Consultation Responses

Other information

Advice was sought from both the Communities and Partnership Manager and from the Communications Team before commencing the consultation exercise. All advice was followed.

Gaps in evidence

Unknown groups may not have been reached, and further consultation can be undertaken to ensure they have a say in provision requirements.

Section 3: Impact of proposal

Impact on service users:

	Negative	No impact	Positive	Don't know
Protected characteristics:
Age			X
Disability			X
Ethnicity		X
Sex			X
Gender reassignment			X
Marriage and Civil Partnership		X
Pregnancy and Maternity		X
Religion		X
Sexual Orientation			X
Fairer Scotland Duty:

Area deprivation			X
Socio-economic background			X
Communities of place			X
Communities of interest			X

If you have identified any impacts on service users, explain what these will be.

Free period products are available to anyone who needs them. This means that a service will be available irrespective of location, income, gender or sex of the service users. There will be an online ordering provision for islands and those who are unable to access products elsewhere.

If any 'don't know's have been identified, at what point will impacts on these groups become identifiable?

Impact on service deliverers (including employees, volunteers etc):

	Negative	No impact	Positive	Don't know
Protected characteristics:

If you have identified any impacts on service deliverers, explain what these will be.

The initiative is available to anyone who needs products, and a range of delivery partners have already been identified to support the roll out. Further delivers will be identified and included in the provision as it develops.

If any 'don't know's have been identified, at what point will impacts on these groups become identifiable?

How has 'due regard' been given to any negative impacts that have been identified?

Not applicable at this stage.

Section 4: Interdependencies

Is this proposal likely to have any knock-on effects for any other activities carried out by or on behalf of the council?

Yes

Details of knock-on effects identified

--

There will be linkage to education and community buildings such as those managed by Live Argyll and Community Groups. Restocking of products by appropriate staff will be required, as will the display of branding materials to ensure product availability is clear. Further discussions with partners will be required.

Section 5: Monitoring and review

How will you monitor and evaluate the equality impacts of your proposal?

We will carry out user satisfaction surveys to people accessing the products within 12 months of implementation to reassess impact.
