Public Performance Reporting

This document provides information on the Council's statutory public Performance Reporting (PPR) duty.

Introduction

The Council has a statutory duty under the Local Government in Scotland Act 2003 to provide Best Value and a commitment to continuous improvement, as well as to report honestly and transparently on performance and achievements. This is called Public Performance Reporting (PPR).

All items of information that relate to PPR are posted on the Council's website, but they are also available in other forms. Some items of information are automatically available in hard copy, and all are available in hard copy if requested.

Listed below are the items of information publication, all items are expected to be published within 1 month of approval. Additionally to this list, service specific reports, plans and reviews are published by each Service.
