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations (EIRS)

The right of access to environmental information is governed by the EIRS. Again advice may be accessed on the Council's intranet and employees should seek the advice of their Line Manager to ensure EIRS requests are recorded and processed according to the legal requirements.

13 Contact with the Media

13.1 The general policy of Argyll and Bute Council is that all contact with the media should only take place where this has been authorised by the Council. The Communications Team deals with all contact with press and media and any approaches or enquiries should be directed there in the first instance.

13.2 Any exception to this policy must be discussed and agreed with the appropriate Executive Director.

13.3 Where an accredited Trade Union official has contact with the media in relation to an employment issue they must be clear that they are communicating as a trade union representative and not as an employee.

14 Social Media

- 14.1 Detailed guidance on the use of Social Media can be found in the 'Social Media Policy' or by contacting the Communications Team. Employees must ensure they adhere to the Council's Social Media Policy and where relevant:
- 14.2 The General Teaching Council provides very clear guidance for teachers on the use of e-mail and internet sites in the Code of Professionalism and Conduct (CoPAC), the GTCS Student Teacher Code and the GTCS Professional Guidance on the Use of Electronic Communication and Social Media.
- 14.3 The Scottish Social Services Council provides similar guidance for Social Service Workers on Using Social Media.
- 14.4 The Council allows employees to represent the organisation on social media platforms where specific written authorisation from the appropriate Head of Service is in place.
- 14.5 Where you require to access and interact through internet sites in the course of your duties you must ensure that it is clear that you are doing so as part of your Council duties. You must ensure all communication is professional and in line with this and other Council policies and any professional codes of practice that may apply.
- 14.6 When using social media websites and chat forums on a personal basis, you must consider carefully any reference you make to any aspect of your employment to ensure your communication could not bring you in breach of this and other Council policies. You must ensure you do not communicate on these websites in a way that may be detrimental to any customer, pupil, employee, Councillor or the Council.

15 Use of Resources

- 15.1 You and your colleagues serve the public, and you must remember this principle when you use Council equipment, materials and resources, in order to ensure value for money.
- 15.2 You must take proper care of property belonging to the Council, which is within your control or possession. Any deliberate or negligent failure to take proper care of Council property will be viewed as misconduct and will be addressed in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures.
- 15.3 You may make use of the internet and email services as part of your work in accordance with the IT Acceptable Use Policy, but you must not use these systems to break the law, break Council policy or in any way cause distress, harassment or harm to anyone.

- 15.4 Personal mobile telephones may be used for private purposes during working hours, but this use must be kept to a minimum, be reasonable and in no way interfere with your work unless in case of emergency e.g. unexpected changes required to caring arrangements of dependents.
- 15.5 You must not use Council equipment, materials or resources for personal use unless you have written approval. An example of permitted use would be the use of resources for personal development or study associated with your role in the Council. In such circumstances all reasonable care should be exercised with the equipment.
- 15.6 Council resources must not be used in connection with any other outside work undertaken by the employee.
- 15.7 Whilst the Council permits some personal use of IT equipment at their workplace e.g. access to internet, this should not affect their work and should only be used in accordance with the IT Acceptable Use Policy when the employee is appropriately clocked out on an unpaid break. Employees should be aware that telephone, email and internet usage can be monitored.
- 15.8 All Council equipment and resources must be returned to the Council at the end of your employment.

16.1 Staff appointments

- 16.1.1 The Council has a Guide to Recruitment and you are expected to follow this policy (copies are available from Customer Support Services and on the Hub). All appointments must be made on the basis of merit.
- 16.1.2 If you are involved in the recruitment and selection process, and have any kind of relationship which might affect your ability to be impartial, that relationship must be declared to your line manager. The same procedure must be followed in other HR procedures such as grievance or disciplinary procedures or job evaluation.
- 16.1.3 You must not canvass a Councillor or another colleague, either directly or indirectly, to secure your own appointment or promotion, or the appointment or promotion of another person. If you have been approached by an applicant, another colleague, a Councillor or any other person, you must report the matter to your Line Manager or the Head of Customer Support Services.

