Section 4: Tayinloan to Carradale

— Kintyre Way

Starting from the village walk down to the shore and back up to meet the main road. Cross the A83 and follow the forestry road up over the hills, below the Deucheran Hill wind farm. You will be rewarded of views over the islands of Gigha, Isla and Jura to the east and the Arran mountains, Ailsa Craig and the Clyde Estuary to the west. Continue downhill on forestry tracks beside the Carradale Water past a hill farm to a single track road which you will follow for about half a mile. Then join a forest road to climb Cnoc na Gabhar (Deer Hill) before descending in to the village of Carradale where there is plenty of accommodation and several places to eat.
