FINDING GRANTS FOR YOUR GROUPS NEEDS - GRANTnet

Every month, Funding Alert includes a portfolio of funding opportunities; but there are many more funds out there. GRANTnet is a straightforward free to use service from GRANTfinder, which can help you to identify suitable funding for your activity or project. It allows community and voluntary groups, sports and other clubs, schools, social enterprises and small businesses to search across a huge range of funding sources.

The main features of this interactive database are as follows:

- Easy-to-use search tool.
- Up-to-date information on over 7,000 grants and other incentives.
- Rapid identification of funding sources specific to need.
- Data sourced from EC and UK Government sources, including Government departments, local authorities, charitable trusts and corporate sponsors.

NEWS

Introducing the Community Funding Toolkit...

What the Community Funding Toolkit is:

The Community Funding Toolkit is a comprehensive guide designed to help community organizations in Argyll and Bute secure funding for their projects.

It provides detailed advice and resources to strengthen project proposals and improve the chances of successful funding applications.

By systematically working through the toolkit, community organizations can create well-planned, compelling funding applications that clearly demonstrate their project's value and potential impact.

How the Toolkit Can Help:

Project Planning: It offers guidance on creating a strong project summary, linking projects to relevant strategies and community needs, and engaging with the community.

Application Preparation: The toolkit includes checklists and detailed sections on clarifying aims, objectives, outputs, and outcomes, as well as developing a project delivery plan and realistic timescales.

Financial Planning: It provides advice on estimating capital costs, income, and expenditure, and creating a clear strategy for raising funds.

Risk Management: The toolkit helps identify potential risks and develop strategies to mitigate them.

Marketing: It offers tips on marketing the project to stakeholders and funders, including creating a marketing plan.

Governance: It emphasizes the importance of good governance and having a skilled board or committee.

Funding Strategy: The toolkit guides users on developing a funding strategy, identifying potential funders, and planning the order of funding applications.

Royal Countryside Fund – Supporting Rural Communities

The UK-wide Supporting Rural Communities grant programme launched on Friday 10th January 2025.

This new differentiated funding will support transformative, community-led initiatives across the UK, unlocking the huge potential for positive change in rural communities. The aim is to support innovative solutions that will “power up, not prop up” communities, inspiring change and encouraging economic vibrancy.

Organisations can apply for grants of up to £25,000 over a period of 24 months to deliver activities along the themes of:

- Keeping young people in the countryside
- Powering up rural communities
- Increasing environmental sustainability
- Building emergency resilience in rural areas.

Support will be focused on isolated rural areas where the activity is required due to a lack of alternative services. Projects must be community led and show that they actively listen to, understand and respond to the needs of their local community. The fund is also looking for community organisations that demonstrate one or more of the following characteristics:

- Working towards a long-term vision
- Facilitating collaboration/connectedness
- Demonstrating innovation.

Deadline: Ongoing

Delivering Capital Projects from Scottish Islands Development Trusts Association Scotland- drop-in series

Development Trusts Association Scotland are running a bi-monthly check-in (1 every 2 months) for Scottish Islands-based community groups to discuss the challenges with building on islands; part of a drop-in event series for Scottish Islands-based community groups to discuss the challenges associated with building on Scottish Islands, share expertise, network, find solutions and suggest policy asks.

The Drop-Ins are informal, and will be facilitated by one of the organising networks and will dive straight into the session's topic. Attendees are encouraged to come prepared with some thoughts and questions for their peers.

Event description

These bi-monthly drop-ins (once every two months) are for Development Trusts Association Scotland (DTAS), Community Land Outer Hebrides (CLOH) and Scottish Islands Federation (SIF) members and are designed as a dedicated forum for Trustees and staff from Scottish Islands-based community groups to exchange, gain advice and support from their peers on the topic of delivering capital projects from Scottish Islands.

Hosted by: DTAS, Facilitated by: DTAS, CLOH, SIF

Topics are as follows:

- Working with consultants and contractors - Wednesday 19th of February, 10am - 11am

Free to Attend

108. Trusthouse Charitable Foundation

Grants are available for small and medium sized local charities and not-for-profit organisations in the UK with a track record of success working to address local issues in communities of extreme urban deprivation or deprived rural areas. Projects will be expected to focus on community support. This could include community transport schemes in Rural locations (with a population of fewer than 10,000 inhabitants in a village/town) in England, Scotland and Wales. Applicant organisations' postcodes must be ranked within the most deprived 50% of the Index of Multiple Deprivation. To check the SIMD ranking of your project area, check on the SIMD website map: <https://simd.scot/#/simd2020/BTTTTFTT/14/-4.7342/56.0089/> and click on the area to see the ranking. The Scottish Index of Multiple Deprivation is a relative measure of deprivation across 6,976 small areas (called data zones). If an area is identified as 'deprived', this can relate to people having a low income but it can also mean fewer resources or opportunities. If the area has a ranking of under 3,488 it should be eligible to apply. Support can be available from your local Community Development Officer contact by email, stating your location:

Communitydevelopment@argyll-bute.gov.uk

- Small grants are available of £2,000 to £10,000 for one year. (Successful applicants can reapply for a further two years. No further applications can be made after the completion of a third grant.)

The amount requested must not be for more than 50% of the total cost of the project. Grant recipients must be able to start spending the grant within three months of the award being made.