16.2 Criminal Records

16.2.1 It is the Council's view that; having a criminal record will not necessarily debar an applicant from working with or on behalf of the Council. This will depend on the nature of the position, together with the circumstances and background of the offence(s)

16.3 Professional qualifications, registrations and conduct

16.3.1 If your employment with the Council is in a post which requires you to either be registered with a statutory and/or professional organisation, to hold membership of a professional body or hold any other qualification, it is your duty to ensure you are able to comply with the relevant obligation, including maintaining registration with that body. You may be requested to provide evidence of compliance to your manager. You must also comply with any duty you have to inform your professional body of a matter which may impact on your registration or membership. You must inform your line manager of the matter too.

16.3.2 You must ensure that the relevant code of practice is followed during the course of your duties, this includes formal reporting to the professional body on any matter where there is a duty to do so.

16.4 Political Neutrality

16.4.1 The public expects you to carry out your duties in a politically neutral way, and this must be respected by Councillors. The political activities of a small number of employees are "politically restricted" under the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and they will have been advised of this restriction.

16.4.2 You must serve the corporate interests of the Council and all Councillors collectively, regardless of their political outlook. The Chief Executive and senior officers have ultimate responsibility to ensure that the policies of the Council are implemented.

16.4.3 Whether or not your post is politically restricted, you must follow every lawful expressed policy of the Council and must not allow your personal or political opinions to interfere with your work. You must not display political slogans in the course of your work and must not distribute political information / material using Council resources, including time.

16.4.4 You must implement the policies of the Council irrespective of your personal views. If you are asked by a Councillor to provide assistance with a matter which is clearly party political or which does not have a clear link with the work of the Council, you should politely refuse and inform the Councillor that you are referring the matter to your Line Manager.

16.4.5 Some employees will have a close working relationship with Councillors of the majority political group (or groups) which form the administration of the Council. Political groups may sometimes seek advice from Council employees and in such circumstances the following principles should be followed:

- a. The office bearers (of the group) must first approach the Chief Executive;
- b. The office bearers must advise the Chief Executive what type of advice they are seeking;
- c. The Chief Executive will decide whether attendance at a meeting is appropriate and which employee or employees should attend;
- d. Once the employee has given the advice to the group, the employee must leave the meeting before any decision is made.
- e. Strict confidentiality must be observed by the employee. The discussion in one political group should not be disclosed to another political group or to any member of such a group

16.5 Paid employment outside the Council

16.5.1 The Council will normally allow you to undertake paid employment outside the Council unless there is a clear conflict of interest, or it is likely to have an adverse effect on the work carried out for the Council, or it is likely to have an adverse effect on the individual employee or would bring you in breach of the Working Time Regulations 1998. Further guidance on the Working Time Directive can be found on the hub or by contacting the HR Employee Relations Team.

16.5.2 If you want to undertake paid employment, including self-employment, outside the Council, you must first inform your line manager. If your line manager agrees this is appropriate written approval should be obtained and sent to HR.

- 16.5.3 For Executive Managers/Directors written permission must be sought from the Chief Executive. The Chief Executive must seek advice/guidance from the Leader of the Council before undertaking additional paid employment.
- 16.5.3 Where the Council has agreed that an employee can undertake other duties and the Council's business changes causing a conflict of interest, or where it becomes apparent that the work out with is having a detrimental effect that wasn't previously identified, the Council reserves the right to withdraw any previous approval given.
- 16.5.4 It is anticipated that in most cases where you have one or more posts of employment that when unfit to attend work due to poor health then you would be unable to attend any employment. If however due to the nature of the ailment and / or the work involved you believe you may be fit to work in another job then you must seek the approval of your respective line manager(s) and retain evidence of this approval. Occupational health advice may also need to be sought.
- 16.5.5 If you are signed as unfit to work in one post (post 1) but you have approval to work in your other post (post 2) you must not work in post 2 during the normal working hours of post 1. This is applicable to employment both within and out with the Council.
- 16.5.6 This is also applicable to employees who have been suspended from work. In this situation, employees must not work in post 2 during the normal working hours of the post (post 1) which they have been suspended from.
- 16.5.7 Employees should not seek to gain business in the course of carrying out your Council duties e.g. by arranging to carry out private work.
- 16.5.8 These arrangements do not however prevent you from making your professional skills available to voluntary/charitable organisations of which you are a member/supporter or from holding office in such organisations, subject to you declaring, where relevant, your membership of such an organisation in accordance with the rules on "Conflicts of Interest" referred to above.
- 16.5.9 You are not permitted however to make use of the Council's equipment, materials or resources for the benefit of a voluntary/charitable organisation unless this is approved in accordance with the Council's procedures
- 16.5.10 You must not make or contribute to any publication, broadcast, speech or lecture where you would use official Council information without the written approval of the Chief Executive. Where such approval is obtained, any commission, fee or other payment made in respect of lectures, broadcasts, etc.

