Section 5: Carradale to Campbeltown

— Kintyre Way

This is the longest day's walk at 22 miles. Starting from Carradale follow the route through varied countryside then beside the rocky shore. Join the minor road for just over a mile before turning up past Torrisdale Castle, and the Beinn an Tuirc Gin Distillery named after the highest hill in Kintyre which is also on the estate. Continue through pastureland and forest to Ifferdale. From here you can walk a mile and a half into the village of Saddell to see the Abbey and 16th century Castle. Paul McCartney filmed the "Mull of Kintyre" video in Saddell Bay. To rejoin the Kintyre Way continue south along the road, then onto a forest road to the north of A' Chruach. From here the Way follows forestry roads past Lussa Loch to the south of which you join a single track road which leads in to historic Campbeltown. (I can edit more out of this if required)
