Easy to reach by ferry from Oban and Port Appin, Lismore is a lovely location to get away from it all. With a population of around 190, this friendly island still has many Gaelic speakers and is ideal for a quiet, relaxing holiday surrounded by beautiful scenery. There are numerous ancient historical remains on the island including many Bronze Age cairns and Iron Age duns. Tirfuir Broch which can be seen from Balnagowan Croft is one of the best preserved galleried Pictish brochs in the country

Just 9 miles long and 1.5 miles at its widest point, Lismore is ideal for cycling and offers many interesting walks with spectacular views of the sea and mountains.
