

ARGYLL & BUTE COUNCIL

DIRECT DEBIT

THE MODERN WAY TO PAY

Argyll & Bute Council recommends Direct Debit as the most efficient and effective means of paying Rates. Direct Debit offers several important advantages to both the taxpayer and the Council.

HOW YOU BENEFIT

There is no need to write out and post a cheque each time a payment becomes due. Nor do you have to give fresh instructions to your Bank or Building Society if the amount of your instalments changes during the financial years. The Council will handle all this for you.

HOW THE COUNCIL BENEFITS

Direct Debit is the most effective way of collecting Non-Domestic Rates payments.

IT'S SAFE

The Banks and Building Societies have strict rules to control the Direct Debit system:

You are always advised in advance of any changes of amount or date, so that you have time to query if necessary.

You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time.

You are assured of an immediate refund from your bank if any amount is wrongly collected.

HOW IT WORKS

Payment is made automatically from an appropriate Bank or Building Society Account in accordance with your instructions.

Once you have completed and signed the instruction overleaf please send it to Argyll & Bute Council who will do the rest.

The Non-Domestic Rates Demand Notice details your instalments. The payments will be requested as detailed on the notice or on the first available banking day thereafter. This mandate is effective only for your current premises. In the event of a change of premises a new mandate will be required and the Council will advise you of the necessary revision to your monthly payments.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE DIRECT DEBIT INSTRUCTION

Take the details, as shown in the example below, from a cheque of your own to complete the instruction. The numbers in the example coincide with the information requests in the instruction. If you are having difficulty, ask your bank for advice.

Sign the Instruction, detach it and return to Argyll & Bute Council at the address shown on your demand notice.