given within normal working time (excluding out of pocket expenses) will be paid to the Council by arrangement with the Executive Director (Monitoring Officer). Otherwise, and still subject to approval, time taken for these activities must be set against the employee's annual leave. However, the fees may be retained in these circumstances. Fees may be retained by the employee for any lectures, broadcasts, etc. out with normal working hours.

17 Health, Safety and Welfare

- 17.1 The Council accepts and will meet its statutory obligations by making every reasonable effort to provide a safe and healthy working environment.
- 17.2 That all reasonable steps are taken to ensure that all activities are carried out with due regard to the Council's safety policies and standards.
- 17.3 All employees are expected to know and to follow all appropriate health and safety requirements. It is the responsibility of managers to arrange all appropriate training.

18 Risk Management

- 18.1 Employees must not place the Council in a position where it has uncontrolled risk. All employees have a duty to comply with the Council's Health and Safety and Risk Management Policies.
- 18.2 Employees in charge of risk registers must ensure, through quarterly risk review, that the Council's corporate aims and objectives, and assets, are protected and any uncontrolled risk exposures are highlighted. Furthermore every employee has a duty to ensure that financial loss, disruption to services and reputation damage to the Council are avoided.

19 Alcohol and Drugs at work

- 19.1 The Council is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of its employees and those affected by its activities. It also acknowledges substance misuse as a health issue that affects an employee's performance, behaviour and attendance as well as impacting on relationships at work and home. The Council encourages staff who have a dependency on alcohol or drugs to seek help through the provisions of its separate Addictions Policy.
- 19.2 However, it is important to realise that the performance and image of the Council must not be undermined as a result of an employee's behaviour or related lifestyle induced by alcohol and/or drugs. Therefore:
- 19.2.1 You must not consume alcohol and/or misuse drugs or other substances during working hours (including breaks) whether within or outside the work place (for example when driving as part of work), or prior to arrival at work, where any intoxicating effect endures, or might reasonably be expected to endure, into working hours.
- 19.2.2 The use of Council vehicles, equipment and machinery is prohibited when an employee is under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs or prescribed medication that may affect their ability to drive or operate safely. Employees should advise their Line Manager if in doubt to allow for a risk assessment to be carried out.
- 19.2.3 When on standby duties you must ensure that you are not unfit due to alcohol and / or substance misuse in case you are required to go to work.
- 19.2.4 You must not take alcohol and / or substances into your workplace with an intention to misuse these.
- 19.3 In the least employee who does attend work under the influence of alcohol or drugs should understand clearly that they are liable to face action under the Council's Disciplinary Procedures and Code of Practice that may lead to dismissal.
- 19.4 The Council has an Addictions Policy and access to a confidential Employee Assistance Programme to assist employees with addiction problems.

20 Equality and Diversity

- 20.1 The Council's Equality and Diversity Policy stresses its approach to tackling discriminatory practices and prejudice. Regardless of personal opinion, the Council expects all employees to behave appropriately to one another and to service users and the general public. Bullying, harassment, intimidatory or discriminatory behaviour or language is unacceptable in any form.

- 20.2 Argyll and Bute Council is committed to ensuring equality of opportunity and to combating discrimination. The Council has a duty under the Equality Act 2010 and the associated Public Sector Equality Duty to have due regard to the need to:
- a) Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Equality Act 2010
 - b) Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it
 - c) Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and those who do not share it.
- 20.3 The Council recognises those protected characteristics identified in the Equality Act 2010:
- Age
 - Gender reassignment
 - Disability
 - Race
 - Religion or Belief
 - Sex
 - Sexual Orientation
 - Pregnancy and maternity
 - Marriage and Civil Partnership
- 20.4 The Council's policy position on equalities is set out in the Equality and Diversity Policy, the Equalities Mainstreaming Report and the Dignity at Work Policy.
- 20.5 The Council will promote an ethos in which self-respect and respect for others are of the utmost importance. All individuals will be valued equally and therefore be given every opportunity to fulfil their maximum potential in society. The Council insists that those who suffer discrimination, whether direct or indirect, receive fair treatment and adequate remedies and affirms that it will address appropriately all sources of discrimination.
- 20.6 The Council has developed a range of employment policies to enable the Council to have the right people with the right skills in the right place at the right time to deliver excellent services across Argyll and Bute. Any instances of discrimination, harassment or victimisation at work will be viewed as a serious matter.

