GENERAL NOTES

Members of the public are reminded that any letter of representation received on a planning application is considered a public document.

Members of the public should note that any representations received in respect of any application will be made available for public inspection. In terms of the Freedom of Information Act, the same representations will be copied on request. The representations will be published on the Council’s website, although the personal information in the form of signatures, phone numbers and e-mail addresses will be removed.

It should be noted that the author of a representation is solely responsible for its content and accuracy.

Representations that are marked Confidential will be returned to the sender and will not be taken into account when the application is being considered. It should also be noted that anonymous representations will be “shredded” and not taken into account when the application is being considered.

Details of representations received on planning applications can be viewed on the Council’s website at www.argyll-bute.gov.uk.
