FINDING GRANTS FOR YOUR GROUPS NEEDS - GRANTnet

Every month, Funding Alert includes a portfolio of funding opportunities; but there are many more funds out there. GRANTnet is a straightforward free to use service from GRANTfinder, which can help you to identify suitable funding for your activity or project. It allows community and voluntary groups, sports and other clubs, schools, social enterprises and small businesses to search across a huge range of funding sources.

The main features of this interactive database are as follows:

- Easy-to-use search tool.
- Up-to-date information on over 7,000 grants and other incentives.
- Rapid identification of funding sources specific to need.
- Data sourced from EC and UK Government sources, including Government departments, local authorities, charitable trusts and corporate sponsors.

ARGYLL AND BUTE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Argyll and Bute Council has introduced a single Business Funding Enquiry Form (BFEF) to help local businesses access the right funding and support. By completing this form, your enquiry will be shared internally with the relevant Council teams who manage a range of funding opportunities.

Completing a BFEF does not guarantee funding, but it ensures your enquiry is routed to the appropriate team for consideration. You need only complete the BFEF once. Specific application forms will be issued for relevant support.

The form collects key information about your business and project, including:

- Business type, sector, and size
- Funding needs and intended use
- Project stage and timeframe
- Expected impact on jobs, community, or the local economy

BUSINESS AND ENTERPRISE

47. Henry Smith Foundation – Career Ready Fund

Grants are available for registered charities, Community Interest Companies (CICs) and community benefit societies for work that gives young people with learning disabilities meaningful experiences of the world of work. This multi-year funding is for charitable organisations working with young people with learning disabilities within the UK. Organisations need to address the key aims of the fund which are to:

Embed trained job coaches in school settings so young people receive consistent, person-centred employment support.

Provide early, structured vocational profiling and careers preparation, helping young people identify strengths, interests and aspirations.

Create meaningful, well-matched work experiences that give young people exposure to workplaces, rather than generic or tokenistic placements.

Strengthen partnerships between schools, support networks, employers and specialist providers, ensuring support for young people through a joined-up ecosystem.

Build clear pathways into supported internships, employment and paid work.

Grants of £200,000 over four years (£50,000 per year) are available.

Deadline: 02 September 2026 Henry Smith Foundation

48. 10,000 Small Businesses (UK)

119. Royal Countryside Fund – Supporting Rural Communities

The UK-wide Supporting Rural Communities grant programme launched on Friday 10th January 2025.

This new differentiated funding will support transformative, community-led initiatives across the UK, unlocking the huge potential for positive change in rural communities. The aim is to support innovative solutions that will “power up, not prop up” communities, inspiring change and encouraging economic vibrancy. Organisations can apply for grants of up to £25,000 over a period of 24 months to deliver activities along the themes of:

- Keeping young people in the countryside
- Powering up rural communities
- Increasing environmental sustainability
- Building emergency resilience in rural areas.

Support will be focused on isolated rural areas where the activity is required due to a lack of alternative services.

Projects must be community led and show that they actively listen to, understand and respond to the needs of their local community. The fund is also looking for community organisations that demonstrate one or more of the following characteristics:

- Working towards a long-term vision
- Facilitating collaboration/connectedness
- Demonstrating innovation.

257. Scottish Book Trust - Live Literature Programme

The Trust offers funding to schools, libraries, community groups and not-for-profit organisations based in Scotland to deliver literature events or author visits in their local community.

The Programme works by the applicant contacting an author from the Live Literature Author Directory to deliver an event, and the Trust will pay half the set author fee plus expenses. Events can take place in person or remotely.

The Programme will cover the £120 of the author's fee plus all author expenses within set guidelines.

Organisations must pay a set contribution of £90 plus VAT per author session.

260. Tesco Fruit and Veg Grants

The focus of the fund is getting schools who lack funds and resources to apply for extra financial help they might need to provide healthy food and activities that boost young people's mental and physical wellbeing.

Priority is given to projects working in schools and organisations nominated by Tesco staff.

Customers in Tesco stores throughout the UK vote on which of three local projects they wish to support.

The customer vote determines the amount of money a project receives:

Grants of up to £1,500 for the project with the most votes.

Grants of up to £1,000 for the second most votes.

Grants of up to £500 for the third most votes.

Projects will be shortlisted every four months.

Applications are open to all local good causes that support children and young people, with a particular focus on projects that incorporate provision of healthy food including fruit and veg, such as breakfast clubs, providing holiday club lunches or healthy snacks.

Examples include:

- Breakfast/after-school clubs that provide fruit and veg for pupils
- Sports clubs that provide healthy food as part of the project or at half time
- Growing initiatives to grow fruit and veg or cooking classes using the food to learn
- Holiday clubs that provide healthy meals and snacks
- Projects providing SEND provision with healthy snacks/meals
- Youth clubs that provide a healthy meal/snack
- Addressing holiday hunger amongst children outside of school time
- Healthy eating projects that support families to cook healthy meals on a budget
- Foodbanks to provide food support to families