21 Raising Concerns/Grievances

- 21.1 If you have a question, problem or concern or if you think you have been unfairly treated or discriminated against, in most cases your line manager should be your first point of contact. They are likely to be the best position to understand your concern and take the appropriate action. If you are uncomfortable speaking with your line manager or if you have already shared a concern and feel it's not being addressed appropriately, then you can contact a more senior manager or HR&OD for advice. You may also consider formally addressing your concern through the Council's Grievance Procedures or Dignity at Work Procedure.
- 21.2 When you report concerns, you help the Council to handle issues properly, fix problems before they occur and remedy situations that have already happened. You also help to build trust with each other and with our service users and the community.

22 Disciplinary Matters

- 22.1 Any employee who has a grievance resulting from the implementation and interpretation of this Code should seek resolution through the Council's grievance procedure.
- 22.2 Any employee who fails to act in accordance with this Code may be subject to disciplinary proceedings.
- 22.3 Employees will not be subjected to disciplinary action or to any other detriment simply because their complaint is not upheld.
- 22.4 The Council will not tolerate retaliation against anyone who makes a good faith report about possible misconduct or assists in an investigation of misconduct.
- 22.5 Employees should never knowingly make a false accusation, lie to investigators or refuse to cooperate in an investigation.

(2) Section 2, Local Government and Housing Act 1989

4. This Protocol provides information on how those statutory requirements will be discharged in the Council.

5. The current responsibilities of the Monitoring Officer role rest with the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services who aims to discharge the statutory responsibilities in a manner that enhances the overall reputation of the Council. In doing so, the Executive Director will provide appropriate and robust advice to Members so as to protect and safeguard, so far as is reasonably possible, Members and Officers, from legal difficulties and possible misconduct whilst acting in their official capacities.

6. The Monitoring Officer will be supported in exercising this role by such Depute Monitoring Officers as are appointed by him from time to time.

Part F (4)

7. Generally, the Monitoring Officer's ability to discharge these duties and responsibilities will depend, to a large extent, on Members and Officers:

- (a) complying with the Council's Constitution and the law (including any statutory Codes of Conduct. This includes the Code of Conduct for Councillors);
- (b) complying with any guidance issued, from time to time, by the Council and/or advice of the Monitoring Officer;
- (c) making lawful and proportionate decisions;
- (d) adhering to the Council's approved procedures and having due regard to approved policies; and
- (e) not acting in manner that might bring the Council, their office or profession into disrepute.

8. Good working relations with Members and Officers will assist greatly in the discharge of the statutory responsibilities of the Monitoring Officer as will early discussion of any issues well in advance of any formal Council business (including Committees and sub-committees). Members and Officers should, therefore, co-operate fully with the Monitoring Officer (and staff).

9. The Monitoring Officer is available for Members and Officers to consult on any issues relating to the Council's legal powers, possible maladministration, impropriety or general advice on the Councillors' Code of Conduct.

CORPORATE RIGHTS OF THE MONITORING OFFICER

10. In order to encourage good decision making and high standards of conduct amongst officers and elected members, the Monitoring Officer expects to be alerted at an early stage by Members and Officers as to any legal or procedural issues about which they may have concerns including, in particular, issues about the legal powers of the Council, ethical standards, probity, propriety, procedural or other governance issues that have arisen or that are likely to arise.

11. In order to perform the statutory role, the Monitoring Officer and staff shall:

- (a) have advance notice (including receiving Agendas, Minutes, Reports and related papers) of all relevant meetings of the Council at which a binding decision of the Council may be made at or before the Council, Committee meetings and/or Executive Leadership Team;
- (b) have the right to attend any meeting of the Council (including the right to be heard) before any binding decision is taken by the Council at or before the Council, Committee meetings and/or Executive Leadership Team;
- (c) in carrying out any investigation(s) have unqualified access to any information held by the Council and to any Officer who can assist in the discharge of his functions; and
- (d) have sufficient resources to enable him to address any matters concerning Monitoring Officer functions.

CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITIES OF MONITORING OFFICER

12. The Monitoring Officer will:

Part F (4)

- (a) seek to ensure as far as practicable that the other statutory officers (the Chief Executive as Head of Paid Service and the Chief Finance Officer) are kept up-to date with relevant information regarding any legal, ethical standards, procedural or other governance issues that are likely to (or do) arise;
- (b) report to the Council where required by law following consultation, as far as practicable, with the Chief Executive and Chief Finance Officer where to do so will not compromise his statutory responsibilities;
- (c) report to the Council, as necessary, on the staff, accommodation and resources required to discharge his functions;
- (d) seek to establish effective working relationships with all elected members, in particular those Members who hold positions of responsibility in the Council's political management structure so as to ensure the effective and efficient discharge of Council business;
- (e) maintain and keep up-to-date relevant statutory registers for the declaration of Members' interests, gifts and hospitality;
- (f) give robust advice to Members and Officers;
- (g) be responsible for preparing any training programme for Members on ethical standards and the Councillors' Code of Conduct issues;
- (h) act as the Council's point of contact by the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland and/or the Public Standards Commissioner regarding complaints concerning alleged breaches of the Councillors' Code of Conduct;
- (i) seek to develop good liaison and working relationships with outside bodies relevant to the role of the Monitoring Officer, including the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland and the Standards Commission for Scotland, the Council's external auditor, the Accounts Commission and the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman;
- (j) carry out such investigations as the Chief Executive may determine as relevant to the Monitoring Officer's role;
- (k) obtain, at his discretion, Counsel's opinion or other external specialist legal advice relevant to the Monitoring Officer's role;
- (l) appoint a depute(s) and keep them briefed on any relevant issues that may be required to be dealt with in the absence of the Monitoring Officer.
- (m) receive declarations of acceptance of office of councillor; and
- (n) maintain a list of politically restricted posts within the Council.

THE COUNCILLORS' CODE OF CONDUCT

13. Whilst the Council has a statutory obligation to promote and ensure observance of the Councillors' Code of Conduct, and the Monitoring Officer has a pivotal role to play in discharging that obligation, it is important to note that enforcing compliance with the Code is strictly a matter for the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland who has the power to investigate complaints against councillors.

14. The Monitoring Officer may assist the Commissioner with an investigation by commenting on and providing information on any complaint and making arrangements for interviewing witnesses.

15. The Monitoring Officer may also be involved in the handling of complaints made against Councillors in terms of the Council's own local procedures for dealing with such complaints.

16. The Monitoring officer may refer any alleged breach of the Council's Ethical Framework, as contained in the Council's constitution, to the Council to enable it to consider any such alleged breaches by members in regard to the reporting of any such alleged breach to the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland.

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE (WHISTLEBLOWING) POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Argyll and Bute Council is committed to the highest standards of openness, probity and accountability. These high standards are coupled with a positive approach to enabling employees and others who become aware of wrongdoing, improper conduct or other failures of a substantive nature to bring attention to their concerns. The Council's Public Interest Disclosure Policy is, therefore, designed –

- To set out a process for the investigation of certain disclosures of information which are made in the public interest;
- To provide protection from reprisal or victimisation for individuals who make such disclosures in good faith; and
- Thus to provide a genuine recourse for legitimate representations without encouraging a climate in which they become malicious, trivial or routine.

1.2 There are existing procedures in place which enable employees of the Council to raise a grievance relating to their own employment. The Public Interest Disclosure Policy is designed to deal with matters which fall outwith the scope of the Grievance or Disciplinary Procedures.

2. SCOPE

2.1 In the context of the work of Argyll and Bute Council, a “qualifying disclosure” means any disclosure of information which, in the reasonable belief of the person making the disclosure, tends to show one or more of the following –

- (a) That a criminal offence has been committed, is being committed or is likely to be committed,
- (b) That a person has failed, is failing or is likely to fail to comply with any legal obligation to which he/she is subject,
- (c) That any person has failed, is failing or is likely to fail to comply with any obligation as to their conduct or otherwise imposed on that person by –
 - The Argyll and Bute Council Protocol governing relations between Members and Officers.
 - The Council's Standing Orders, Contract Standing Orders, Procurement Manual or Financial and Security Regulations.
 - The Argyll and Bute Code of Conduct for Officers.

