If any 'don't knows' have been identified, at what point will impacts on these groups become identifiable?

--

How has 'due regard' been given to any negative impacts that have been identified?

None identified

Section 4: Interdependencies

Is this proposal likely to have any knock-on effects for any other activities carried out by or on behalf of the HCSP?

YES

Details of knock-on effects identified

It is likely that clarity in the way in which organisations, including the HSCP, responds to offending, risk taking behaviours and factors that may young people in this direction, will impact positively in many areas. These would include family functioning and wellbeing; keeping children and young people out of care, child protection, child poverty and violence against Women and Girls.

Section 5: Monitoring and review

How will you monitor and evaluate the equality impacts of your proposal?
---

Following completion of a Youth Justice Strategy, a Youth Justice Partnership will be constituted to monitor and evaluate all aspects on the new strategy and processes. It will be able to take any actions necessary to improve performance and mitigate any negative aspects.
