To: Heads of all Educational Establishments

Dear Colleague

Objections to liquor licence applications etc

Education service objections to applications for liquor licences which are advertised in local newspapers can only be lodged through the education office in Dunoon.

Accordingly, if any such application is made which you consider might, if granted, have a detrimental effect on your educational establishment, you should contact the education office immediately by telephone so that the appropriate steps can be taken to allow the Council's Legal Services to lodge an objection.

Heads of establishments are advised that the first step in putting forward any licence objections in relation to the education service should be to contact the education office so that the best means of dealing with each individual case can be determined.

Yours sincerely

Executive Director of Community Services