- (d) That the health or safety of any individual has been, is being or is likely to be endangered.
- (e) That the Council has committed, is committing or is likely to commit to a course of action which is unlawful.
- (f) That the Council has taken, is taking, or likely to take a course of action, or there has been a corresponding failure, which is likely to give rise to a finding of maladministration on the part of the Council.
- (g) That information tending to show any matter falling within any of the preceding paragraphs has been, is being or is likely to be deliberately concealed.

A qualifying disclosure is made in accordance with this policy if the person –

- (a) Makes the disclosure in good faith
- (b) Reasonably believes that the information disclosed, and any allegation contained in it, are substantially true
- (c) Does not make the disclosure for purposes of personal gain
- (d) In all the circumstances of the matter, believes it is reasonable for the person to make the disclosure.

3. SAFEGUARDS

3.1 The Council recognises that taking a decision to report a concern of the type covered by this policy can be a difficult one, not least because of the fear of reprisal. The Council makes it clear that it will not tolerate any reprisals under any circumstances and will take action to protect a person who makes a qualifying disclosure.

- 3.2 If a disclosure is made in good faith but is not confirmed by subsequent investigation, no action will be taken against the person making the disclosure. The Council will, however, protect itself, its Members and Employees against malicious allegations and will take appropriate action against any person who makes such an allegation. The Council will also take such reasonable steps which may be open to it to minimise the impact on any of its Members or Employees of an allegation which is either malicious or unfounded.
- 3.3 Nothing in this Policy means that if a person is already the subject of any action or procedure against them (including in the case of employees, disciplinary procedures) that those procedures will necessarily be halted as a result of a disclosure made under this policy.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 4.1 In a culture of openness, and against the Council's stated policy that it will protect a person who may make a disclosure in good faith and in the public interest, and to assist any investigative process, it is clearly desirable that the person who makes a disclosure should be prepared to do so on an attributable basis. The Council will, however, take reasonable steps, but cannot guarantee, to protect the identity of a person who makes a disclosure and does not wish his or her name to be disclosed, subject to the following factors –
- (a) The seriousness and nature of the issues raised
 - (b) The likelihood of confirming any allegation from other attributable sources
 - (c) The need for evidential statements as part of any investigation
 - (d) The credibility of the allegation, and, in all the circumstances, the need to allow a person against whom an allegation is made to test the veracity and substance of it
 - (e) The likelihood, in all the circumstances, of unwarranted reprisals being directed against a person who makes a disclosure.
- 4.2 The Officer conducting the investigation will, however, take all necessary steps to ensure that the name of a person who makes a disclosure is not disclosed to others within the Council except, strictly, on a need to know basis in order to further the due completion of the investigation and the Council's response to it. (See paragraph 5 below).
- 4.3 The Council will not disclose in any public document the name of any person who makes a disclosure, nor will the Council disclose that person's name to any third party outside the Council except –

- Where an offence may have been committed and there is considered to be an obligation to report that to the Police or Procurator Fiscal, or to co-operate with enquiries instituted by the Police or the Fiscal.
- Otherwise where there would be any failure on the part of the Council to comply with any legal obligation on them.

4.4 Allegations expressed anonymously will not normally be considered. In exercising any discretion to consider any anonymous allegation, the factors which will be taken into account are –

- The seriousness and nature of the issues raised
- The credibility of the concerns
- The likelihood of confirming the allegations from other attributable sources

5. DISCLOSURES AND THEIR INVESTIGATION

5.1 As noted earlier, this Policy is designed to provide recourse for legitimate representations to be made about wrongdoing, improper conduct or other failure of a substantive nature. Any person making a disclosure in terms of this Policy should do so to the Council's Monitoring Officer, the Executive Director with responsibility for Legal and Regulatory Support Services. The Monitoring Officer will decide –

- (a) Whether the matter is one which should be dealt with under the Council's Grievance or Disciplinary Procedures, and, if so, will refer the matter to the appropriate Officer.

- (d) In the absence of an investigation in terms of this Policy, what other action, if any, should be taken.

5.2 Notwithstanding and without prejudice to the statutory obligations placed on the Monitoring Officer, for the purposes of this Policy the function of the Monitoring Officer is to investigate a disclosure of information, and any allegation contained in it, relating to any matter contained in paragraph 2.1 of this Policy.

