

Argyll and Bute Education Service

Leadership Pathway

The Leadership Pathway aims to:

- Signpost colleagues across Argyll and Bute to a range of Professional Learning opportunities available at local authority, regional and national levels
- Ensure a consistent focus on career long professional development from initial teacher education, through the various career stages to system leadership across the education sector

The Leadership Pathway details Professional Learning and Leadership Programmes at all levels including:

- Professional Learning for Classroom Assistants and Additional Support Needs Assistants
- Argyll and Bute Provisionally Registered Teacher Programme
- Teacher Leadership Programmes - Education Scotland
- Argyll and Bute Middle Leadership Programme
- Argyll and Bute Aspiring to Headship Programme
- Into Headship – Education Scotland
- Argyll and Bute Newly Appointed Head Teacher Programme
- The How of Change – Education Scotland
- Connected and Collaborative Systems Leadership – Education Scotland