- (b) That no action needs to be taken in respect of the matters which are the subject of the investigation
- (c) That any matter which is the subject of investigation can be remedied by compliance with any recommendations which are made in the report of the investigation
- (d) That there is evidence of a failure on the part of a Councillor in relation to any of the matters referred to in paragraph 2.1 above in which case, with the exception of a matter in respect of which a criminal offence may have been committed, the report of the investigation will be submitted to the Council which will consider what action, if any, should be taken.
- (e) That there is evidence of a failure on the part of a person, who is not a Councillor but has been appointed or co-opted to any Committee or Sub-Committee or Short Life Working Group of the Council, in relation to any of the matters referred to in paragraph 2.1 above in which case, with the exception of a matter in respect of which a criminal offence may have been committed, the report of the investigation will be referred to the Audit and Scrutiny Committee which will consider what action, if any, should be taken.
- (f) That there is evidence of a failure on the part of an Officer of the Council in relation to any matter referred to in paragraph 2.1 above, in which case the report of the investigation will be referred to the Chief Executive who will determine what action, if any, should be taken.
- (g) That there is evidence of a systematic or procedural failure on the part of the Council in relation to any matter referred to in paragraph 2.1 above, in which case the report of the investigation will be referred to the Chief Executive and /or the Council to determine what action, if any, should be taken.
- (h) That otherwise the matters which are the subject of the investigation should be referred to the Council's Audit and Scrutiny Committee.

5.4 For the purpose of conducting an investigation in terms of this Policy, the Monitoring Officer –

- (a) May conduct the investigation personally, or may authorise another person to do so
- (b) May obtain information from such persons and in such manner, and make such enquiries, as she/he thinks fit

- (c) May require any Officer or Member to provide such information or explanation as may be necessary for the purpose of conducting the investigation
 - (d) Must give any person who is the subject of any allegation which is being investigated the opportunity or opportunities to respond to and comment on any allegation and must, in the course of any interview, allow that person to be accompanied by any other person
 - (e) May require any Officer or Member holding or accountable for any document or record (held in any medium) relating to the investigation to give access to such document or record.
 - (f) May, to assist the investigation, obtain advice from any person inside or outside the Council who is qualified to give it.
- 5.5 A copy of any report of any investigation must be given to any Member or Officer of the Council who is the subject of the report before the report is finally disposed of by the Monitoring Officer as set out in paragraph 5.3 above.

6. DECISIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF AUDIT AND SCRUTINY COMMITTEE

- 6.1 The Audit and Scrutiny Committee shall decide whether or not there has been a failure on the part of any person who is the subject of a report in terms of Paragraph 5.3(e), with the exception of a matter in respect of which a criminal offence may have been committed until any criminal proceedings have been disposed of.
- 6.2 Where the Audit and Scrutiny Committee decides that there has been no such failure on the part of any such person it will give notice to that effect to the person concerned.
- 6.3 Where the Audit and Scrutiny Committee decides that there has been such a failure as is mentioned in Paragraph 6.1 above, the Committee must decide, having regard to the Statutory authority or basis on which that person has been nominated, appointed or co-opted, whether the nature of the failure is such that either –
- (a) The Council is to advise the person concerned that there has been a failure on his or her part, and specify the details of that failure; or
 - (b) Submit a report to Council, which report will be considered in public, advising that there has been a failure on the part of such a person concerned, specifying the details of that failure, which report may include a recommendation that any one of the following courses of action should be taken by the Council –

- (i) That the person concerned be afforded the opportunity of apologising to the Council in respect of the failure; or
 - (ii) That the person concerned should be the subject of a resolution of censure expressing the Council's disappointment that there has been a failure on the part of such a person concerned; or
 - (iii) That the Council remove the person concerned from any one or more positions to which the person was appointed by the Council or any of its Committees or Sub-Committees, and/or that the person be removed from membership of any one or more Committee, Sub-Committee, or Short Life Working Group of the Council;

- 6.5 In considering a recommendation in terms of paragraph 6.3(b) the Council will afford an opportunity to the person concerned to make a statement to the Council, and it will not be open to the Council to pass a resolution which would, in respect of the person concerned, be more onerous than the course of action recommended by the Audit and Scrutiny Committee.
